TODAY'S GAME: The Fayetteville Woodpeckers (Single-A Houston Astros) continue six-game road series against the Lynchburg Hillcats (Single-A, Cleveland Guardians) at Bank of the James Stadium. This is game three of the week and the series is tied 1-1 after a 7-6 loss to Lynchburg on Wednesday night. The Woodpeckers are projected to start RHP and top-30 prospect Jose Fleury and the Hillcats will counter with RHP Alonzo Richardson.

ZACH COLE ON THE MOVE: On Monday the Houston Astros promoted Fayetteville outfielder Zach Cole to High-A Asheville following 70 games with the Woodpeckers in 2023. With his departure, Cole cements his legacy as one of the best players in franchise history. Over his 70 games, Cole led Fayetteville in AVG (.265), OPS (.891), HR (11), RBI (46), Runs (48), total bases (125), and walks (25) in addition to being named Carolina League Player of the Month for June and a two-time Carolina League Player of the Week. Cole was selected in the 10th round out of Ball State University by the Astros in the 2022 draft.

A TREY-MENDOUS YEAR: The first professional season for Woodpeckers LHP Trey Dombroski has been a phenomenal one. The former Monmouth Hawk and 2022 Astros fourth-round pick has the most strikeouts in the Carolina League (98). Dombroski also has the third-lowest qualifying ERA (3.28), the second-lowest qualifying WHIP (1.09), and the lowest qualifying opponent batting average (.206) in the league.

A FLEURY OF STRIKEOUTS: While Dombroski leads the Carolina League in strikeouts, his teammate Jose Fleury has quietly closed the gap in that department. Fleury, the #27-ranked prospect in the Astros' system (MLB Pipeline), now has 90 punch outs in his first year of full-season ball, the second-most in the league. The Dominican-born righty has excelled all season long and showed little signs of slowing down following the All Star break as he struck out eight GreenJackets batters Friday night, recording his third save in the Woodpeckers' 5-2 victory over Augusta.

THE OPPONENT: The Lynchburg Hillcats have been affiliated with the Cleveland Guardians since the 2015 season with previous affiliations with Atlanta, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh and Boston over the last 30 years. The franchise has won eight Carolina League Championships dating back to 1978 with the last crowning in 2017 with a 2-1 series win over the Frederick Keys. They were named co-champs that season with Down East due to Hurricane Irma. The team unveiled a new color scheme in 2017 as well consisting of seven hills green, Blue Ridge blue and midnight blue. They play at Bank of the James Stadium opened on April 11th of 1940. Fayetteville has an 11-9 record against the Hillcats dating back to the 2019 season.

DOUBLE DIP: In Sunday's series conclusion and 9-2 victory over Augusta, the Fayetteville Woodpeckers lineup connected for seven doubles in seven innings to set a new franchise record for most doubles in a single game. Six different players contributed to the record with Luis Baez (2), Ricardo Balogh, Luis Encarnacion, Tyler Whitaker, John Garcia, and Sandro Gaston all reaching via two-bagger. The seven doubles were also topped previous highs from the Buies Creek Astros seasons of 2017 and 2018.

BAEZ BELONGS: 19-year old outfield prospect Luis Baez had a big debut on Sunday afternoon in Fayetteville, going 2-for-3 with two doubles, two runs and an RBI in his first Carolina League game. Cole became the first Fayetteville hitter with multi extra-base hits in a debut since outfielder Justin Dirden in the 2021 season. Baez signed for $1.3 million out of the Dominican Republic landing the largest bonus in Houston's 2022 international class. He showed very well beginning the 2023 summer in the Florida Complex League, batting .271 with 7 home runs, 4 doubles and 16 RBI in 17 games. He added his fourth double in his first three games with Fayetteville on Wednesday night in Lynchburg.

COMEBACK OF THE YEAR: On Tuesday night in Lynchburg the Woodpeckers lineup accomplished something they had not done all season, comeback when trailing after eight innings. The Woodpeckers were 0-35 this year when trailing after eight innings and entered the ninth inning of Tuesday's game down 4-2. After loaded the bases with no outs, John Garcia walked in a run and Sandro Gaston delivered the game-winning swing with a two-run double to center field.

Recap: The Fayetteville Woodpeckers (38-47, 8-11) rallied in the middle innings to pull within a run of the Lynchburg Hillcats (40-44, 9-10) after trailing by six through four innings Wednesday night. Despite having the tying run on base a few times late, Fayetteville could not complete their second comeback in as many games as the Hillcats took home a 7-6 victory at Bank of the James Stadium. The Woodpeckers struck first in the scoring department in the top of the fourth inning when Luis Baez laced his fourth double in three games off the right field wall, bringing in Tyler Whitaker.

