DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE: After their worst defensive stretch of the season vs. Binghamton (4 games, 4 losses 10 errors, 21 unearned runs), Somerset has showed out defensively over its three-game win streak, committing only one error across three games and none in the last two, highlighted by yesterday's game-saving home run robbery by Brandon Lockridge to end the game. Over this win streak, base stealers are also 0-for-4 vs. the Patriots (Wells 3 CS, Duran 1 CS).

CLUTCHING OUT: The Patriots are currently on a 3-game win streak, where each of their three wins have featured a go-ahead hit in the 7th inning or later (Burt, Lockridge, Rosario).

SILENTY SLUGGING: Elijah Dunham is currently on an 8-game hit streak, his longest of the season to this point. Over this stretch, he is slashing .333/.486/.444 (.930 OPS). In spite of this, Dunham has gone 10 straight games without a home run, tied for his longest stretch of the season.

WAG-COME BACK: Eric Wagaman began this season on the Patriots' roster, but was on the development list for the first three weeks of the season before being transferred to High-A. After earning a promotion from Hudson Valley, in his Double-A debut on Tuesday night, Eric Wagaman hit a home run, his career-high 10th total of the season. In doing so, he also became the 18th Patriot to hit a home run this season.

STOP AND SMELL THE ROSIE: On Tuesday night, Jeisson Rosario provided a solo home run on the first pitch of the seventh inning to give the Patriots the lead in their 3-1 win. It was Rosario's career-high 7th HR, after he had never hit more than 3 in five pro seasons entering this one. Since the start of the second half (and since his last time playing Hartford), Rosario has reached base in 20/24 games played, slashing .341/.467/.541 (1.008 OPS) with 12 RBI, 15 R and a near equal amount of walks (19) to strikeouts (23). Rosario's .467 OBP in the second half ranks 2nd in the Eastern League (Cowser, BOW).

LOCKED IN: Dating back to July 22, Brandon Lockridge has 9 RBI. As part of those 9 RBI, his last five run-scoring plays have given the Patriots a lead. Most recently, Lockridge's three-run homer in the 8th inning on Sunday supplied the Patriots with an 8-6 victory. The homer was Lockridge's team-leading 7th clutch hit of the season (any play in the 7th inning or later that ties or gives Somerset a lead).

PATRIOTS GAME NOTES

TONIGHT'S PATRIOTS STARTER

RHP #18 CLAYTON BEETER

CAREER: (0-9, 4.59 ERA, 104.0 IP, 166 K, 1.38 WHIP)

HT-WT: 6'2" | 220

DOB: 10/9/98 (23)

HOMETOWN: Fort Worth, TX

ACQUIRED: Trade, Dodgers (2022, Joey Gallo)

PITCH SELECTION: Fastball (93-96), Curveball (mid-80s)

- Beeter identifies himself as a power pitcher, who pitches almost exclusively with his fastball and curveball. His fastball sits 93-95 and tops out at 98 with ride through the top of the strike zone, while his curveball is a high-spin, top-to-bottom offering in the mid 80s that drops below the zone to induce most of his swings and misses. Beeter also very rarely utilizes a low-80s changeup with some sink and fade and used to throw a mid-80s slider that he stopped implementing when he was with the Dodgers.

- Beeter was acquired by the Yankees from the Dodgers hours before the 2022 MLB trade deadline on August 2. At the time of the trade, Beeter was ranked the Dodgers' No. 15 prospect per MLB Pipeline and No. 21 by Baseball America, which credited him with having the Best Curveball in the Dodgers MiLB system. Growing up in Fort Worth, TX, Beeter was a Texas Rangers fan, who grew up watching Joey Gallo. Upon being traded to the Yankees, he was ranked MLB Pipeline's No. 10 Yankees prospect and Baseball America's No. 16 Yankees prospect.

- Beeter made his pro debut in 2021 and posted a 3.44 ERA between High-A Great Lakes and Double-A Tulsa, but he mostly worked as an opener throwing no more than 3.1 innings in an outing.

