FROM THE CROWS NEST

One to Forget.... On Wednesday, the Marauders allowed a season-high 16 runs, including nine runs in the ninth inning. All nine runs for the Blue Jays occurred with two outs in the inning. Bradenton dropped their fifth straight game and has allowed at least six runs in each performance. They have been outscored 47-22 during this stretch. The last time the Marauders allowed let up at least 16 runs in a game was April 10, 2025 against the Palm Beach Cardinals.

Starring Spencer.... Spencer Horwitz began a major league rehab assignment with Bradenton. The 28-year-old first baseman made his first appearance on Tuesday, going 1-for-1 with a single and two walks. Horwitz was placed on the injured list on June 25 with a left hamstring strain. Before the injury, Horwitz was having a career year, slashing .280/.386/.455 with 10 homers and 11 doubles through his first 74 games. He also is competing against his former organization, the Toronto Blue Jays. Despite being drafted by Toronto, he has never played in a Dunedin Blue Jays uniform.

Reedlentless.... Former Oregon State Beavers outfielder Canon Reeder is currently going through his best offensive stretch of his professional career. Reeder enters Friday with a 15-game on-base streak, which is the longest such streak currently on the Marauders active roster. Over this span, Reeder is slashing .282/.491/.308 with 13 walks, 10 runs, and four steals. During the month of July, the former 18th round pick has an on-base percentage of .440.

Who's on the Bump?.... Levi Sterling is back on the mound for the Marauders tonight. Sterling has tied his career-high with nine strikeouts in each of his last two starts. The right-hander is currently the Pirates No. 16 prospect on MLB.com.
