LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox were thoroughly overpowered on Friday night in Pennsylvania, as they fell to the Harrisburg Senators 10-1. Bowie was shutout over the first seven innings, with only a solo home run saving them from the full shutout. Harrisburg scored runs in five of their eight innings offensively. Bowie could find no answer to Harrisburg right-hander Luis Reyes, as the 27-year-old held the Baysox to only one hit over six shutout innings. Bowie broke the shutout in the eighth inning when Cristopher Cespedes launched a solo home run to right-center field, his first of the season with Bowie. Antonio Velez was tagged for three runs early, but was still able to move through five innings while striking out six batters. Harrisburg continued to attack the bullpen, as Clayton McGinness allowed four runs in his second Double-A outing, and Easton Lucas allowed a three-run home run to Wilson Garcia.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

The first month of 2022 belonged to Harrisburg, as the Senators held the top spot in the Southwest Division for most of April, but have not found much success since. After opening the season at 12-9, they have gone 9-20 entering this week at FNB Field. Most of Harrisburg's struggles have been at the plate, as their 209 runs scored (4.3/G) is the third-fewest in the league. Harrisburg makes plenty of contact to run their offense, as they have the second-fewest strikeouts at the plate, and the fewest walks drawn in the league. The back end of this road trip could be a good lift for Bowie, as Harrisburg is only 9-15 at home at the start of this series, the second-lowest winning percentage in the league.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Jake Irvin got his well-earned promotion to Harrisburg last week after picking apart batters in High-A. Irvin made nine starts at the lower level, and only allowed five earned runs in 30 innings, while striking out 29 batters and only walking eight. Distance has been a notable problem with his starts, as Irvin never even moved into the fifth inning. He tried to enter the fifth inning in his Double-A debut against Erie, but only collected one out while allowing four runs and taking the loss. His fastball can touch up to 97 miles per hour, as well as a curveball and a changeup.

YOUNG GUNS

The Bowie pitching staff has been pitching to plenty of contact this season, for better or worse. The Baysox have allowed the third-fewest walks in the league, but also only struck out the third-fewest batters. Meanwhile, Bowie pitchers have the highest Hits/9, at just over nine.

YOUNG GUNS

The Baysox have the fourth-youngest roster in the Eastern League, with the combination of their full roster averaging 23.8 years old. Only Akron, Altoona, and New Hampshire have younger rosters than the Baysox. Harrisburg's roster is nearly two years older than Bowie on average, at 25.5 years old.

INEFFECTIVELY WILD

Bowie pitching had a tough time with grip and location on Friday, hitting five batters during their 10-1 loss. While it wasn't the most hit by pitches in a game (Harrisburg actually hit seven Richmond Flying Squirrels in a game earlier this season), it tied a franchise record for Harrisburg for batters hit by pitches, and was the most hit by pitches from Bowie pitching in a single game since at least 2005, according to the MLB Research portal.

GET 'EM ON, GET 'EM OVER, FORGOT THE LAST ONE

The Baysox left another three runners on base in Friday's game, it was the second time that Bowie had collected only two hits in a game this season, and continued a tough trend of leaving runners on base. Bowie has retaken the top spot in the league for the most runners left on base, with 395 total runners left stranded, and average of 7.4 runners left on base per game.

FIELD GENERALS

Bowie's catchers have been a strong asset this season. Bowie's CS% of 47% from their catchers is the highest mark in the league. Additionally, Bowie has only allowed 23 stolen bases this season, the fewest in the minors.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Drew Rom has only thrown ten innings in his three starts since returning from the Injured List. See Page 2 for more.

EL LEADERBOARDS (AS OF 6/7) - Off: AVG (.248, 2nd) / R (241, 5th) / HR (54, 6th) / BB (241, 1st) Pit: ERA (4.96, 9th), K (459, 11th), HR (64, 2nd)

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, MiLB has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, returning Bowie to the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Notes

- Gained 27 pounds between the start of spring training and Opening Day. "Just eating and lifting. Starting to focus now on making some muscle out of it"
- Picked up tips on his changeup from Orioles starter John Means when Means made a rehab start with Bowie in 2021: "I was kind of like the little kid, just nervous to talk to him. Eventually I got the nuts to ask him about his changeup. He was the nicest, most genuine guy. He told me how he throws it, how he grips it. He was awesome about it."
- Closed 2021 with 13 consecutive scoreless innings for Bowie after allowing at least one earned run in each of his previous seven outings, including all of his outings with Bowie.
- In 2021, Aberdeen averaged eight runs in games Drew appeared in, while Bowie only averaged 5.8 runs in the same games
- Major contributor for manager Kyle Moore with the Delmarva Shorebirds in 2019. Team finished with a 90-48 record, the best in Minor League Baseball. Rom was one of eight Shorebirds named to the South Atlantic League All-Star Game.

What They're Saying:

Matt Blood, Orioles Dir. of Player Development: "He throws a lot of strikes. He's deceptive, he's an uncomfortable at-bat for hitters and he's still pretty young, so we're excited about that."

MLB Pipeline: "Lean and projectable, Rom hides the ball well by creating deception with his 6-foot-2 frame. He releases from a three-quarters arm slot and uses his long stride and crossfire finish to create good extension, which allows his pitches to play up and miss barrels consistently. He is comfortable throwing either off-speed pitch in fastball counts as well as mixing up arm angles; he couples this unpredictability with a quick pace and moderate effort delivery that projects durability."