- Initially drafted by the Dodgers in Competitive Balance Round-B of the 2020 MLB Draft (pick 66 overall), Beeter signed for an over-slot amount of $1,196,500. He was drafted out of Texas Tech, where he redshirted his freshman year. In his redshirt freshman as the Red Raiders' closer in 2019, Beeter led Texas Tech to be 2019 College World Series semifinalists behind 21 appearances with an 0-3 record, 3.48 ERA, 8 saves and 40 K compared to 20 BB in 20.2 IP. During the Covid-shortened 2020 season, his redshirt-sophomore year, Beeter became Texas Tech's Friday night starter. In 4 GS, he went 2-1 with a 2.14 ERA and 33 K compared to 4 BB in 21.0 IP, before the season came to an end.

- Attending Birdville High School in Colleyville, Texas, Beeter had Tommy John surgery in high school during December of 2017, as well as a follow-up arthroscopic elbow procedure seven months later. As a senior in high school, he earned first-team All-District honors with an ERA of 0.81 and 106 strikeouts in 55 innings pitched. At the plate, he had a batting average of .417 with two home runs. A two-sport athlete, Beeter also lettered in football three years during high school.

The Patriots and Yard Goats meet each other for the first time since their first half-deciding series from June 19-26. The two teams have split each series they've played this season. Hartford has won the opening game and three of the first four games in both series, while Somerset has won both the Saturday and Sunday games in the two series, ensuring the two splits. Anthony Volpe's two-run walk-off HR in the bottom of the 10th inning on the final day of the first half sent the Patriots to the postseason.

COACHING STAFF

DAN FIORITO

MANAGER

Born and raised in Yonkers, NY, Dan Fiorito enters his sixth season with the Yankees organization and his first as Somerset's manager. Fiorito is also the Yankees' Roving Upper Level IF/OF Instructor. He served as the manager of High-A Hudson Valley in 2021, after making his managerial debut in 2019 with the GCL Yankees East. Fiorito also had been slated to manage the Yankees' former short-season Single-A affiliate, Staten Island in 2020, before the minor league season was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. He served as the defensive coach at the Yankees' former Single-A Charleston affiliate in 2018, after making his professional coaching debut as defensive coach with the Yankees' former Rookie-level Pulaski affiliate in 2017.

His playing career began when he was signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent in 2012. Over four seasons as an infielder in the Yankees system, he batted .240 (264-for-1102) with 107 runs, 52 doubles, six triples, seven home runs and 98 RBI in 322 career minor league games. Fiorito played three years at Manhattanville College (Purchase, NY) and is a 2008 graduate of Fordham Prep (Bronx, NY).

GERARDO CASADIEGO

PITCHING COACH

Gerardo Casadiego will begin his first season in Somerset and 10th in the Yankees organization. He held the same position in Hudson Valley last season, where the Renegades staff ranked second in the High-A East division in strikeouts (1,308, sixth in MiLB) and third in ERA (4.12). The Venezuela native has also previously served as the pitching coach for former Rookie-level Pulaski (2017-2019), DSL Yankees 1 (2014-2015) and DSL Yankees 2 (2016).

JAKE HIRST

HITTING COACH

Jacob Hirst will serve as hitting coach in his first season with Somerset and fourth with the Yankees organization. He was the hitting coach for Hudson Valley in 2021, when the Renegades' batters ranked second among High-A East clubs in triples (33) and OBP (.341), third in doubles (217) and fourth in home runs (156), batting average (.255), slugging percentage (.446) and OPS (.787). The Iowa native served the same role with the GCL Yankees West (2019-2020).

AARON BOSSI

DEFENSIVE COACH

Aaron Bossi begins his first season with Somerset after making his coaching debut in the same role with Hudson Valley in 2021. His prior experience for the organization was assisting rehabbing players at the minor league complex from 2017-2019. The St. Louis, MO native was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Yankees on June 24, 2016 as a catcher/infielder. He played in 22 games for the GCL Yankees East in 2016.

