TEeing OFF

- RIVALRY RENEWED: The 2022 season gets started as the GreenJackets battle the Columbia Fireflies (Kansas City Royals) in the I-20 Rivalry. Augusta saw no opponent more in 2021 than Columbia as the two squads played 34 times, with the GreenJackets winning the season-series 18-16.
- HELLO NESTOR: Nestor Perez takes over as the Manager of the GreenJackets this season. He has been apart of the Braves Organization for 10 years including managerial duties of the GCL Braves since 2016. Pitching Coach Mike Steed and Hitting Coach Connor Narron join Perez as first year members on the field staff.
- NEW LEAGUE: The GreenJackets are now members of the historic Carolina League after MLB returned league names to all levels. This will officially be Augusta's first year in the Carolina League, however, all the teams from Low-A East in 2021 are also in the Carolina League.
- NEW TEAM, NEW FACES: The Opening Day, 30-man roster welcomes 16 new players to the GreenJackets including a pair of pitchers in the Top-30 of the Braves Farm System, AJ Smith-Shawver (#17) & Adam Shoemaker (#26). 14 players return from last season's team, highlighted by Atlanta's #18 prospect Cal Conley.
- TIME TO BOUNCE BACK: Both Augusta and Columbia finished under .500 in 2021 and look to bounce back after finishing 54-66 & 48-71 respectively.

TONIGHT'S STARTER

BIO

2021: Pitched for the GCL Braves to begin 2021 where he took his game to a new level. The right-hander was promoted to Augusta on September 7 and showed much promise between the two teams. With the GCL Braves, worked as reliever and as an opener and kept opponents off the board in 7 of his 10 outings. Salinas' strikeout ability is what caught the most attention as he struck out at least 3 batters in all his 10 appearances, including a 10 strikeout performance in 4 innings on August 31, his final outing with the GCL Braves. He was then promoted to Augusta in September where he impressed in 3 starts. In 14 innings of work, he allowed just 1 run and struck out 18. In the process, he earned 2 wins as a starter. Tonight will be his 2nd career start against Columbia

CAREER: Signed as an International Free Agent by the Atlanta Braves out of Venezuela in November of 2018. Pitched all of 2019 with the Dominican Summer League Braves and appeared in 17 games as a reliever. He dealt 33 innings over the course of the season with a 3.82 ERA while collecting 37 strikeouts. Following the season, Salinas was promoted to the GCL Braves.

2021: Assigned to Augusta at the beginning of the season where he entered as the Braves' No. 24 prospect according to MLB Pipeline but faced a mostly difficult season due to injury. He appeared in 6 total games with 4 starts and only covered 14 innings during that time. Owens finished the season with a 7.07 ERA and an 0-3 record with a small sample size as his season came to end after one month as he was placed on the injured list on June 10 and never returned after that.

CAREER: Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 13th round of the 2019 MLB Draft. Spent the ensuing season split between the GCL Braves and the Rookie affiliate Danville where he finished the season with a combined 0-3 record with a 4.23 ERA in 10 appearances and 9 starts that covered 27.1 innings. Collected 32 strikeouts throughout the course of the year with 12 walks while holding opponents to an impressive .184 batting average against him. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played high school baseball at Trinity Catholic in Ocala, Florida. Was the No. 90 ranked recruit nationally by Perfect Game and the No. 31 overall right-handed pitcher. Caught the eyes of scouts due to his strong velocity on his fastball that was consistently around 92-93 mph while topping in the mid-upper 90s. That along with his slider led him to a commitment to the University of Florida. Elected to forgo his scholarship after being draft by the Braves.

2021: Assigned to Augusta at the beginning of the season and pitched the entire season for the GreenJackets. Was tied for second on the team in appearances with 30 only behind James Acuna (31). All of his outings were out of the bullpen, covered 50.2 innings with 61 strikeouts and 50 walks Had a very strong start to the season as he dealt an ERA of 1.42 in the month of May in 14 innings and allowed just 3 earned runs across his first 10 outings. Ran into trouble following that by allowing multiple runs in 11 of his final 20 appearances as he finished the season with a 7.11 ERA.

