TODAY'S GAME: The Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (Single-A, Los Angeles Angels) go for a win to take them into the All-Star break in the series finale against the Lake Elsinore Storm (Single-A, San Diego Padres). Last night, The Storm collected 16 hits and drew six walks against four different Quakes arms to grab an 8-2 victory, preserving a chance at a series split. Today, LHP Alton Davis receives the starting assignment for Rancho Cucamonga opposite RHP Jesus Castro for Lake Elsinore.

ABOUT THE STORM: The Lake Elsinore Storm, founded in 1994, play their 32nd season of operation in 2026. Originally founded as the Santa Clara Padres, the team has relocated three times, also going by the Redwood Pioneers and Palm Springs Angels before settling in Lake Elsinore in 1994. Brallan Perez is in his first season managing the ballclub after a three-year run with the ACL Padres, serving as their bench coach in 2023 and 2024 before becoming their manager in 2025. The Storm have won four California League titles, most recently in 2022, and they are the 2026 First Half South Division champions. This season marks their 26th as Padres affiliate after holding a previous affiliation with the Angels (1980-2000) and playing their first season as an independent team (1979).

DO YOU KNOW THE WAY OUT OF SAN JOSE: Last week, despite a series of strong pitching performances and four close games to open the series, the Quakes dropped all six games to the San Jose Giants. Throughout the week, the starting rotation stepped up to keep them competitive and give them opportunities to grab victories late in games. In the series opener, Ubaldo Soto tossed six scoreless innings, scattering one hit and one walk while striking out nine batters before Rancho Cucamonga lost 2-1 in 11 innings. The very next night, Talon Haley allowed just two earned runs over five innings, taking a no-decision in an eventual 5-4 defeat. Dylan Jordan notched a quality start of his own on Thursday, permitting one hit and one walk over six frames, striking out seven while lowering his ERA under four before the Giants rallied late to win 5-0. Finally, Derek Clark lasted five innings on Friday, giving up three earned runs in the process. Offensively, the Quakes struggled to find a consistent rhythm, scoring more than two runs just twice, both in one-run losses. Ultimately, they lost three one-run games and took two scoreless games into the eighth inning over the first four nights before suffering heavy defeats over the weekend to end their time in the South Bay.

WARM WEATHER, WARMER BATS: Throughout the month of June, the Quakes heated up at the plate, becoming one of the California League's most productive offenses. In addition to leading the circuit in home runs (34) and on-base percentage (.365) while also tying for first in batting average (.275) and RBI (159), Rancho Cucamonga finished second in runs (167), hits (238), slugging percentage (.471), and on-base plus slugging (.836). Furthermore, they scored at least 10 runs in six games including all three of their wins against the Ontario Tower Buzzers (Single-A, Los Angeles Dodgers). Individually, Hayden Alvarez had a June to remember. He finished the month atop the league's stolen base charts (17), likewise placing second in runs (24), tying for second in triples (3), third in hits (32), and ninth in batting average (.330). Kevyn Castillo himself finished first in walks (20) and tied for second in home runs (6), and at the same time, Kendrey Maduro registered the second-most RBI (25), two ahead of teammate Ryland Zaborowski (23), and doubles (10), alongside his 31 hits, 23 runs, and .659 slugging percentage, 1.055 on-base plus slugging, and .341 batting average, all top 10 totals.

THE FIRST HALF RECAP: On Thursday, June 18th, the first half of the 2026 California League season officially came to a close. The Lake Elsinore Storm clinched the top spot in the South Division as well as an automatic playoff berth with a record of 39-27. Rancho Cucamonga did not finish far behind, securing second place at 36-30. In the North Division, the San Jose Giants (Single-A, San Francisco Giants) booked their playoff place as First Half champions, tying Lake Elsinore's 39-27 record. To make the playoffs, the Quakes must win the Second Half South Division title, where they will battle the Tower Buzzers and Inland Empire 66ers (Single-A, Seattle Mariners). Meanwhile, the Stockton Ports (Single-A, Athletics), Fresno Grizzlies (Single-A, Colorado Rockies), and Visalia Rawhide (Single-A, Arizona Diamondbacks) will duke it out for the North's final playoff spot.

THE ORGANIZATIONAL STAPLE: On May 19th, Quakes manager Dave Stapleton won his 500th game in his managerial career. Having managed in the Angels organization since 2014, Stapleton has spent each of the last five seasons in the California League, four of which with the Inland Empire 66ers (2022-2025), guiding them to last year's California League Championship Series. He also possesses extensive experience at the Rookie Level, spending four seasons with the Orem Owlz (2014-2016, 2018) in the then-affiliated Pioneer League before heading to Arizona to lead the AZL Angels (2017, 2019) and ACL Angels (2021).

QUAKES FIELD STAFF

22 Dave Stapleton

Dave Stapleton was named the manager of the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes on January 26, 2026 and will lead the team in their first season back in the Los Angeles Angels organization.

This year marks Stapleton's fifth in the California League, previously managing the Inland Empire 66ers over the last four. Over that span, he led the then-Angels Single-A affiliate to the playoffs three times, including a trip to the California League Championship Series in 2025.

Since beginning his Minor League managerial career in 2014, Stapleton has spent the last 13 years (12 seasons) in the Angels organization. He managed in the Rookie ranks for seven seasons, working for various affiliates including the Orem Owlz (2014-2016, 2018) in the then-affiliated Pioneer League, AZL Angels (2017, 2019), and ACL Angels (2021). During that time, he helped develop future Major Leaguers such as Keynan Middleton, Jo Adell, Brandon Marsh, Taylor Ward, and All-Star Jared Walsh.

Stapleton pitched seven professional seasons, making 10 appearances for the Milwaukee Brewers across two seasons from 1987-1988.
