FROM THE CROWS NEST

The Flash.... Jeter Martinez tossed his best outing since being dealt to the Pirates from the Seattle Mariners last Summer. The 20-year-old tied a career-high 6.0 innings and eight strikeouts during a win against the Jupiter Hammerheads on Saturday. Martinez lowered his ERA to 3.13 through his first 10 outings of the season, and is on pace to have the best season of his professional career.

Franchise Record.... Cristian Jauregui stole a franchise record five steals on Friday against Jupiter. There had been 12 different Marauders players over their franchise history to swipe three bases in a game, but Jauregui eclipsed that this weekend. Jauregui had just five steals on the season before exploding around the basepaths on Friday.

On Cloud 9.... On Friday, Levi Sterling tied his career-high with nine strikeouts during his start against the Hammerheads. It was the second outing this year that Sterling has earned nine strikeouts, and is now tied for the team lead with Reinold Navarro in that category with 51 on the year. Over his last three starts, Sterling has allowed just three runs over 16.0 innings.

Take a Walk.... On Thursday, the Bradenton Marauders worked a season-high 13 walks against the Jupiter Hammerheads pitching staff, and finished two walks shy of tying the franchise record of 15. Edgleen Perez tied the Marauders individual record for most walks in a game with four, adding on an RBI single to his performance. Despite the Marauders being second in batting average in the Florida State League (.244), Bradenton is only seventh in walks (262).

In the Palm of His Hands.... Dylan Palmer extended his hitting streak to six games with a two-hit performance on Thursday night. Palmer went 2-for-5 with an RBI and a walk. During that span, Palmer went 8-for-23 with four steals and two multi-hit games. After swiping three bases on Wednesday, Palmer leads the FSL in steals at 26. Overall, the former Hofstra standout has a slash line of .272/.362/.344 over 49 games.

Sueng Him Up.... Hyun Sueng Lee was transferred from the FCL to Single-A Bradenton on June 2 to play in the six-game series against the Hammerheads. Lee made a strong statement during his first two games with the Marauders in late May, notching three hits including a double and a run. Last week against Jupiter, Lee extended his hitting streak to four games and is slashing .273/.407/.455 to begin his Marauders career. At the FCL, Lee drove in 23 RBIs and worked nine walks over 15 games.

Navarro a Doubt.... Reinold Navarro impressed on the mound once again with a five-strikeout performance on Thursday night. The Pirates No. 24 prospect now leads the Marauders in strikeouts with 51 over 30.1 frames. He now holds a 2.67 ERA and is holding opposing batters to a .143 batting average, which ranks No. 1 on the team over the club's last 10 matchups
