LAST GAME

For the second-consecutive night, the Baysox broke a 4-4 tie late to capture a win against the Harrisburg Senators. Joey Ortiz continued his strong run for Bowie, going 2-for-5 at the plate with a trio of RBI, including the go-ahead knock in the seventh inning. Carrying their strong run recently, the Bowie bullpen kept Harrisburg from breaking the tie, as Tyler Burch and Shelton Perkins logged scoreless outings, while Conner Loeprich earned his third save of the year with two scoreless innings.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

The second half has not been too kind to Harrisburg, entering this series at just 10-17 in the half, partly due to an ERA 5.35. Bowie and Harrisburg have gone back-and-forth this season, after Bowie had a stretch of five wins in six games against the Senators, including a no-hitter, Harrisburg won the final five games of a seven-game series in June. Harrisburg pitching has held Bowie to just a .211 batting average this season, and sport a 3.42 ERA against the Baysox.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Luis Reyes opened the season with Triple-A Rochester, but struggled to find consistency, only reaching the fifth inning once in four starts, and allowing 21 earned runs in just 13.1 innings. The 27-year-old has been with the Nationals organization for nearly a decade, after signing as an international free agent in August of 2012. Reyes made two starts against Bowie in 2021, and was hammered for 13 runs in 9.1 innings. His luck turned around against the Baysox this June, as he spun six innings of one-hit ball. He's allowed plenty of contact this season, only striking out 55 batters in 62 innings.

SOOTHING RELIEF

Bowie has had their ups and downs with work out of their bullpen, as they sported 4.78 ERA over the first half of the season. For much of the first half, Bowie relievers were among the top-three in the Eastern League for highest ERA. In the second half, however, Bowie relievers are sporting a 2.48 ERA, and have shrunk their overall ERA to 4.12, the fifth-lowest in the league.

HURRY UP HUDSON

Bowie outfielder Hudson Haskin has been a big fan of the early attack. One of the most liable to attack the first pitch, Haskin has put the first pitch of a plate appearance into play 49 time this season, the most by any Baysox player. He's carried a little bit of patience at the plate as well, as he's drawn five walks in his last seven games. Coupled with three triples over his last two games, Haskin has broken through into the top-10 in the Eastern League for OPS.

NORBY NOT WAST TIME

Connor Norby has been the obvious choice to lead off games for Bowie since joining the team ahead of the second half. After singling to open Wednesday's game in Harrisburg, Norby raised his batting average to .357 when he is the first batter of an inning, as well as two home runs when leading off.

STAYING UP LATE

Things have not always gone in Bowie's favor late in game this season, including seven walk-off losses in just the first half of the season. The last week has turned things around for Bowie, however, as they've got a +25 run differential in the seventh, eighth, and ninth innings over their last eight games. Entering this stretch, Bowie had a -23 run differential in that same span of innings over the season.

FIELD GENERALS

Thanks to Cody Roberts and Maverick Handley, Bowie has had the most feared backstops in the league. Bowie's CS% of 38% is the highest mark in the league. Additionally, Bowie has only allowed 50 stolen bases this season, the second-fewest in the minors (Omaha-47).

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

COACHING STAFF

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
