

Access your Red Wings Tickets Online!

Manage your account, e-mail tickets, save time and get better usage of your seats throughout the season!

The Red Wings offer you the ability to manage your account online, access your tickets remotely, and send your seats to a family member, colleague or client! All you need to do is follow these steps:

- 1) Go to www.TicketReturn.com
- 2) If you already set up an account (from previous years), you can use the same username and password and skip the rest of these instructions.
- 3) Click the "Change Password or Email Temp Password" link in the upper left hand corner (below the Customer Login section)
- 4) Enter in the e-mail address associated with your Red Wings account (this is the e-mail that all of our correspondence goes to relating to your season tickets).
- 5) Check your e-mail for a temporary password that was sent to you (the subject line will be "TicketReturn Account Credentials")
- 6) Go back to www.TicketReturn.com and enter in your E-mail address (where it says username) and temporary password.
- 7) Once logged in, be sure to change your password, as the temporary password will expire in 30 minutes.
- 8) Full account management is now just a click away
 - a. E-mail (transfer) your seats to a family member, colleague or client!
 - b. Print Tickets

Feel free to ask your season seat representative for any information on e-mailing your season seats and how to utilize any of the features going forward!