LAST APPEARANCE: Tuesday, Aug. 9 vs. HFD: 1.0 IP, BB, OR, SV (Lockridge robbed Doyle tying 2R-HR on last pitch)

- Coleman began this season in High-A Hudson Valley, having not allowed a run in his first 18 innings of the 2022 season. He posted 0.47 ERA in 19.1 IP with opponents hitting .115 off him before a promotion to Somerset on 5/17/22.
- After being signed as an undrafted free agent in 2020, when the MLB Draft was shortened to five rounds, Coleman spent his pro debut season in 2021 with Single-A Tampa, posting a 6.11 ERA with 49 strikeouts in 35.1 IP.
- Collegiately, Coleman pitched three seasons out of the bullpen at the University of Kentucky, where he posted a 4.19 ERA with 81 strikeouts over 53.2 innings pitched, a strikeout rate of 13.58 per nine innings, which was the highest rate for any UK pitcher with at least 50 innings pitched since 1979. He finished with a 5-5 record and five saves to go along with a .211 opponent batting average, including .172 by left-handed hitters.
- After being drafted in the 33rd round of the 2019 MLB Draft by the Tampa Bay Rays, Coleman opted to return to school for the 2020-shortened college baseball season, when he pitched to a 3.14 ERA over six games and 13 of the 17 outs he recorded were strikeouts.
- During his junior year at Kentucky in 2019, Coleman pitched to a 5.14 ERA over 23 appearances and led the Wildcats with five saves.
- After redshirting his freshman year at Kentucky in 2017, Coleman pitched in 20 games out of the bullpen in 2018, when he went 3-0 with a 3.15 ERA and opponents hit a team-low .183 against him. In between his sophomore and junior seasons in 2018, Coleman pitched for the Brewster Whitecaps of the Cape Cod League, appearing in nine games with one save and leading the Cape with a 0.90 ERA in 10 innings of work.
- Coleman was a middle infielder throughout his youth until he decided to try pitching as a senior at Lexington Catholic High School, when he went 4-1 with a 0.95 ERA in 45 innings. Prefers to wear #34 for David Ortiz, models his game off of Jose Fernandez.

DOB: 6/2/92 (30) HOMETOWN: Adel, GA ACQ: MiLB Free Agent (2022)

PITCH SELECTION: Fastball (92-94), Slider (82-84), Curveball (80-82)

LAST APPEARANCE: Sunday, Aug. 7: 1.0 perfect IP, W (first win since 2019, 2nd career win, first with NYY org.)

- Upon re-signing with the Yankees in 2022, Cowart was initially assigned to Single-A Tampa and officially began his season on a rehab assignment with the GCL Yankees. On 7/15/22, Cowart threw 18 pitches to record four outs on all four batters he faced with three strikeouts in his Yankees organizational debut, which came 938 days after he initially signed with the Yankees in December of 2019.
- After electing free agency from the Angels in October of 2019 after 10 seasons with the organization, Cowart signed with the Yankees on 12/20/19. Missing the majority of the 2021 season with an injury that landed him on the 60-day IL, Cowart did not appear in a game with the Yankees before his contract expired. The Yankees re-signed him this season on 4/19/22.
- Cowart made his Major League debut with the Angels on August 18, 2015 and played on and off in the Major Leagues every year from 2015-2019. All 171 games of his big league service time have come at the plate, primarily as an infielder. In his Major League career, Cowart is batting .176 with six career HR, 34 RBI and 42 R.
- During his final year in the Angels organization (2019), Cowart pitched in 17 games between Double-A Mobile and Triple-A Salt Lake, combining to go 1-1 with a 10.19 ERA in 17.2 IP.
- His MLB Pipeline Angels top prospect ranking by year in order from 2011-16: 2-5-1-1-16-5.
- His Baseball America Angels top prospect ranking by year in order from 2011-16: 6-6-1-3-24-8.
- Entering the 2012 season, most major outlets had Cowart ranked as the Angels' No. 2 prospect, behind only Mike Trout. Once Trout graduated, Cowart became the Angels' consensus No. 1 prospect entering the 2013 season and was ranked in MLB Pipeline's Top 100. Cowart remained a member of the Angels' top 30 prospects per both MLB Pipeline and Baseball America every year from 2011-16.
- Cowart was originally selected 18th overall (first round) by the Los Angeles Angels in the 2010 MLB Draft, as an infielder. Cowart spent the first nine full-time seasons of his career (2010-18) as a hitter, before transitioning to a two-way player during 2019.

LAST APPEARANCE: Sunday, Aug. 7: 1.1 perfect IP, K

- During the first half of this season, through the end of June, Loseke went 6-0 with a 1.65 ERA over his first 20 appearances. He earned the win in Somerset's first half clinching victory vs. Hartford on June 26, recording the final two outs in the 10th inning.

