CIRCLE CITY ROUNDUP

ABOUT SUNDAY: The Indianapolis Indians posted four runs in each of the first two frames and continued to pad their lead to prevent a comeback from the Syracuse Mets as they took the series finale at NBT Bank Stadium, 12-9, in a rain-shortened, eight-inning contest on Sunday afternoon. The win clinched a series victory for the Indians and gives them a 7-5 record across their two-week road trip. The Indians wasted no time getting their first runs on the board in over 18 innings after suffering consecutive shutouts at the hands of the Mets. Alike Williams led off the contest with a double and Nick Yorke swapped places with him to break the scoring drought. Rafael Flores followed with a single to bring home Yorke and Sammy Siani blasted his first Triple-A home run to right-center field to cement a 4-0 lead. Indy doubled their run total in the second. Tsung-Che Cheng and Mike Jarvis reached base to start the inning, setting up Alike Williams for a 414-foot, three-run shot to dead center field. Nick Yorke then reached on a fielding error, stole second base and advanced to third on a wild pitch before being driven in by Flores for a second time, this time on a sacrifice fly, to give Indy an 8-1 advantage. Williams spurred another Indians rally in the fourth as he reached on a lead-off single. Yorke followed with his second double of the day, this one of the ground-rule variety, to set up two runners in scoring position with no outs. Nick Solak drove in the first run of the inning with a groundout and Siani capped the two-run frame with a single up the middle to score Yorke. The Indians plated two more runs on a fielding error and a sacrifice fly to cap their offensive outburst. Syracuse mounted a comeback in the seventh and eighth but could not see it come to fruition due to the rainout. The game was eventually called in the Indians' half of the ninth with no outs as heavy rain began to fall in Syracuse.

HOME SWEET HOME: The Indians return to Victory Field after a two-week road trip to the East Coast that saw them split a series against first-place Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and take four of six games from second-place Syracuse. The Indians own a 44-19 record at Victory Field this season, which is the best winning percentage (.698) at home among Triple-A teams and the third best among all full-season minor league teams. Additionally, it's the Indians' best home winning percentage to this point in the season since at least 2005, surpassing their 45-23 (.662) record at home through Aug. 25, 2012. 44 wins at Victory Field also surpasses the Indians' home win total in 23 of 29 full seasons in the Victory Field era (since 1996). Indians' pitchers have struck out the third-most batters (637) at home this season and have held opponents to the third-lowest ERA (3.71) and batting average (.230) among Triple-A pitching staffs.

ALIKE'S ALL OVER IT: Alike Williams went 4-for-5 with a double, a home run and three RBI in Sunday's win, extending his hitting streak to 10 games since Aug. 14 at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. Four hits matched a career high for Williams, which he last set on Sept. 19, 2024, at St. Paul. It was his first career game with four hits and a home run and the first by an Indians' third baseman since Matt Kata went 4-for-5 with a homer on Aug. 2, 2008, vs. Toledo. Across his hitting streak, Williams ranks among International League hitters in hits (2nd, 18), total bases (2nd, 34), RBI (T-2nd, 15), runs scored (T-2nd, 13), home runs (T-3rd, 4), batting average (4th, .450) and OPS (5th, 1.339). In August, he has hit safely in 16 of 18 games, good for a .362 batting average (25-for-69) to go with three doubles, a triple, six home runs, 19 RBI and a 1.119 OPS. Williams' six homers in the month surpasses his five in June 2022 with High-A Bowling Green for his career high in a calendar month and his 10 extra-base hits match his most in a month (July 2023).

NICK GETS HITS: Nick Yorke recorded two doubles and two RBI on Sunday, notching his fourth straight game with multiple hits. It was his 31st multi-hit game of the season, the most by an Indians' hitter on the campaign. Both of Yorke's doubles came with a runner on base, which improved his batting average with runners on to .337 (67-for-220), the fourth highest by a Triple-A hitter (min. 200 PA). Yorke is currently riding a seven-game hitting streak since Aug. 17 at Scranton/Wilkes-Barre and is hitting .387 (12-for-31) with four doubles, eight RBI and a .910 OPS across his streak. Yorke has hit safely in 19 of his last 23 games since July 19 and has racked up 12 multi-hit games in that span. Across this stretch, Yorke holds a .340 batting average (34-for-100) with 16 runs scored, seven doubles, a homer, 19 RBI and a .802 OPS.

SAMMY SWINGS: Sammy Siani slugged his first Triple-A home run on Sunday, a first-inning, two-run shot to right-center field, and added on an RBI single in the fourth inning for his third RBI of the day. He has recorded multiple hits in three of five games played with Indy since being promoted from Double-A Altoona on Aug. 20. In his five games, Siani is hitting .333 (6-for-18) with a double, a homer, four RBI, four walks a .455 on-base percentage and a 1.011 OPS. Four of his six hits have come with runners on base, a situation in which he is hitting .444 (4-for-9) with a 1.434 OPS.

MONEY MORETA: Dauri Moreta moved to 4-0 on the season with 1.1 scoreless innings on Sunday while striking out one. Moreta has not allowed an earned run in 20 of 23 appearances since June 7 at Memphis. He has fanned two or more batters in 14 of those appearances and has recorded three or more punchouts in seven. In this span, Moreta leads Triple-A relievers with at least 25.0 innings pitched in ERA (1.65, 5er/27.1ip) and strikeouts per nine (14.16, 43 K/27.1ip) while ranking fourth in opponent's OPS (.550) and fifth in opponent's batting average (.177, 17-for-96).

TONIGHT'S MATCHUP: The Indianapolis Indians and Buffalo Bisons begin a six-game set at Victory Field tonight at 6:35 PM. This is the two teams' third meeting since the Triple-A implemented six-game sets in 2021. Indy won their series last season at Victory Field, four games to two, and Buffalo swept the Indians at Sahlen Field in 2023. After dropping each of their first five series openers to begin the season, the Indians are 12-5 in series-opening games since April 29 at Omaha and have won eight of their last 11 since June 10 vs. St. Paul. Southpaw Nick Dombkowski will take the mound for his eighth start of the season for Indy and his second career appearance against the Bisons. He will be opposed by rehabber Alek Manoah who is making his third rehab start and just his 10th start in Triple-A overall compared to 75 major-league starts. Manoah has faced the Indians once in his career, on April 30, 2024, at Sahlen Field, and he matched a career high with 12 punchouts across 6.0 innings of work while allowing two hits, a run and two walks.

DIRTY DOM: Nick Dombkowski was named the International League Pitcher of the Week for Aug. 18-24 yesterday for his performance on Aug. 20 at Syracuse. In that start, Dombkowski matched a career high with 6.0 innings pitched while allowing two hits, no runs and striking out four. The two hits were each erased on double plays, leading him to face the minimum 18 batters. In four starts since June 1, Dombkowski has pitched to a 3.24 ERA (6er/16.2ip) with 13 strikeouts and a 1.02 WHIP.

ON THIS DATE IN 1981: As part of a fundraiser for former Indiana University basketball star Landon Turner in which $34,000 was raised, the Indians hosted a home run derby prior to a 4-2 win over Iowa. Bobby Knight was the pitcher for the derby, which featured current and former IU basketball stars.