CAREER: Drafted by the Atlanta Braves in the 28th round of the 2019 MLB Draft. A native of New Zealand, he was the third player to be drafted from the country joining Scott Campbell and Dan Devonshire who both selected by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 2006 and 2012 draft respectively. Pitched for the GCL Braves after being drafted by only made 2 relief appearances that covered just 4.2 innings. Did not pitch in 2020 due to the COVID-19 Pandemic

COLLEGE: Played at Chandler-Gilbert CC in Arizona for two seasons. He missed the entire 2017-18 season due to an elbow injury that required surgery. Came back with a strong season the following year and garnered much interest as he elected to transfer. Chose to transfer to Tulane University but instead was drafted by the Braves and pursued professional baseball instead and chose to forgo his final years of eligibility.

2021: Promoted to Augusta fro GCL Braves following COVID year and saw his most work in any professional season. Pena pitched 50.2 innings, doubling his previous high of 25 from his first year in DSL. Was used almost exclusively as a reliever making 26 appearances with one of those being a short start against Myrtle Beach on July 10 where he dealt 3 innings to begin the game. Had a tough start to the season as he allowed earned runs in all 4 of his outings in May but started to settle-in towards the end of the season. Pena finished the year with a 3.35 ERA in the months of August and September combined and started to get a feel for his stuff during that stretch with 23 strikeouts in the two months in 16.1 innings, earning him a 12.8 K/9 during that run.

CAREER: Signed by the Braves as an international free agent in 2017 from the Dominican Republic. Following his signing, the Braves designated him to the Dominican Summer League where he pitched well with a 3.96 ERA in 15 appearances and 25 innings all out of the bullpen. Earned a promotion to the GCL Braves in the 2018 where he continued to work exclusively out of the bullpen. Pitched 23.2 innings in 14 outings with a 5.32 ERA. Pitched in the GCL again in 2019 and improved from the year prior as he dropped his ERA to 1.88. Did not pitch as much in 2018, but saw his strikeout numbers improve in 2019 in the small sample size as he averaged about a strikeout an inning. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

CURRENT NOTES: Released by the Minnesota Twins on February 18, 2022. Agreed to a minor-league contract with the Atlanta Braves on March 16 and will begin season in Augusta.

2021: Began 2021 with the GCL Twins. Made 3 short starts before being promoted to the Fort Meyer Mighty Muscle (Twins Low-A). Made 6 starts for Fort Meyers but ran into problem with his command during the month of July and struggled to go deep into games. Was moved to the bullpen in the for the final month of the season and had 3 total outings where he allowed 6 earned runs in 8 innings. Leach finished the season with a 6.06 ERA in 12 total appearances between the FCL Twins and Fort Meyers with 33 strikeouts and 26 walks in 35.2 innings. =

CAREER: Drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 2nd round and 37th overall pick in the 2017 MLB Draft. Was assigned to the GCL Twins following his selection and pitched well during his brief season there. Made 5 appearances with 2 starts and finished with a 2-0 record with both of wins coming in relief. Showed his potential in his best outing when he struck out 5 in 3 innings of relief against the Red Sox affiliate on August 11. Pitched for the GCL again in 2018 but missed most of the season due to a significant injury and also was out all of 2019. Did not pitch in 2020 due to COVID-19.

HIGH SCHOOL: Played at Pickering High School in Ajax, Ontario. Was regarded as one of the top amateur pitchers in Canada due to a dominate fastball that worked low-mid 90's and topping at 96 while complimenting that with a slider and change up. Had the attention of professional scouts as a high draft pick in 2017. He committed to the University of Texas but ultimately was drafted by the Twins and elected to go to the pros rather than college.