- Entering this season, Loseke altered his pitching arsenal: eliminating his curveball for a cutter and his splitter for a changeup, to go with his fastball and slider.

- Loseke's third pro season in 2021 was his first full season. After beginning with High-A Hudson Valley and going 3-1 with a 3.03 ERA over 15 appearances, Loseke earned his first mid-season promotion to Somerset. He appeared in 14 games as a Patriot, posting a 4.33 ERA with 33 K and 13 BB in 27.0 IP.

- Began his professional career with back-to-back short seasons in 2018 and 2019, pitching for the GCL Yankees East and Staten Island Yankees, respectively, combining to go 5-2 with a 3.13 ERA and 42 K compared to 11 BB over 37.1 IP.

- Loseke pitched three seasons (2016-18) at the University of Arkansas, beginning as a walk-on in 2016 after emailing the school for an opportunity. During his collegiate career, Loseke went 8-5 with a 3.13 ERA and 1.32 WHIP over 59 games (10 starts).

- Attended Jenks High School in Oklahoma. As a senior in 2015, he pitched to a 1.49 ERA with 85 K, 31 H and 25 BB over 56.1 IP. At the plate, he also batted .388 with a .520 OBP as a senior. As a junior, he led Jenks to the state semifinals and a No. 4 national ranking. He struck out 49 batters over 32.2 innings with a 1.93 ERA as a junior. Barrett also played basketball as a freshman. Barrett's second-cousin is former Royals World Series Champion and 8-time Gold Glove Alex Gordon.

- This season, McGarity is pitching in his first game action since the 2019 Arizona Fall League, after an injury kept him out for all of 2021. McGarity began this season with three rehab appearances in the FCL, combining to go 3.1 IP, 0 R, H, 4 K.

- Following the 2019 MiLB season, McGarity pitched in the Arizona Fall League, appearing in 10 games out of the bullpen for the Surprise Saguaros, which tied for the most appearances of any AFL pitcher that season, going 1-0 with a 0.79 ERA and 0.62 WHIP with 15 K compared to one BB in 11.1 IP.

- In his first full-season during 2019, McGarity rose from Short-Season Class-A Staten Island (12g, 4-0, 0.83 ERA, 27 K, 1 BB, 21.2 IP, 0.51 WHIP), to Low-A Charleston (19g, 2-5, 3.19 ERA 34 K, 9 BB, 31.0 IP), before ending the year in High-A Tampa (4g, 0-1, 5.40 ERA, 8 K, 2 BB, 5.0 IP).

- McGarity spent all of the 2018 season with the Staten Island Yankees, going 2-0 in 13 appearances out of the bullpen with a 0.35 ERA. He allowed only one earned run in 25.2 IP with 32 K compared to only 3 BB.

- After being selected by the Yankees in the 15th round of the 2017 MLB Draft, McGarity spent his pro debut season in the GCL, going 2-2 with a 2.18 ERA over seven appearances with 27 K and 2 BB. His 2017 season was cut short early with an injury that landed him on the 7-day injured list.

- McGarity played four seasons at Virginia Tech, appearing in 69 games (16 starts) and going 9-15 with a 4.37 career ERA and 1.45 WHIP. After starting 15/36 games as an underclassman, McGarity converted to exclusively a reliever beginning his junior year.

- Growing up in Richmond, VA, McGarity went to Mills Godwin High School, 10 miles away from where the Eastern League's Richmond Flying Squirrels play.

- This year, Bastidas' 6th professional season, is his first year serving as a full-time starter for a full-season affiliate. As a result, by the All-Star break, he set career highs in games played, home runs, hits, RBI, doubles and walks. In the middle of Somerset's first two-week road trip this season from 5/28-6/3, Bastidas hit four homers over a five-game span, including three straight games with a home run.
- Bastidas began his career with three straight short seasons (2016-18) and an injury-plagued 2019 limited him to 10 games. After the Covid-cancelled 2020 season, 2021 was his first official full season, but he was not a full-time starter.
- Splitting 2021 between Single-A Tampa and Double-A Somerset, posting his previous career-best marks in AVG (.249), RBI (34) and HR (9).
- After hitting two home runs in his first 238 career games (4+ seasons), he hit nine in his last 35 games during 2021. Across 29 games with Somerset, he hit .278 with five home runs: the two best marks he's put up for any team that he's played for professionally entering this season. In his first 201 career games prior to becoming a Somerset Patriot, Bastidas had just six career home runs.

