LAST GAME

Despite their second ninth inning game-tying home run in less than a week, the Bowie Baysox were instead handed their seventh walk-off loss of the season on Wednesday night, dropping another game to the Erie SeaWolves 5-4 in 11 innings. Bowie made inroads early with an RBI single from Maverick Handley in the first inning, and then a pair of errors by Erie to score a run in the third. The early offense was the best Bowie could manage until the ninth inning, however, as right-hander Austin Bergner fired six innings while striking out six batters. Dane Myers carried most of the load for Erie, blasting two home runs to make it a 4-2 game, but a ninth inning game-tying two-run home run by Zach Watson gave Bowie new life. While Erie held Bowie empty in the two extra innings, Quincy Nieporte finally closed the game with a walk-off single off of Jensen Elliott in the 11th.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

The final week of the first half is an important one for the SeaWolves, as they hope to overcome a scant two-game deficit in the Southwest Division to clinch their first berth in the Eastern League playoffs since 2013. While much of their offense has been league-average, their numbers are carried heavily by early MVP candidate Kerry Carpenter, as the outfielder leads all of Minor League Baseball with 22 home runs, a number that trails only Aaron Judge's 25 among all of baseball. Carpenter hit five home runs against Bowie in May, and 13 total in the month of May. As a staff, Erie has put together some of the best pitching numbers in the league, including the fewest walks allowed, and the second-best ERA. Their starting rotation has been the best in the league, with a 3.07 ERA.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

In just his second Minor League season, right-hander Wilmer Flores has turned some heads following a stellar start to the season with High-A West Michigan. While he does share a name with his older brother, San Francisco Giants infielder Wilmer Flores, the younger Flores dominates on the mound rather than in the field. In his Double-A debut, Flores fired five one-hit innings against New Hampshire while striking out seven batters and only walking one. In the outing, Flores retired the final 12 batters he faced in order. Bowie nicked him for four runs and seven hits in May, but has only allowed six earned runs in his following 16 innings. While his fastball has had its issues with location, it can get up to 98 miles per hour. He also features a tight curveball, and a budding changeup and a cutter.

OUT OF GAS

Bowie has been dealt seven walk-off losses this season, a scenario that is normally only possible through bullpen performance. In just their last nine games, the Bowie bullpen has seen their collective ERA rise from 4.71 to 4.96, the highest mark in the league. Bowie relievers have also allowed a league-leading 37 home runs.

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie had an early handle on one-run games this season, as they opened the season at an even 3-3 in games decided by one run, but have only gone 5-12 in one run games since. One run games have been the biggest factor in Bowie's current position in the standings, as their 23 one-run games is the third-most in the league, but their .348 winning percentage in one run games is the worst in the league.

TRY FOR SOME GROUND BALLS

Baysox pitching has had their ERA heavily influenced by the long ball. The 84 home runs allowed by Bowie pitching is the second-most in the Eastern League. Bowie has allowed 18 total home runs over their last 13 games, the most in the league. Bowie has allowed 19 home runs to Erie already in just eight games. Already tied for the most home runs they've allowed to any single opponent this season.

FIELD GENERALS

Bowie's catchers have been a strong asset this season. Bowie's CS% of 44% from their catchers is the highest mark in the league. Additionally, Bowie has only allowed 29 stolen bases this season, the fewest in the minors. Catcher Cody Roberts made a big return to Bowie after a short trip up to Triple-A Norfolk, going 5-for-12 at the plate with a three-run home run, a walk-off RBI single, and a double. Roberts tied a career high with four RBI on Friday, and has collected hits in 13 of his last 14 games with the Baysox.

Career Notes

- Saw his ERA more than double across the jump from Low-A to High-A. 2.14 across 33.2 innings with Delmarva, and 4.94 across 31 innings with Aberdeen.
- In the Orioles system, his 79 strikeouts in 2021 were the third-most among pitchers who made at least half of their appearances in relief.
- Auburn native played four years for his local university, logging a 4.01 ERA, but a 0.67 WHIP.

What They're Saying:

Watson on his approach to at bats: "I took what my college coach, coach Thompson at Auburn, he was big on not walking guys. Challenging the hitters, and going right after them. I try not to waste any time, and just go after them with my best stuff, and my best locations. Attacking hitters is my philosophy."

Watson ongoing through the 2020 draft as an NDFA: "There were a couple of teams that had made contact, but Baltimore was the one that been the most thorough in talking with me so it was a no-brainer."

Garrett Stallings, Bowie Starter and Watson's Throwing Partner: "He's put a ton of work on this offseason. Moving better, a lot more aware of his body. Honestly, I think he's just out there not thinking too much. When a pitcher is in a groove, the gears start turning. He's the most electric guy on the team right now, and he's trying extremely hard to get better, and that's a dangerous combination."

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Tough Luck: Was the only player not to reach base for Bowie in their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, going 0-for-6 at the plate, tying a career-high three strikeouts, including a strikeout looking by Jonathan Englemann, Akron's outfielder. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at first base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Was promoted to Bowie, but missed the final month of 2021 due to a fractured thumb in mid-August, and did not appear in a game for the Baysox. // .536 SLG in 2021 was the best in the Orioles system among players with at least 300 PA. // Played 52 games in Aberdeen, 20 in Delmarva. Earned his promotion after hitting .324 with four home runs in the 20 games. // Spent first two seasons in college at Virginia Tech, but transferred to Radford for his final two seasons after a coaching change.

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
