LAST GAME

The Baysox found themselves of the other end of a late-inning comeback on Saturday, falling to Binghamton 8-5. Bowie lead by at least two runs for most of the game, and three runs entering the eighth inning, but a game-tying home run by Brett Baty in the eighth, followed by an RBI double by Brandon McLain sunk Bowie's hopes at a fourth-consecutive win. Most of Bowie's offense came in the first inning as they attacked starter Hunter Parsons for four runs on two-RBI knocks by Adam Hall and Andrew Daschbach. Zach Peek allowed only one earned run on the day while striking out five batters across a career-high six innings.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Binghamton has run into many of the same problems as Bowie in 2022, with games plagued by pitching woes. Entering the series, Binghamton has the highest ERA in the Eastern League, and the only one north of 5.00, at 5.09. The two teams have had inverted issues from their staffs, as Bowie has a worse ERA from their relievers, but Binghamton has had a worse ERA from their starting pitchers. The Ponies have only won consecutive games four times this season and have not won three-consecutive games at any point this season. 20-year-old Francisco Alvarez has been anchoring the offense, as the top Mets prospect has collected five of Binghamton's 10 home runs in the month of June.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander David Griffin has made some big jumps in the Mets system after being spending two seasons in the independent ranks. While Griffin only allowed four earned runs in 15 innings with High-A to start the season, Double-A batters have been more liable to make contact. Over his first four starts with Binghamton, Griffin allowed 15 earned runs in 14.1 innings of work, allowing three home runs and only striking out 10 batters. While he only allowed one earned run in his final start of May, the outing only lasted two innings while he used 40 pitches. Griffin has whipped it into shape in his last two starts, going five innings in each and allowing just three earned runs.

NO NEED TO DASCH TO FIRST

First baseman Andrew Daschbach has had a curious relationship with full counts and walks this season. While currently on pace to eclipse his 42 walks from 2021, Daschbach is also on pace to strike out 169 times, nearly 30 more times than 2021. Most interesting of his approach to the plate has been Daschbach's ability to draw a full count. He has worked 42 plate appearances full this season, the seventh-most in the league. He does not have a single base hit on a full count. No other batter among the top 50 for most full counts in the league has gone hitless on full counts.

TALK TO ME, GOOSE

Baysox catcher Maverick Handley is flying high lately. Over his last 20 games, Handley has slashed .348/.439/.565 while slugging three home runs, six doubles, driving in 14 runs, and only striking out 10 times with just as many walks. All three slash lines lead the Baysox among qualified players on the roster.

SWINGING LOGS AT BEACH BALLS

Bowie has broken through lately for some of their best contact numbers all season, as they have logged 174 hits over their last 19 games, the most in the league over the span. Bowie has collected at least ten hits in ten games during the span, including a stretch of six-consecutive games, tied for the longest team streak in the Eastern League this season, only Somerset has an equal stretch. Prior to this streak, Bowie had not collected at least ten hits in back-to-back games all season. Prior to the start of the streak, Bowie was averaging about 7.5 hits per game, and have been averaging 9.2 hits per game since the start of the streak.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Chris Vallimont tossed five scoreless innings on Tuesday against Binghamton. See Page 2 for more.

Career Notes

- In 2021, led the Wind Surge in strikeouts (130), second in starts (21) and third in innings pitched (91.0 IP). Finished second in the league in strikeouts. Struck out eight-plus batters in seven different outings, including a season-high of nine three times: June 11 at Tulsa, June 27 at Midland and September 1 at Arkansas.
- Pitched three seasons at Mercyhurst College (PA), going 21-8 with a 2.54 ERA (166.2 IP, 47 ER), 268 strikeouts and 75 walks in 36 games (25 starts).

What They're Saying:

Baseball America: "His fastball sits in the 92-93 mph range and has been up to 95-96, and analysts love the metrics beyond the velocity, especially the extreme carry and vertical break of the offering. His go-to secondary and most effective pitch this year was a mid-80s slider with spin in the 2,500 rpm range and solid sweeping action. The 6-foot-5 righty also throws an upper-70s curveball and a low-80s changeup. All his offerings have average or a tick better potential, but he needs to take a big step forward with the consistency of his command against upper-level bats. The Twins have developed Vallimont as a starter, and he has a deep arsenal and the physical frame, but his control might make him a better fit for the pen, where perhaps his velocity could tick up."

Notes by Outing

- 6/8 @ HBG Orioles organizational debut, first live game in just over three weeks. Walked first batter of the game, and an infield single to follow pushed the runner to third base. Runner scored on a groundout, before facing the minimum for the rest of the outing. Struck out two batters in second and third innings
- 6/14 v BNG Allowed leadoff batter to reach in 1st, 3rd, and 4th innings, as well as the runner to reach second base, but did not allow any other runners,

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