- This season, Dunham dominated during the Patriots' first half clinching series vs. Hartford from 6/21-26. In the six games, he went 11-for-22, slashing .500/.560/.727 (1.287 OPS) with a HR, 5 RBI, 5 R and 4 SB, in addition to three, late-inning, game-changing, diving catches over the final two games. On his 24th birthday, 5/29 in Portland, he went 4-for-4 with a HR, 3 RBI and 2 R. On 6/14 in New Hampshire, Dunham collected 3 RBI and 3 SB vs. the Fisher Cats, making him at the time one of only two players in all of MiLB to have done so during this season.

- During the 2021 offseason, Dunham played for the Surprise Saguaros in the Arizona Fall League, alongside Somerset teammates Andres Chaparro, Austin Wells and Tanner Myatt. He was named an AFL Rising Star, after hitting .357 (ranked 6th in AFL) with a .465 OBP (5th), 2 HR, 14 RBI, 11 SB (1st), 6 2B and 30 H (3rd) in 23 games. Dunham was also voted the Arizona Fall League Breakout Player of the Year.

- Dunham began his pro debut season (2021) with Single-A Tampa (29 games), before earning a promotion to High-A Hudson Valley (64 games). Across both levels, he slashed .263/.362/.463 with 13 HR, 72 R, 57 RBI and 28 SB. Having spent most of his season in Hudson Valley, he led the Renegades in stolen bases (17) and ranked third in runs (40) and fourth in hits (62). Dunham was named a 2021 MiLB.com Yankees Organizational All-Star, when he was one of seven minor leaguers with 13+ home runs, 28+ stolen bases and fewer than 100 strikeouts.

- Dunham went undrafted in 2020, when the MLB Draft was shortened to five rounds, despite being Baseball America's No. 186 Draft Prospect. One week later, he signed with the Yankees. With a significant amount of interest from nearly every big league team, Dunham chose to sign with the Yankees due to the influence of current Yankees Assistant Hitting Coach, Casey Dykes, who was Dunham's hitting coach for one year (2019) at Indiana University, and he calls his favorite coach of all time. Dunham was originally drafted in the 40th round of the 2019 MLB Draft by the Pirates and he elected to go back to school at Indiana.

- Collegiately, played two full seasons at Indiana, plus 2020. In his last full season as a sophomore in 2019, he led the team in batting (.310) and OBP (.434) en route to being named Third-Team All-Big Ten after 43 games. He began his junior season in 2020 hitting .390/.493/.559 in 15 games with 11 walks. His seven doubles and .493 OBP led the Hoosiers. He earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors for the week of 2/24/20, before the remainder of the season was cancelled.

- Attended Reitz High School in Evansville, where he hit .386 his senior year with a .541 OBP and 26 stolen bases. Three-sport athlete lettered in baseball, basketball and football. Grew up a Cardinals fan, with Albert Pujols his favorite player. Dunham's family owns a donut shop in Fort Worth, Texas, called "Parlor Donuts."

His brother, Isaiah, who is a graduate of Yale, runs the business.

- This season, Gasper posted his first career two-home run game on 6/9 vs. Akron. On 4/26 vs. Portland, he hit a walkoff single to supply the Patriots with their second walkoff hit and first extra innings win of the season. While primarily a catcher, Gasper has found most of his time this season at first base. In Gasper's first 15 games played this season, the Patriots were 15-0 with him in the starting lineup.

- Began 2021 with Hudson Valley, when he sustained an injury that landed him on the 60-day injured list. Spent a four-game rehab assignment with the FCL Yankees, before returning to Hudson Valley for two games. He was then promoted to Double-A Somerset, where he finished his brief season with 10 games. In total, he hit .318 with two home runs across 21 games.

- In his only full season (2019), Gasper spent with 84 games in Low-A Charleston, where he hit .233 with eight home runs and was named a South Atlantic League Midseason All-Star. Upon earning a promotion to High-A Tampa, he hit .321 with 11 RBI and 10 runs scored for the Tarpons.

- In 2018, Gasper made his pro debut with Short-season Pulaski, where he hit .257 in 42 games with nine home runs.

