- LAST TIME OUT - Cedar Rapids 5, Great Lakes 2: A Rubel Cespedes (1-4, HR, 2 RBI) two-run home run and a Dalton Shuffield (1-4, 2 RBI) two-run single provided the KERNELS all they needed in a series-opening win over Great Lakes. The victory is the KERNELS' sixth straight win at Dow Dimond, dating back to 2016. KERNELS starter John Klein got the win, allowing just two runs on four hits with seven strikeouts compared to just one walk across 5.1 innings. Behind him, Jordan Carr pitched 1.2 scoreless frames, and Gabriel Yanez collected the final six outs in a scoreless six-out save to lock down the Cedar Rapids 5-2 victory.
- WHAT'S AT STAKE: A win improve Cedar Rapids to 32-20, be the KERNELS seventh straight win at Dow Dimond and improve CR to 11-12 on the road.
- THE SERIES: For the first time ever, Cedar Rapids and Great Lakes open up a six-game series. The two teams last met in the 2023 Midwest League Championship when the KERNELS beat the LOONS 2-1 to win their first MWL title since 1994. Cedar Rapids won the lone game at Dow Dimond in the set, 10-6, thanks to a five-run ninth inning. For the first time since 2019, the two teams meet in the regular season and for the first time since 2018, they meet for a series in Midland. The two sides will meet for a six-game series in CR in August.
- EVERYTHING EXTRA?: After three straight games in the series with Lake County where the KERNELS did not allow a single extra-base hit (25 straight singles), Great Lakes recorded only XBH in game one of the set. On Tuesday, the LOONS had three doubles and two home runs to make up their five hits.
- SAD END: Last series, Lake County won the series at Cedar Rapids 4-2. It's the KERNELS first home series loss since August of 2022, breaking a span of 11 straight home series wins and 17 in a row with at least a split.
- ALL IN OLIVAR: Despite snapping his 12-game hitting and 21-game on-base streak on Sunday, Ricardo Olivar was named the Twins Minor League hitter of the week after going 8-27 with 3 HR and 5 RBI in the series vs Lake County. The Twins' top catching hit .351 (19-54) during his season-long hitting streak and also hitt .349 (26-77) over his season-long 21-game on-base streak when he raised his batting average 59 points (.246 to .305).
- TRADING PLACES: Former Kernel Noah Miller, who hit .223 with 8 HR and 60 RBI in 120 games while receiving a Minor League Gold Glove with Cedar Rapids last year, and current Kernel Rayne Doncon, who were both part of a Trade that sent Manuel Margot to the Twins, square off this week against their former organizations. Doncon crushed a walk-off two-run shot to lift Cedar Rapids to a 4-2 win over Lake County Thursday night last week and began his tenure in CR reaching base in his first nine games with the KERNELS.
- MAYDAY MAYDAY: After finishing April with a record of 10-11 and an -8 run differential, Cedar Rapids finished May 20-7 the best record in the entire high-A level. The KERNELS outscored opponents 140-97 (+43 run differential). As a team at the Plate, CR hit .248 with a .750 OPS and 80 XBH (31 HR). On the mound, the pitching staff held a 3.11 May ERA, with just .220 BAA. The KERNELS have started June 1-2 being outscored 21-9 in the first three games.
- RAKIN' RUBEL: Rubel Cespedes was named MWL Player of the Month for April. Cespedes' 41 RBI are the most in the west and tied for 2nd in the league.
- MR. 317: With the win on 5/9 in South Bend, KERNELS' manager Brian Dinkelman collected his 317th career win on the bench with the KERNELS. The victory makes the KERNELS bench boss the winningest manager in Cedar Rapids' modern franchise history (since 1949) passing Jake Mauer's mark of 316.
- STARS OF TOMORROW: 7 of the Twins' top 30 prospects currently stand on the KERNELS roster: Gabriel Gonzalez (no. 4 Twins, 86 MLB, Twins top RHH prospect), RHP C.J. Culpepper (8), INF Danny De Andrade (14), Connor Prielipp (17), C Ricardo Olivar (21), RHP Darren Bowen (29) and Rayne Doncon (30).