Baseball America: "Rom hasn't yet developed a standout pitch, but a varied mix and precocious pitchability have helped him carve up hitters at every level. He experimented with dropping his arm slot against lefties to create different action on his two-seam fastball. Rom knows how the pitches play off one another, and pitches backwards while taking advantage of his deception and angles."

Notes by Outing

- Apr 8 v RIC: Bowie's Opening Day starter, was peppered with base hits over his three innings, six singles. Allowed three single over the first two innings, but did not allow a runner to reach third base. Once he reached the second trip through the order, Richmond started with two singles and two walks to eventually score three runs.
- Apr 14 @ BNG: Five shutout frames versus the Ponies, with his only hiccup coming in the second inning, where he allowed a pair of base hits and a walk to load the bases with only one out. Those three baserunners were the only three he allowed all day.
- Apr 21 v AKR: Retired 12 of the first 13 batters faced. Only baserunner was a two-out infield single in the first inning. First inning was also hampered by reaching a three-ball count on each of the first three batters. Left midway through the fifth inning after allowing the first three batters to reach on a walk and two singles. Bowie won with a walk-off in the tenth inning.
- Apr 28 @ RIC: Gave up a string of five-consecutive base hits with one out in the first inning, allowing three runs to score. Labored through lengthy plate appearances for the following two innings, including stranding the bases loaded in the second inning. Only finished three innings.
- 5/4 v HBG: Retired the first eight batters of the game, while striking out three. Allowed a pair of base hits with two outs in the third inning, but stranded both runners and worked a hitless fourth and fifth. In the sixth inning, allowed three singles to load the bases before being lifted from the game, and a wild pitch allowed one of the runners to score.
- 5/25 v ERI: First start in three weeks following an IL stint, and was placed on a pitch limit. Allowed a solo home run to Kerry Carpenter in the first inning (Carpenter hit five home runs in the six-game series, and was named EL Player of the Week). Fired a perfect second inning with three contact outs, but allowed a double and a two-run home run with one out in the third inning before being lifted.
- 5/31 @ ALT: Allowed an unearned run in the first inning after a leadoff single. Allowed two one-out singles in the second inning before rattling off seven-consecutive outs, including five of his six strikeouts. Lifted in the fourth inning after allowing a two-out double and RBI single.
- 6/5 @ ALT: Lone run scored on a double, wild pitch, and sacrifice fly in the second inning. Allowed at least one hit in all four innings.

Player Notes

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeprich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19 1/3 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California. // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June. // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances. // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 35 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start. // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Player Notes

144 strikeouts in 2021 were the second-most in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers (171). // Played 30 games with Bowie, and 75 with Aberdeen. // Only hit .185 with a .612 OPS in the month of May to start the season with Aberdeen, but built back to a .256 average and an .814 OPS over the remaining four months of the season. // Was drafted by Tampa Bay in the 40th round of the 2016 draft, but elected not to sign. // Comes from a smart and athletic family. Andrew himself is a legacy graduate of Stanford, his sister was a four-year stater for Princeton Volleyball, and both parents played tennis.

Player Notes

Began the season with Triple-A Norfolk, appearing in 41 games, and slashing .154/.262/.254 with three home runs, 14 RBI, 53 strikeouts, and 19 walks. // 2022 Non-Roster invite to Spring Training. // Spent most of the 2021 season with Bowie, where he appeared in 112 games for the Baysox, slashing .246/.362/.475 with 22 HR and 67 RBI. 22 HR was good for the third-most in the Orioles farm behind just Kyle Stowers and Adley Rutschman. // Earned AANE POTW honors on 5/16. // Was the Player to be Named Later sent to Baltimore on June 26, 2019 to complete the trade that sent RHP Yefry Ramirez to Pittsburgh on May 27, 2019. // Originally drafted in the 12th round of the 2014 draft out of Kingston High School by the Atlanta Braves, but voluntarily requested his release before playing in a professional game in the GCL. "I just didn't feel like I was ready and I just didn't feel like I was prepared. Being a 17-, 18-year-old kid, that's just a big jump, you know what I mean? Especially without college and everything. It was just a lot and I thought about it and, at the time, that was the best decision." (Jon Meoli/Baltimore Sun) // Following his release, played two years at community college, and two years at Division 2 Lynn University before signing as a Minor League Free Agent with Pittsburgh. // Trained with Detroit Tigers infielder Zack Short during the pandemic to improve his power.

Was critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins against Akron in April, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error. // Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the third weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the first day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Tough Luck: Was the only player not to reach base for Bowie in their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, going 0-for-6 at the plate, tying a career-high three strikeouts, including a strikeout looking by Jonathan Englemann, Akron's outfielder. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at first base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Was promoted to Bowie, but missed the final month of 2021 due to a fractured thumb in mid-August, and did not appear in a game for the Baysox. // .536 SLG in 2021 was the best in the Orioles system among players with at least 300 PA. // Played 52 games in Aberdeen, 20 in Delmarva. Earned his promotion after hitting .324 with four home runs in the 20 games. // Spent first two seasons in college at Virginia Tech, but transferred to Radford for his final two seasons after a coaching change.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
