THE SURGE — The Wind Surge continue a 12-game road-trip today in Springdale, Arkansas. The Wind Surge split the six game trip in the Alamo City and have split their last two series. Wichita dropped the series opener last night and have now dropped the series opener in all of the five series this season.

ON THE ROAD- The Wichita Wind Surge will play the next five on the road, and are 3-10 away from The ICT. Wichita is playing 18 of 24 games on the road, including this six game set in Arkansas. The Surge batting .224 on the road and have a 5.35 ERA and in home games are batting .243 with a 4.82 ERA. The team averages nearly five runs per game at home and just four runs in road games.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT- The Wind Surge allowed four first inning runs, the team fought back with a three run home run from Andrew Cossetti to make it a one run game. The Naturals added a run in the sixth and three more in the seventh innings to pull away in a 8-4 win. Travis Adams took the loss, allowing five runs in five and a third innings.

ON THE HILL- The Surge will turn to Pierson Ohl tonight for his fourth start and fifth game of the season. He has pitched five innings in all four of his appearances and is 1-2 with a 5.40 ERA, he has walked four in 20 innings. Ohl had won six starts in a row and had three quality starts from July 28-August 26th last season. The 24-year-old Ohl opened the 2023 season with Cedar Rapids and was 2-4, 4.69 ERA in eight games, seven starts and in 40 innings has 41 strikeouts. He was the Texas League Postseason All-Star last season. Ohl was drafted in 2021 from Grand Canyon University and is in his third season of professional baseball.

APRIL SHOWERS — The Wind Surge finished the month of April with a record of 7-15, fewest wins in Texas League. The Wind Surge were 9-12 in April last season, and 12-8 in 2022. The seven wins in a month are the fewest in a full month in club history. The team went 8-16 in July, 2023. The team was 12-13 last May, 14-10 in 2022 and 24-10 in 2021,

THE SERIES — The Wind Surge and Naturals met 24 times last season with the Wind Surge and Naturals each winning 12 games. The two teams met for the AA Central League Title in 2021 with the Naturals winning the title and the season series. The Wind Surge lead the all-time series: 35-31 and Naturals lead the 2024 season series 1-0.

COSSETTI'S READY- Andrew Cossetti hammered his third home run of the season last night, it was his second three run homer of the season and his team leading third three-RBI game of the season. Cossetti has had a hit in eight of his last night games, he has scored a run in four of his last six. His 18 RBI is tied for second most in the Texas League, one behind the league leader.

LEADER BOARD RODRIGUEZ - Emmanuel Rodriguez has reached base in all 16 games he has played in, he has missed the last two games due to injury, (day to day). He leads the league in walks, runs, OBP, OPS and extra base hits and is amongst the league leaders in home runs, Slugging, average, doubles and walks. Emma is the Minnesota Twins #3 prospect according to MLB.com, he was named Texas League Hitter of the Week on April 15th and Twins Hitter of the Week.

RISPY BUSINESS - The Surge were 2x9 with runners in scoring position last night and for the season are batting .263 (60x220).

STRIKE EM OUT! -Wichita pitchers dealt eight strikeouts last night. The team had dealt 85 strikeouts spanning the previous nine games, the Surge are last in the league with 152 strikeouts for the season. The team has issued the third most walks for the season, 103.

SURGE NOTES- The Wind Surge snapped a string of six consecutive games without a home run with the three run home run from Cossetti. Noah Cardenas 9 game hit streak ended, batted (10x32), the longest hit streak of the season by a Surge hitter. Tanner Schobel is in the league leaders with walks (6th), he had his first multi double game last night. Pierson Ohl is in the league leaders with 20 innings pitched. The Surge lead the Texas League drawing 112 walks this season. Wichita has made 21 errors, second most in the league.
