LAST GAME

The Baysox soared over the Richmond Flying Squirrels on Sunday night at Prince George's Stadium, taking the finale of the six-game series 5-1. Coincidentally, 5-1 was also how the full series had ended in favor of the Baysox, as they won five games in a series for the first time this season. Making his second rehab start for the Baysox, Matt Harvey spun five scoreless innings while striking out seven batters, while Justin Armbruster followed in tandem to strike out eight batters and earn the four-inning save. Bowie broke through for three runs in the third inning on a two-run home run by Maverick Handley, and Zach Watson contributed with a two-run blast of his own in the seventh.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Going from one first half winner to the other, the Baysox are on their only trip to New Jersey this season. The Yankees Double-A affiliate has consistently had the best pitching staff in the league, sporting a 3.46 ERA, but it has not been buoyed by any other league-leading marks, such as strikeouts, walks, or hits allowed. The addition of power to the lineup has always been a help for the Patriots, as they enter the series as the only team in the league with over 100 home runs. No individual player has carried the load in full for Somerset, as they have four different players with at least ten home runs. Speed has been critical for their success as well, with two players among the top three for stolen bases in the EL, including Anthony Volpe's league-leading 32.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Sean Boyle is getting his first full taste of Double-A action after climbing through the Yankees organization for over three years. A "Have Arm, Will Travel" pitcher in the organization in 2021, Boyle made at least four appearances at all four main affiliates for the Yankees, including six outings at Triple-A where he only allowed three earned runs in 25.1 innings. His time with Somerset this season has been somewhat erratic, however. Following a two-start span in which he allowed 17 runs in 8.1 innings to end May, Boyle has gone 3-1 in his following five starts, allowing only 12 earned runs in 29.1 innings. Home runs have been harmful to the right-hander, as his 13 home runs allowed is tied for the fourth-most in the league this season.

HIGH-CONTACT SURFACE

While the Baysox do still lead the Eastern League in walks drawn this season, the lead has been shrinking while Bowie has made transitions into more contact at the plate. In the last 30 days, Bowie has only drawn 94 walks in 28 games (3.6) only the seventh-most in the league, but in the same span their 228 hits is the most in the league, and their 225 strikeouts is the second-fewest in the league.

NOW THAT'S A STAFF

Bowie pitching has been on strong run over this current win streak. Over the first six games of the second half, Bowie pitching has held a strong 3.46 ERA. While the Baysox did enter this half with an overall 4.99 ERA, the highest in the league, these for games have dropped them down to 4.86, a step in the right direction at just the third-highest in the league.

CO-CO-COMING UP

For the start of the second half, Baltimore has promoted three of its top offensive prospects to Bowie following successful stints with Aberdeen. Colton Cowser is ranked as the Orioles #4 prospect and #54 overall prospect by MLB Pipeline, made a quick impression on the Baysox lineup, going 3-for-3 with a home run in his first official Double-A at bat, and has already drawn seven walks against just five strikeouts in five games. Connor Norby is ranked as the Orioles #10 prospect by MLB Pipeline, and went 1-for-4 with a walk in a run scored in his debut while leading off for Bowie, and has collected a hit in every game played with Bowie so far, as well as drawing three walks against just four strikeouts. Coby Mayo is ranked as the Orioles #7 prospect by MLB Pipeline, but the infielder went 0-for-5 in his debut, but rebounded to smash a two-run home run for his first Double-A hit.

FIELD GENERALS

Thanks to Cody Roberts and Maverick Handley, Bowie has had the most feared backstops in the league. Bowie's CS% of 40% is the highest mark in the league. Additionally, Bowie has only allowed 36 stolen bases this season, the second-fewest in the minors (Omaha-32).

Career Notes

- Saw his ERA more than double across the jump from Low-A to High-A. 2.14 across 33.2 innings with Delmarva, and 4.94 across 31 innings with Aberdeen.
- In the Orioles system, his 79 strikeouts in 2021 were the third-most among pitchers who made at least half of their appearances in relief.
- Auburn native played four years for his local university, logging a 4.01 ERA, but a 0.67 WHIP.

What They're Saying:

Watson on his approach to at bats: "I took what my college coach, coach Thompson at Auburn, he was big on not walking guys. Challenging the hitters, and going right after them. I try not to waste any time, and just go after them with my best stuff, and my best locations. Attacking hitters is my philosophy."

Watson ongoing through the 2020 draft as an NDFA: "There were a couple of teams that had made contact, but Baltimore was the one that been the most thorough in talking with me so it was a no-brainer."

