LAST GAME

The Baysox burned through Akron in a speedy 2-1 win on Friday night to extend their winning streak to four consecutive games, and win the overall series with the RubberDucks. Joey Ortiz carried the offense for Bowie with a pair of solo home runs, his first career multi-home run game. Making his first active start since 2019 due to Tommy John Surgery, right-hander Brennan Haniffee struck out six batters in three brief innings for his Double-A debut, while Garrett Stallings continued to tear through opposing batters across six scoreless innings of long relief, striking out seven of his own. The game was played in just 1:52, the shortest nine-inning game played by the Baysox since a 2-0 win over Altoona on 5/7/18 at PNG Field, where Bowie tossed a one-hitter in 1:51. It was the fastest nine-inning game at Prince George's Stadium since 7/28/08 when Bowie beat New Britain 7-0, also in 1:51.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Bowie continues their tour of facing off with key players in the first half playoff race, as Akron was in the mix for the Southwest Division berth on the last day of the half, before losing the potential spot to Richmond. In the second half, Akron has not been off to as hot of a start, only opening 4-7. A pitching staff that was full of quality arms in the first half has been looking for consistency over the last two weeks, sporting 5.33 ERA in the half, and having walked the third-most batters in the league this half. Offensively, Akron has the second most home runs in the second half, despite playing one fewer game, and have been very patient this season, striking out the fewest times in the league, and is tied with Bowie for the second-most walks drawn.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Gavin Williams is one of the best pitching prospects in the Guardians organization, and was well-deserving of his promotion from High-A toward the end of the first half. With the High-A squad, Williams had only allowed multiple runs in just one of his nine starts, while striking out five batters in every start. Williams has had a handful of shorter outings since joining Akron, but has still struck out at least five in all but one start (where he was lifted in the first inning after 39 pitches.) At the Double-A level, 71% of the balls put in play against Williams have been fly balls, while he has already allowed two home runs. Featuring a mid-90s fastball that can draw whiffs at the top of the zone, Williams has hit triple digits at points, a two-plane curveball, as well as a slider and a changeup.

JOLTIN' JOEY

Baysox infielder Joey Ortiz has been on a great run to start the month of July. In 13 games this month, Ortiz has already gone 17-for-47 (.286) at the plate with a pair of doubles, his first career multi-home run game on Friday, and leads the team with nine runs scored in the month. Ortiz was ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. He has already played more games this season than in 2021, due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June.

BURNING RUBBER

Bowie is already 8-2 against the RubberDucks this season, their best winning percentage against any opponent this year. The recent seasons have mostly favored Akron, as well as the postseason meeting between these two teams in 2021. Bowie has not had a winning season against the RubberDucks since 2017, when they went 12-7.

LOOK, IT'S A PITCHING TEAM NOW

While many of Bowie's strengths were coming from the offense over the first few months of the season, July has been propped up by the Bowie pitching staff. Bowie has the fewest hits (88) in the Eastern League this month, and have scored the fewest runs (42), while also drawing just the second-fewest walks (34). But in July, Bowie has pitched to the second-most wins (8), the most strikeouts (141) the fewest walks allowed (31) and the best ERA (2.85).

MIGHT AS WELL JUST START ON BASE

Some of Bowie's offensive woes this season have not been from a lack of effort. In fact, the Baysox are the team most likely to start an inning with a runner on base in the Eastern League. Bowie leads the league in all three slash lines (.280/.367/.481) from the first batter of an inning this season. They also lead the league in lead off home runs and doubles, while sporting the fourth-fewest strikeouts from the first batter of an inning. All of those numbers combine to Bowie leaving 621 runners on base this season, the most in the league by 20, and an average of 7.5 per game. Inversely, Bowie has the third-most strikeouts in the league when batting with runners on base.

Player Notes

Shifts to the bullpen after spending the first three months of the season in the Bowie rotation, but hit a snag in June, allowing a total of 43 ER and 53 hits in just 17.0 IP across six games from 5/27-6/28. Bowie lost every game he started during the span, while Stallings was the losing pitcher in five of the six. // Started the 11th no-hitter in Baysox history. Threw six innings against Harrisburg on May 8th in a seven-inning game. // Ranked as the Orioles #30 prospect in the 2021 Midseason rankings by Baseball America, did not make a prospect list in 2022. // Friday starter at Tennessee in his Junior season, went 8-5 / 3.33 ERA / 106 K / 16 BB / 102.2 IP // Rotated piggyback roles in six appearances with Bowie in 2021, making three starts and three long relief outings. // Acquired by Baltimore in 2020 in a trade with the Los Angeles Angels. Full Trade: Angels receive SS Jose Iglesias. Orioles receive RHP Garrett Stallings and RHP Jean Pinto. // Spent his time following the 2020 draft at the Angels alternate site at Long Beach State before being dealt to Baltimore the same December. // Initially drafted by the Angels in the 5th round of 2020 out of the University of Tennessee, but did not appear in a game for the organization. // Orioles EVP/GM Mike Elias has targeted Stallings in the 2020 draft, but was taken earlier by the Angels.

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