- Collegiately, Gasper attended Bryant University in Rhode Island, where he played four seasons. As a senior in 2018, he hit .340 and led the team in HR (8), R (59), OBP (.468) and BB (42). He became the first player in DI program history to post back-to-back seasons with 40 walks and the first catcher in program history to score 50+ runs in a season. The Yankees selected him in the 27th round of 2018 Draft, after also using their first two draft picks on catchers (Siegler, Breaux).

- Born and raised in Merrimack, New Hampshire, Gasper was a three-year varsity letterwinner at Merrimack High School in his hometown. He was named the Hitter of the Year in the Granite State Baseball Fall Showcase league in 2012, after hitting .462 with a 1.314 OPS. Dual-sport athlete was also a two-year member of the varsity basketball team. Later in his life, Gasper's family relocated to Freehold, New Jersey, where he currently resides during the season. This season, Gasper was featured on the YES Network's "Homegrown" series, along with his parents, who attend a majority of the Patriots' home games at TD Bank Ballpark.

- Pereira began the 2022 season in High-A Hudson Valley, playing a career-high 73 games and slashing .274/.354/.455 with 9 HR, 43 RBI and 55 R, which led the Renegades. He earned a promotion to Double-A Somerset on 7/13. At the time of his promotion, Pereira was on a seven-game hitting streak from 7/4-12, when he hit .355 with 2 HR and 11 RBI. In Baseball America's Top 30 Yankees Prospect rankings, Pereira moved up from No. 11 pre-season to No. 3 mid-season.

- Entering 2021, Pereira bulked up to over 200 pounds and put together a breakout season that began with 19 games in Single-A Tampa. After totaling 10 HR in his first 81 career games, Pereira earned a promotion to High-A Hudson Valley, where he ended his 2021 season by clubbing 14 HR in his final 27 games for the Renegades. He was added to Yankees 40-man roster in November of 2021.

- After being limited to only 18 games in 2019 with a severely sprained ankle, Pereira worked remotely for all of 2020, before instructional league convened in the Dominican Republic.

- Began his career with two short seasons in Pulaski (2018) and Staten Island (2019), combining to play 59 games over the two years and hitting .236 with 4 HR, 28 RBI, 30 R and 6 SB.

- Initially signed by the Yankees as an international free agent out of Venezuela on July 2, 2017 for $1.5 million.

- This season, Perkins was named Eastern League Player of the Week for his efforts 4/19-4/24, becoming the first Patriot this season to be given the honors. During the Patriots' first six-game road trip of the season in Hartford, he homered in three straight games (4/22-24), including his 2nd career multi-HR game (4/23 @HFD) when he collected a career-high 9 TB. In 7 games over 4/16-24, he went 13-for-27 with 35 TB, 11 XBH, 5 HR, 10 RBI and 10 R, slashing .481/.517/1.296/1.813, scoring runs in all 7 games. In Perkins' 61st game this season on 7/14 @PQR, he snapped a 49-game homerless drought with two homers in a game for the second time this season, and in doing so tied his career high of 8 HR for the third time in his career, reaching the mark 59 games quicker than he last did in 2019, when it took him 120 games.

- Perkins signed with the Yankees as a minor league free agent on 12/15/21 after splitting the first five years of his career with the Nationals (2016-18) and Royals (2018-21). He was traded to Kansas City from Washington in a package for RHP Kelvin Herrera on 6/18/18. Perkins was originally the No. 69 overall pick (second round) of the Nationals in the 2015 MLB Draft. He didn't become a full-time switch-hitter until he was drafted by Washington and he made the change during instructional league in 2016.

- Spent all of 2021 with Double-A Northwest Arkansas (KC), hitting .202 with 33 runs, 30 RBI and seven home runs. Of his seven home runs two were grand slams, four days apart (7/29/21 and 8/1/21), an inside-the-park home run and a leadoff home run.

- With the Nationals organization in 2017, he played a career-high 129 games for Low-A Hagerstown, when he was named a mid-season All-Star, setting career highs in AVG (.255), H (123), R (105), RBI (48), SB (31) and HR (8). His 105 R were 25 more than the any player other player.

