Big Bad Brad: ValleyCats first baseman Brad Zunica made his return from a stint on the inactive list Wednesday in the double header against Trois-Rivieres. The left handed hitting first baseman recorded four hits between the two games, including a solo home run in the sixth inning of the night cap. He would eventually walk it off for the 'Cats on a single in the seventh.

Rocker Rocks: Kumar Rocker was back on the mound for his fourth professional start of his career. After working out of a bit of trouble in the third inning, the former Vanderbilt Commodore looked great. Striking out seven over just four innings of work. The right hander now has 25 strikeouts over just fifteen professional innings, all of them occurring at Joseph L. Bruno Stadium.

Hot Hand: ValleyCats shortstop Pavin Parks has been one of the hottest hitters in the Frontier League recently. Over the last week, the former Detroit Tiger recorded a .450 batting average, three multi-hit games, and two multi-RBI games. He has also flashed the leather at shortstop, making multiple diving plays.

Top Ten Talent: ValleyCats utility man Brantley Bell has become the catalyst at the top of the lineup for the 'Cats during the early stages of the season. The former Cincinnati Reds farmhand currently sits eighth in the Frontier League in batting average, earning a .354 mark thus far. He leads all ValleyCats in batting average, and is the only player on the roster that has reached double digits in doubles.

Budding With Budner: New pitching coach Scott Budner joins the 'Cats in his latest adventure in pro baseball. The former Oakland A's draft pick has traveled the world coaching up pitching staffs throughout the ranks of professional baseball. The southpaw pitched at Eastern Connecticut State University, where he was inducted into the institution's Hall of Fame in 2008. During his Junior year with the Warriors, the East Lyme, Connecticut native pitched to a perfect 9-0 record and a stellar 1.86 ERA. As a coach, he spent the bulk of his time with the A's and Miami Marlins organizations.

Double Digit Speed: The ValleyCats have showcased their speed on the basepaths as the season has progressed. Infielder Brantley Bell leads all 'Cats in stolen bases with 14. Outfielder Jesus Lujano also is in double digits in steals with 10 of his own.

2022 PLAYOFF FORMAT

SECTION 1 – Qualification: The top three teams in both divisions will qualify for the playoffs. If there is a tie for a playoff berth, the tiebreaker system described in Section 2 will be implemented.

SECTION 2 – Tie-Breaker Procedure: In case of a tie between two teams, the winner of the tie-breaker will be determined by (i) winning percentage; (ii) if still a tie, head to head record shall determine winner; (iii) if still a tie, head to head record against each team in the division in descending order of regular season finish will determine the winner; (iv) and if still a tie, a one game playoff will be held the day after the regular season ends at a site to be determined by the coin toss of the Commissioner. In the case of tie between three or more teams, the final standings will be determined by (i) winning percentages of all of the tied teams; (ii) if there are still three or more teams tied, winning percentages against the other teams tied for the slot; and (iii) if there are still three (3) or more teams tied, winning percentages against non-playoff teams, individually, in descending order of finish.

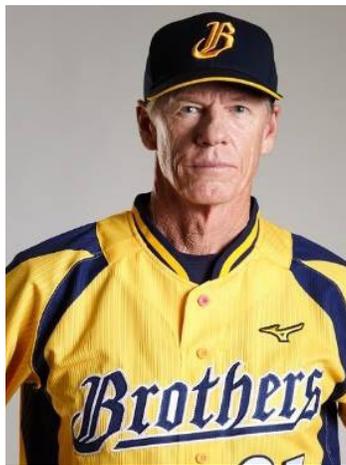

COACHING STAFF

MANAGER: PETE INCAVIGLIA

A 12-year MLB veteran with over 35 years of professional baseball experience, Pete Incaviglia enters his second season at the helm of the Tri-City ValleyCats. Since 2001, Incaviglia has held a variety of coaching and managing positions within professional baseball. This includes championships as a Field Manager in the Atlantic League ('18) and American Association ('15, '11). His coaching experience also includes time in the Detroit Tigers farm system. Incaviglia's most recent tenure was with the Sugar Land Skeeters, formerly of the Atlantic League. After serving as the team's Field Manager since November of 2017, he became the Director of Base- ball Operations for the Constellation League in Sugar Land, Texas.

Incaviglia played his college baseball at Oklahoma State and is the all-time home run leader for both a single season (48) and collegiate career (100) in NCAA Division I Baseball. He was drafted in the first round by the Montreal Expos in 1985 but following a trade, made his MLB debut for the Texas Rangers in 1986. Incaviglia holds the distinction of being one of the few players in history to reach the Major Leagues without playing a single minor league game. He hit 30 home runs in his rookie year on his way to amassing 206 home runs during a career that included time with six different teams.

PITCHING COACH: SCOTT BUDNER

Scott Budner joins the ValleyCats for what will be his 32nd year of professional coaching. The New London, Connecticut native was drafted in the sixth round of the 1977 June Amature Draft by the San Francisco Giants. During his seven year playing career, he reached as high as Triple-A. The Eastern Connecticut State University graduate pitched to a 3.48 ERA over 699 innings pitched.

The southpaw went from the mound directly to coaching, joining the Jacksonville University Dolphins as their pitching coach. After his three-year collegiate coaching career, Budner joined the Oakland Athletics as a minor league coach, spending time with a plethora of affiliates within the organization. He proceeded to travel throughout the minor leagues, as the head of multiple pitching staffs, while focusing on developing the stars of tomorrow. He most recently was the pitching coach for the New Orleans Baby Cakes in 2017 (AAA-MIA).

BENCH COACH: THOMAS INCAVIGLIA

The nephew of manager Pete Incaviglia, Thomas Incaviglia enters his second season as the bench coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats.

Incaviglia played professionally for the Grand Prairie AirHogs of the American Association for two seasons, and played collegiately at Oklahoma State, Texas, and Cal State Monterrey Bay, winning a NCAA Division I National Championship with the Longhorns.

His father, Tony, brother, Phillip, uncle, Pete, and grandfather, Tom, each also spent time within pro- fessional baseball.