Garrett Stallings, Bowie Starter and Watson's Throwing Partner: "He's put a ton of work on this offseason. Moving better, a lot more aware of his body. Honestly, I think he's just out there not thinking too much. When a pitcher is in a groove, the gears start turning. He's the most electric guy on the team right now, and he's trying extremely hard to get better, and that's a dangerous combination."

Notes by Outing ^

- 4/20 v AKR Matched his previous relief outing with four more consecutive perfect innings, completing a one-hit shutout of Akron while earning a long save. Struck out three batters, induced six ground outs, and three fly outs. Across first 24 batters faced, only two reached a three-ball count.
- 4/27 @ RIC Saw his perfect streak come to an end on the fifth batter of the game on a single by Brandon Martorano. Allowed two runners to reach second base, but none to reach third base.
- 5/3 v HBG Lost his 13 inning scoreless streak after only two batters. Allowed back-to-back doubles to open the first inning, as Jake Alu drove in a run. Taylor Gushue followed with a two-run home run for three runs in the opening frame. Faced the minimum for 12-consecutive batters, but hit another snag in the fifth inning when he allowed a two-run home run to Alu. Bowie tied the game at five in the fifth, as Watson departed midway through the top of the sixth.
- 5/11 @ REA Allowed a two-out solo home run to Aldrem Corredor in the first inning, just into the corner in left field. Allowed two baserunners in the second inning through a walk and an error, but worked a double play. Faced exactly four batters in all five innings pitched on the night.
- 5/17 v HFD While Bowie did take an early 2-0 lead, he allowed five runs in the second inning after facing the minimum in the first inning. Three-run home run by Jimmy Herron was the key hit in the frame. Allowed a pair of unearned runs in the third inning after a leadoff error.
- 5/22 v HFD Closed the series with Hartford, and opened with eight-consecutive outs with four strikeouts. Allowed a leadoff single in the fourth inning and a two-run home run to Michael Toglia before working through the inning and extending into the fifth.
- 5/28 v ERI Struck out three batters in the first inning, allowed a leadoff home run to Quincy Nieporte in the second inning.
- 6/3 @ ALT RBI double by Andres Alvarez in the second inning was his only run allowed. Retired the following eight batters before allowing another double to Alvarez in the fifth.
- 6/9 @ HBG After Bowie had a first inning home run, Watson allowed a leadoff home run to Jack Dunn in the bottom of the first. Eventually allowed another run on two walks and a single. Two more runs scored in the second inning on a single and an error. Worked perfect in the third and fourth innings with five additional strikeouts.
- 6/16 v BNG Allowed five early runs, including a solo home run to Francisco Alvarez, and a two-run home run to Carlos Cortes over the first three innings, but finished with two scoreless innings.
- 6/23 @ ERI Allowed a solo home run to the second batter of the game, but only one additional baserunner through the fourth inning as the game sat tied at 1-1. Allowed three consecutive hits in the fifth inning for two runs.
- 6/29 v RIC Allowed three-consecutive two out baserunners in the first inning for his only run. Followed the run with 15-consecutive batters retired before an infield single in the sixth.

Player Notes

Shifts to the bullpen after spending the first three months of the season in the Bowie rotation, but hit a snag in June, allowing a total of 43 ER and 53 hits in just 17.0 IP across six games from 5/27-6/28. Bowie lost every game he started during the span, while Stallings was the losing pitcher in five of the six. // Started the 11th no-hitter in Baysox history. Threw six innings against Harrisburg on May 8th in a seven-inning game. // Ranked as the Orioles #30 prospect in the 2021 Midseason rankings by Baseball America, did not make a prospect list in 2022. // Friday starter at Tennessee in his Junior season, went 8-5 / 3.33 ERA / 106 K / 16 BB / 102.2 IP // Rotated piggyback roles in six appearances with Bowie in 2021, making three starts and three long relief outings. // Acquired by Baltimore in 2020 in a trade with the Los Angeles Angels. Full Trade: Angels receive SS Jose Iglesias. Orioles receive RHP Garrett Stallings and RHP Jean Pinto. // Spent his time following the 2020 draft at the Angels alternate site at Long Beach State before being dealt to Baltimore the same December. // Initially drafted by the Angels in the 5th round of 2020 out of the University of Tennessee, but did not appear in a game for the organization. // Orioles EVP/GM Mike Elias has targeted Stallings in the 2020 draft, but was taken earlier by the Angels.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