- Born in Litchfield Park, AZ, Perkins attended Verrado High School in Buckeye and claims Long Beach, CA as his hometown. Grew up a Yankees and Angels fan, favorite baseball player was Derek Jeter. His great uncle, Luther Hayes, played for the San Diego Chargers in 1961. This season, Perkins is living at the Volpe household, along with teammates Austin Wells and Max Burt. Perkins and Burt began the Patriots' 2022 post-home run tradition, where they take photos with a polaroid camera, while wearing "Joey B" glasses and other flashy gear in the dugout after every home run.

He homered in back-to-back games for the RailRiders on 4/20-21, including on his 25th birthday. Pita was placed on the Injured List on 5/13, when he led the team in home runs. Upon being activated on 6/21, Pita played in two more games, then was transferred to Somerset on 7/1.

- Began the 2021 season with Double-A Somerset, playing in 33 total games for the Patriots and slashing .225/.298/.363/.661 with one HR, 12 RBI and 18 R. He was called up to Triple-A SWB on 7/16/21, before briefly retraining to Somerset for two games 8/21-22. In total with the RailRiders, Pita played in 27 games to end the season, slashing .228/.307/.519/.826 with 7 HR, 15 RBI and 12 R.

- Split the 2019 season fairly evenly between three levels of the minors: Short-Season Class-A Staten Island (35 games), Low-A Charleston (26 games) and High-A Tampa (25 games). Between all three levels, Pita slashed .203/.280/.305/.585 with 3 HR, 28 RBI and 30 R.

- Spent his professional debut season in 2018 with the GCL Yankees (27 games), in addition to a brief stint (3 games) with High-A Tampa. In his first pro season, Pita slashed .196/.275/.272/.547 with no home runs, 5 RBI and 9 R.

- Drafted out of Virginia Military Institute in the 12th round of the 2018 MLB Draft. In three college seasons from 2015-18, Pita played in 150 games and slashed .359/.428/.639/1.067 with 32 HR, 116 RBI and 146 R. During his junior season in 2018, Pita posted a 22-game hit streak and set a school record with six stolen bases on 4/3 vs. Longwood.

- Prior to college, Pita was a three-year letterwinner at Cosby High School in Chesterfield County, Virginia, where he holds the school's single season home run record. Pita also played football in high school.

- While with VMI and Cosby, Pita played games at the Richmond Flying Squirrels' home ballpark, The Diamond. Pita grew up a Yankees fan due to his affinity for Derek Jeter. Pita's college teammate at VMI, RHP Josh Winder made his MLB debut with the Twins in April of 2022, after he was drafted in the 7th round in 2018.

- Spending all of his third pro season to this point with the Somerset Patriots in his home county, Volpe hit his first Double-A home run on Easter Sunday (4/17 vs. ERI), which was a grand slam. On Volpe's 21st birthday this season (4/28 vs. POR), he collected 4 RBI including a bases loaded triple. He also hit a home run on Mother's Day (5/8 vs. NH), in front of his mom, Isabelle. Most notably, Volpe hit his 10th homer of the season on the final day of the first half. In a situation where the winner of the game would win the first half of the season and punch its ticket to the playoffs, Volpe drew a bases loaded HBP to give the Patriots their first lead of the game (1-0 in the 7th inning). After the game went to extras tied at 4-4, Volpe led off the 10th inning with a walkoff two-run home run to give Somerset a 6-5 victory vs. Hartford to clinch the Somerset Patriots' first playoff berth since becoming the Yankees' Double-A affiliate. On 7/16, Volpe represented both the Yankees and Patriots at Dodger Stadium as one of the Yankees' three representatives at the MLB All-Star Futures Game (he went 0-for-2). Volpe was joined on the American League team by former high school teammate, RHP Jack Leiter and 2022 Patriots teammate, LHP Ken Waldichuk.
- The 2021 season was Volpe's second professional season and his first at the full-season level. He worked his way up from Single-A Tampa (54 games) to High-A Hudson Valley (55 games), totaling 109 games and combining to slash .294/.423/.604 with 113 R, 86 RBI, 33 SB and 27 HR. He led all minor leaguers in runs (113), ranked second in OPS (1.027) and third in extra-base hits (68). Volpe led all Yankees minor leaguers in 2021 in OPS (1.027), OBP (.423), SLG (.604), R (113), BB (78), XBH (68) and 2B (35). Ranked second in RBI (86) and third in HR (27) and H (121).
- In his pro debut season (2019), mononucleosis limited him to 34 games, hitting .215 for Rookie-level Pulaski.
- Volpe was drafted by the Yankees with the 30th overall pick (first round) of the 2019 MLB Draft out of high school, when he signed for $2,740,000 after attending the Delbarton School in Morristown, NJ (16 miles from TD Bank Ballpark). Prior to being drafted, Volpe had committed to play college baseball at Vanderbilt with his former Delbarton School teammate, Jack Leiter, who went on to be the 2021 No. 2 overall pick in the draft by the Texas Rangers.
- One of Anthony's long-time baseball mentors is Somerset Patriots legend Travis Anderson (from the Atlantic League era), who hit a Championship Series-clinching walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning of a tie game to win the 2008 APBL Championship Series. Travis was Volpe's coach when he was 12-years-old, playing for the Diamond Jacks Super 12U team.
- Born and raised in Watchung, NJ, which is the eastern-most point of Somerset county, Volpe grew up a Yankees fan, Derek Jeter was his favorite player growing up and his favorite memory growing up was watching the 2009 Yankees World Series team, when he was eight-years-old. He chooses to wear #7 because his grandfather's (also named Anthony Volpe) favorite player is Mickey Mantle. Anthony's family, including parents Michael and Isabelle, are in attendance for every home game at TD Bank Ballpark. Volpe has lived at home with his family for the duration of this season and is hosting fellow teammates Austin Wells, Blake Perkins and Max Burt.

