

DASH

Ways to use your Personal Season Tickets

1. Provide memories that will last a lifetime by taking your kids out on a regular basis.
2. Keep your teenager out of trouble by sending them to Dash games.
3. You can "will" your seats to your children and/or grandchildren.
4. Give tickets to your babysitter.
5. Give tickets to your tax preparer or accountant after April 14th.
6. Donate your tickets to a charity auction that you support.
7. Give some tickets to your child's teacher, principal, or coach.
8. Thank your neighbor who waters your lawn and gets your mail when you are on vacation.
9. Give tickets to neighbors that you haven't met yet.
10. Make new friends by visiting with the other season ticket holders in your section.
11. Give tickets to your reverend, pastor, priest, rabbi etc. at your local church or temple.
12. Have your child bring out his best friend to a game.
13. Get to know your daughter's boyfriend by bringing him to a game.
14. Give tickets to your auto mechanic. Maybe he'll give you a fair deal for life.
15. Give to your favorite lunchtime waitress. Slip the tickets into her tip.
16. Give tickets to your mother-in-law.
17. Give tickets to anyone you know going through a mid-life crisis.
18. Give to members of the Rotary, Optimist, Lions, Kiwanis (or other such club) that you are in.
19. Have a friendly contest with your closest friends and see who can eat the most ballpark food in one night.
20. Invite your new neighbor out. It's the American thing to do.
21. Reward yourself for doing a great job on your exercise program.
22. Take your child out to the game before he/she leaves for the first year of college.
23. Send your wife and her best friends to the game for a night with the girls.
24. Baseball games are great places for a first date.
25. Give to friends for a blind date.
26. Use them to reward yourself or some one else for quitting smoking.
27. Bring your parents to the game.
28. Donate to a big-brother/big sisters organization.
29. Use them as a birthday, anniversary, Christmas, or get-well present.
30. Where else can you go and have a beer, hot-dog, peanuts and sit out doors and watch a professional sporting event?
31. Guys night out.
32. Girls night out.
33. Give tickets to your barber or beautician.
34. Coordinate with your child's school to reward top students with tickets to games weekly or monthly.
35. Give them to you dry cleaner.
36. Give them to your doctor ... he/she takes care of you, you better take care of him/her.
37. Give them to your dentist (same reason as before).
38. Give them to the salesperson, of whom you purchased/leased your car from.
39. Give them to the service dept. where you take your car in.
40. Give them to any/all of your insurance agents.
41. Give them to any tenants you may have (apartment, office building, medical center).
42. Give them to your office repair people (phone, furniture, copiers).
43. Donate to child's after-prom raffle.
44. Use as a gift to you travel agent.
45. Give them to your pet's veterinarian.
46. Give them to your lawn care service and workers.
47. Give them to your financial consultant ... when their showing you a return on your investment!
48. Give them to your school's PTA for good work.
49. Invite your pastor of your church to a game (not on Sunday's).
50. Invite any youth minister that works with your children as a thank you.
51. Use as an appreciation to your personal trainer.
52. Give as a thank you to a car wash service.
53. Give to someone who carries out your groceries to your car.
54. Give them to a local police officer for continued support by patrolling your neighborhood to keep it safe.
55. Give them to your old college buddies who you see during the summer for a reunion.

56. Give them to the friend who helped you when you were in a bind.
57. Give them to the person who picked up your kids from practice on last second notice.
58. Give them to the person who got you those great seats for the big game you wanted to go to.
59. Give them to someone who may shovel the snow in your driveway.
60. Give them to your mailman for doing a good job.
61. Give them to the waste management folks who take the trash from your driveway or curb.
62. Give them to the movers who helped you move into your new home.
63. Give them to employees that work in the restaurant/food court in your office building that you always get lunch/snacks from.
64. Give them to someone who shines your shoes as a thank you.
65. Give them to your tailor.
66. Give them to your kids and let him take his neighborhood friends (he will be big man on the block for a day).
67. Give to someone that you owe a favor.
68. Give to members of a club you might join or be in.
69. Offer tickets for on-time delivery.
70. Offer your tickets to your lawyer who has done a great job.
71. Offer your tickets to the service person from your company who has "taken care of you".
72. Offer your tickets to someone who always gives you great service.
73. Give them to an outside training service.
74. Reward a child for a great report card.
75. Give to a Good Samaritan.
76. Give as an engagement or wedding gift.
77. Invite an old friend to reconnect.
78. Give tickets as a graduation present.
79. Boost your own career potential by networking (it's not what you know, it's who you know).
80. Take someone you mentor out to a Dash Game.
81. Use them yourself!