

Ticketing, Groups, & Merchandising Internship

- Maintain and organize ticket office and souvenir store
- Set up and facilitate all group outings and birthday parties while providing first-class customer service
- Oversee Community Weekend ticket sales drive: sell reduced-cost tickets to area businesses.
- Help with the ticket package and group outing sales drive
- Help in the set-up and organization for special events.
- Help in the office and around the ballpark as needed
- Help with public relations events, including player and mascot appearances.
- Work the ticket office or merchandise shop during games
- Any other task assigned by the Front Office Staff
- Cleaning Crew

JOB DESCRIPTION

As an intern with the Burlington Bees, you will be an active part of the many facets of running a summer collegiate baseball organization. Primary responsibilities include coordinating promotions, providing first-rate customer service, maintaining a clean facility that is fan-friendly, marketing the team around town and in surrounding communities, and looking for ways to improve our operations.

START DATE

Start in mid-May and conclude on August 5 (start and finish dates are flexible).

HOURS

Full-time. Non-game day during season 9-5, game days 9am through end of game. Expect to work weekends and special events.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Your housing, cable television, and all utilities are paid for. The team provides a free meal each home game. $125 per month stipend. Membership to the local YMCA .

QUALIFICATIONS

Do you have what it takes to be a Burlington Bees intern?

We're looking for talented, self-motivated individuals who want to learn what goes on behind the scenes of high-level collegiate summer baseball. We value open-minded, conscientious team players possessing a positive attitude and a willingness to do what it takes to get the job done. Must have excellent writing, computer skills and a willingness to work long hours and weekends. If you feel you belong in this category, we look forward to talking with you. Anyone interested should send their resume to Nick Carey at nick@gobees.com, no phone calls please.