WOODPECKERS FIELD STAFF

11 Ricky Rivera

Rivera was named the fourth manager in Woodpeckers history manager in February following the promotion of former Fayetteville manager Joe Thon to Corpus Christi (AA). Prior to this year, Rivera spent the previous two seasons as manager of the Florida Complex League Astros after joining the organization in June of 2020.

As a player, Rivera began his college career at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College in 2012, helping the Golden Norsemen to back-to-back regular season championships as a freshman and sophomore. Rivera then transferred to the University of Central Missouri and pitched two seasons for the Mules, tallying a 12-3 record with a 3.90 ERA and receiving an All-MIAA Honorable Mention in 2014.

Rivera is no stranger to Fayetteville either as he spent the summer of 2014 playing for the Fayetteville Swamp-Dogs of the Coastal Plains League.

A native of Dorado, Puerto Rico, Rivera attended Dorado Academy where he was a two-time All-Country team selection and helped Dorado to a conference title. He was also a volleyball standout in high school, attracting interest from college programs. Rivera grew up a Yankees fan and idolized Roberto Clemente as a kid.

Manager

Dylan Mazzo

Dev. Coach

Mazzo begins his first season with the Woodpeckers and his second season with the Astros organization after serving as the development coach for the Corpus Christi Hooks in 2022.

Before joining Houston, he spent three seasons as a defensive coach with the Los Angeles Angels organization and six years coaching collegiately at four different schools.

Mazzo earned his bachelor's degree at Misericordia University in 2013 and received his Master of Science Administration degree at Lindenwood University a year later.

10 Luis Reynoso

Reynoso takes over as the hitting coach after spending several years within the Astros organization, both as a coach and a player. Last season, the 28-year-old served as hitting coach of the Florida Complex League Astros following two years as the hitting coach of the Dominican Summer League Astros.

As a player, Reynoso signed a minor league contract with Houston in July 2011. He spent the 2012 season as a middle infielder with the DSL Astros before playing the following two years in the Complex League. Reynoso got his first taste of affiliated ball when he was promoted to then-Single-A Quad Cities for the 2015 season, batting .226 with a home run and 16 RBI over 50 games with the River Bandits. His final season was in 2016 with then-High-A Lancaster, hitting .209 while driving in eight runs in 35 games with the JetHawks.

Reynoso grew up in the Dominican Republic in the city of San Francisco de Macoris.

Hitting Coach

Jennifer Bardales

Athletic Trainer

Bardales enters her third season with the Astros organization and her first in Fayetteville. She spent last season as a part of Rivera's staff with the Florida Complex League Astros and was an athletic training intern for the Astros in 2021.

Prior to her time with the organization, Bardales was an Orthotic Fitter and ATC Liaison for AdaptHealth. She also was a student athletic trainer while she earned her bachelor's degree at the University of Texas at San Antonio and her master's degree at the University of Houston.

45 Zach Wilkins

Wilkins joins the Astros organization as the fourth pitching coach in Woodpeckers history. He spent the previous three seasons as pitching coach for Utah Tech University under head coach Chris Pfatenhauer. Prior to his time at Utah Tech, Wilkins was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Arizona for two years.

While earning his bachelor's degree, Wilkins pitched two seasons at the University of Nevada. He recorded a 5.64 ERA and 55 strikeouts with the Wolf Pack and helped the program win its first-ever Mountain West Championship as a junior in 2015. Wilkins began his college career at Palomar College in San Marcos, California, posting an 8-1 record and 1.41 ERA over 12 career starts.

A San Diego native, Wilkins attended Scripps Ranch High School where he was a two-sport letter winner in baseball and basketball. He is the son of former Astros pitcher Dean Wilkins, who spent the 1991 season in Houston. His older brother Ryan pitched in the College World Series in 2013 for NC State.

Pitching Coach

Kevin Rivera

Strength/Conditioning Coach

Rivera starts his third season with Houston and his first in Fayetteville after spending 2022 with the Florida Complex League Astros staff under Ricky Rivera. He previously worked in strength and conditioning with the Detroit Tigers as well as USA Field Hockey.

Rivera earned his bachelor's degree in 2017 at Franklin Pierce University while being a member of the Ravens' track and field team. He later received his master's degree in 2019 at Long Island University.
