LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox suffered their second-consecutive extra-inning walk-off loss on Sunday afternoon, as they dropped a 2-1 game to the Harrisburg Senators. After each side was held scoreless over the first nine innings, both teams plated a run in the tenth, before Harrisburg came away with the walk-off single in the 11th. Zach Peek spun his best outing of the season to open the day for Bowie, as the right-hander worked through five scoreless innings while allowing only two hits, no walks, and striking out five batters. Conner Loeprich followed up with four more scoreless innings of his own to match a previous four scoreless innings from earlier in the same series, but Bowie was also held scoreless by Senators starter Steven Fuentes, along with three relievers to send the game into extras. Bowie failed to drive in a run over the entire game, as their only run scored was on a wild pitch in the tenth inning. As a pinch hitter, Wilson Garcia closed an incredible series against Bowie by lining a game-tying double with two outs in the tenth inning, while Jack Dunn delivered the walk-off single in the tenth.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Binghamton has run into many of the same problems as Bowie in 2022, with games plagued by pitching woes. Entering the series, Binghamton has the highest ERA in the Eastern League, and the only one north of 5.00, at 5.09. The two teams have had inverted issues from their staffs, as Bowie has a worse ERA from their relievers, but Binghamton has had a worse ERA from their starting pitchers. The Ponies have only won consecutive games four times this season and have not won three-consecutive games at any point this season. 20-year-old Francisco Alvarez has been anchoring the offense, as the top Mets prospect has collected five of Binghamton's 10 home runs in the month of June.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander David Griffin has made some big jumps in the Mets system after being spending two seasons in the independent ranks. While Griffin only allowed four earned runs in 15 innings with High-A to start the season, Double-A batters have been more liable to make contact. Over his first four starts with Binghamton, Griffin allowed 15 earned runs in 14.1 innings of work, allowing three home runs and only striking out 10 batters. While he only allowed one earned run in his final start of May, the outing only lasted two innings while he used 40 pitches. Griffin finally pieced together a respectable outing in his last start, allowing only one run in five innings to New Hampshire.

GET 'EM ON, GET 'EM OVER, FORGOT THE LAST ONE

The Baysox left another 12 runners on base in Sunday's game, including four runners left on third base. It continues a tough trend of leaving runners on base. Bowie has retaken the top spot in the league for the most runners left on base, with 415 total runners left stranded, and average of 7.4 runners left on base per game.

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie had an early handle on one-run games this season, as they opened the season at an even 3-3 in games decided by one run, but have only gone 3-11 in one run games since. One run games have been the biggest factor in Bowie's current position in the standings, as their 20 one-run games is the third-most in the league, but their .300 winning percentage in one run games is the worst in the league.

SEASONAL DROUGHTS

Bowie's offense has struggled recently, scoring only one run in three-consecutive games. It is the third time this season that the Baysox have scored one run or fewer in consecutive games, and the second time this year Bowie has scored three or fewer runs in a three-game span, when they scored only one run in three-consecutive games against Richmond from 4/29-5/1. Prior to this season, the last time Bowie was held to three or fewer total runs in a three-game span was 7/25-7/27 2019, when they dropped the first three games in a series at Binghamton. Bowie lost the first game 3-2 in 11 innings, the second game 6-0, and the third game 2-1.

FIELD GENERALS

Bowie's catchers have been a strong asset this season. Bowie's CS% of 47% from their catchers is the highest mark in the league. Additionally, Bowie has only allowed 23 stolen bases this season, the fewest in the minors.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Drew Rom has only thrown ten innings in his three starts since returning from the Injured List. See Page 2 for more.

Player Notes

Missed significant time in 2021 due to injury, including all of May and, later, all of August. // Played 15 games in the Arizona Fall League with the Mesa Solar Sox, hitting .279 with three home runs and 14 RBI, as well as a .935 OPS. // In total, played just 24 games with Bowie, 10 with Delmarva, and four games on a rehab trip to the Complex League. // Was named one of the two PTBNL from the Atlanta Braves in November of 2020 in exchange for LHP Tommy Milone. Full trade: Atlanta receives LHP Tommy Milone, Baltimore receives two PTBNL (Cullen and SS AJ Graffanino). // Was twice named a Braves Organization All-Star by MLB.com, in 2018 and 2019. // Initially drafted by Atlanta in the 15th round of the 2018 draft.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."