2021: Began the 2021 season with Augusta almost exclusively out of the bullpen. Had 28 total outings with two coming as a starter. Recorded 3 saves in 4 attempts while also securing a 3-3 record throughout the season. Had an up-and-down start to the season as he allowed multiple runs 7 times in his the first three months of the season. Was sent down to the GCL Braves at the beginning of August and regained his confidence by not allowing any runs in 13 innings during his 6 outings. He returned to Augusta at the beginning of September and finished the regular season with the GreenJackets

CAREER: Signed by the Braves as an international free agent in 2017 from the Dominican Republic. He was designated to the Dominican Summer League following his signing where he pitched for two seasons in 2017-2018. Pitched mostly as a starter in the DSL as he made 23 appearances and 16 starts across the two seasons, totaling 64.1 innings of work. Promoted to the GCL Braves in 2019, he made 8 appearances for the rookie club all as a reliever. Did not pitch in 2020 due to the COVID-19 Pandemic.

2021: Pitched for the GCL Braves to begin 2021 where he took his game to a new level. The right-hander was promoted to Augusta on September 7 and showed much promise between the two teams. With the GCL Braves, worked as reliever and as an opener and kept opponents off the board in 7 of his 10 outings. Salinas' strikeout ability is what caught the most attention as he struck out at least 3 batters in all his 10 appearances, including a 10 strikeout performance in 4 innings on August 31, his final outing with the GCL Braves. He was then promoted to Augusta in September where he impressed in 3 starts. In 14 innings of work, he allowed just 1 run and struck out 18. In the process, he earned 2 wins as a starter.

CAREER: Signed as an International Free Agent by the Atlanta Braves out of Venezuela in November of 2018. Pitched all of 2019 with the Dominican Summer League Braves and appeared in 17 games as a reliever. He dealt 33 innings over the course of the season with a 3.82 ERA while collecting 37 strikeouts. Following the season, Salinas was promoted to the GCL Braves.

COACHING STAFF

NESTOR PEREZ

MANAGER

Nestor Perez brings familiarity to the Braves organization as he was the Manager of the Gulf Coast League Braves in 2021, the Braves Rookie affiliate. Perez has been promoted to the GreenJackets after serving as the Rookie Team's skipper since 2016. A native of Manzanillas, Cuba, Perez played in the Minor Leagues from 1998-2005 with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays and Colorado Rockies as a shortstop before signing to play in Spain at the highest level. Perez most notably played for Spain in the 2013 World Baseball Classic when the country appeared in the event for the first time.

MIKE STEED

PITCHING COACH

Mike Steed makes his way to Augusta from Beamsville in Ontario, Canada. Steed previously served as the Pitching Coordinator of the Ontario Blue Jays, Canada's top amateur baseball program as well as the Manager of the Thunder Bay Border Cats of the Northwoods League. Steed was entering his second stint as the Border Cats' Manager in 2020 and 2021 but the team was unable to participate in either season due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. He was the team's Pitching Coach in 2009 and was promoted to Manager in 2010 where he then led the Border Cats for two seasons.

CONNOR NARRON HITTING COACH

Connor Narron follows Nestor Perez from the GCL Braves to the GreenJackets. Narron comes from a baseball family as his father, Jerry Narron, played in the big leagues for eight seasons (1979-1987) and is currently a coach with the Chicago White Sox. Connor was a player himself and was drafted by the Baltimore Orioles in the fifth round of the 2010 Amateur Draft straight out of high school. He would play Minor League Baseball with the Orioles and Milwaukee Brewers from 2010-2014 before getting into coaching where he's been in the Braves organization since 2019.

MYLES SCHRODER COACH

Myles Schroder returns to the GreenJackets for his second year as a coach. Schroder was drafted in the 27th round by the San Francisco Giants in the 2007 Amateur Draft from Diablo Valley College. He played in the Giants minor league system from 2007-2018, including a season with the Augusta GreenJackets in 2012.
