READING

DIRECTIONS: Happy Thursday! It's also World Book Day, which reminded me we haven't done any reading assignments yet. So, today's assignment is easy. Just read. It can be a magazine article, a short story, a chapter of a book, an online article, anything. All you have to do is tell me what you read? Why you chose to read that? And what your favorite part about the book/chapter/article was. Happy reading!!!