- Began the 2022 season by playing 28 games for High-A Hudson Valley, where he slashed .323/.429/.576/1.005 with 6 HR, 16 RBI and 21 R. After an injury that landed him on the IL in May, Wells returned to playing with Single-A Tampa from 6/25-7/4, spending eight games with the Tarpons and hitting .231 with a .950 OPS and two home runs. In total, prior to joining the Patriots on 7/6, Wells had played in 37 games, hitting .304/.425/.568/.993 with 8 HR, 22 RBI and 26 R. Defensively, Wells caught 17/49 attempted base stealers (34.7%) to begin this year, committing no errors in 283 total chances.

- Following the 2021 MiLB season, Wells played for the Surprise Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League alongside fellow Patriots, Elijah Dunham, Andres Chaparro and Tanner Myatt. Playing in 18 games during the fall, Wells ranked 6th in the AFL with a 1.034 OPS, adding 2 HR and 14 R. His 18 RBI were tied for the most of any catcher in the AFL. For his efforts, he was named an AFL Rising Star.

- In Wells' pro debut season during 2021, he combined to hit .264/.390/.476 in 103 games with OPS of .886, 16 HR, 76 RBI and 82 R between Single-A Tampa (65 games) and High-A Hudson Valley (38 games), where he was promoted to on 8/3.

- Collegiately, Wells spent two seasons with the University of Arizona Wildcats, playing in 71 games and hitting .357 with a 1.036 OPS with 7 HR, 74 RBI and 85 R. Among his honors while at Arizona, Wells was first named Pac-12 Freshman of the Year in 2019, when he was also a Freshman All-American honoree per Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America, NCBWA and Rawlings. In 2020, Wells was a Collegiate Baseball Second-team All-American and was named to the Buster Posey National Collegiate Catcher of the Year Award watch list (top NCAA catcher). Both of Wells' parents, Greg and Michelle, were graduates and former athletes at the University of Arizona as well.

- During the summer of 2019, Wells played in the Cape Cod League (collegiate summer ball) with the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox, logging time in 42 regular season games, where he was named a Cap Cod League All-Star starter, after hitting .308 with 7 HR, 26 RBI and 23 R. Wells was named a 2019 Cape Cod League Outstanding Pro Prospect.

- Wells spent his preps career at powerhouse Bishop Gorman High School in his hometown of Las Vegas, combining to hit .428 with 87 RBI and 85 during his preps career. He was named team captain and Most Valuable Player as a junior and senior. As a junior, Wells was the 2017 Nevada Gatorade Player of the Year. Upon graduating high school, Wells was originally selected by the Yankees in the 35th round of the 2018 MLB Draft. After electing to play college ball at Arizona, the Yankees selected him again in the first round of the draft two years later, 28th overall. Wells is currently living at the Volpe household, alongside teammates Max Burt and Blake Perkins.
