2024 SEASON NOTES

SPRING BREAK: Was invited to early camp by the Brewers and made his first Cactus League appearance on February 26th against the Reds in the 7th inning (1.0 IP, HR, K)...Was one of 10 pitchers on the Brewers roster for the inaugural Spring Breakout Game against the Royals but faced just one batter before straining an oblique muscle that delayed the start of his season.

NONCOMPLEX: Returned to the mound in May on rehab assignment in the Arizona Complex League where he worked 4.2 no-run innings and allowed a pair of hits and struck out 10 of the 16 batters he faced.

BIG APPLE(TON): Activated from the 7-day IL on May 24th and made two starts with High-A Wisconsin...Took a loss while allowing one earned over 2.2 one-hit innings in his first appearance and then worked 4.0 IP of no-run ball where he struck out seven without a walk and allowing three hits.

OH SHUCKS: Over nine starts in his first taste of Double-A from June 9-August 2 he was tied for the league-lead with six wins, posted the best WHIP (0.88), had second-most strikeouts (58), third-most IP (46.1), and had the eighth-best ERA (3.30)...His 58 strikeouts were T-6th across MiLB during the span...Set his career-high with 6.1 IP his final start with Biloxi (2 H, 2 ER, 8 K).

KING OF THE SOUTH: Earned Southern League and Brewers MiLB Pitcher of the Month honors in June after posting a 4-0 record and carried a 1.66 ERA in his four starts...Held opponents to a .192 BAA and matched his career-high with 10 strikeouts in two of his outings (6/15 vs. TEN & 6/28 vs. PNS)...His 29 strikeouts paced the Southern League from the time of his first start and were third-best overall in June.

NASH-TY STUFF: After leading the Brewers farm system in strikeouts (78) and being tied for the second-most wins (6) over his first 13 starts, he was promoted to Nashville and made his Triple-A debut on 8/9 vs. IND...Suffered the loss in his first appearance despite allowing one run on three hits over 4.0 IP...Spun his lone Triple-A quality start in his second appearance on Aug. 15 @ DUR with six shutout innings, eight strikeouts, and three hits allowed.

ORG CHARTS: Despite the late start, ended the year 8th in strikeouts (104), T-8th in wins (7), and T-9th in GS (19) among Brewers farmhands...Added to the 40-Man Roster on Nov. 19th.

PROSPECTING: BREWERS TOP 30

2024 SEASON NOTES

THAT'S THE SEASON: The Nashville Sounds wrapped up their season with a 78-68 record. They went 38-37 in the first half, coming in 12 games behind first half winner Omaha (49-24). In the second half, the Sounds went 40-31 and ended up 6.5 games behind second half winner Columbus (48-26), missing the Postseason for the second straight year. However, they are one of two teams in the International League to have a winning record each season since 2021, being joined by Worcester (Red Sox). Like last season, Nashville concluded the regular season on a three game winning streak.

REPPING HIT CITY: A total of 68 players (26 position and 42 pitchers) appeared for the Sounds in 2024. Of those 68, eight appeared strictly on MLB rehab assignment (3 position players and 5 pitchers). Also, 31 played for the Brewers in 2024. Position Players - Christian Arroyo, Tyler Black, Noah Campbell, Vinny Capra, Wes Clarke, Isaac Collins, Patrick Dorrian, Oliver Dunn (rehab), Eric Haase, Yonny Hernández, Brewer Hicklen, Nick Kahle, Francisco Mejía, Ben Metzinger, Owen Miller, Garrett Mitchell (rehab), Andruw Monasterio, Brian Navarreto, Jeferson Quero, Carlos Rodriguez, Chris Roller, Gary Sánchez (rehab), Joey Wiemer, Andy Yerzy, Chavez Young and Freddy Zamora. Pitchers - Aaron Ashby, Nick Bennett, Nolan Blackwood, J.B. Bukauskas, Harold Chirino, Taylor Clarke, Robert Gasser, Vladimir, Gutierrez, DL Hall, Logan Henderson, Kevin Herget, Blake Holub, Bryan Hudson (rehab), Tyler Jay, Jakob Junis, Janson Junk, Jared Koenig, Joel Kuhnel, Corbin Martin, Easton McGee, Evan McKendry, Sam McWilliams, James Meeker, Trevor Megill (rehab), Ryan Middendorf, Wade Miley (rehab), Jacob Misiorowski, Tobias Myers, Enoli Paredes, Chad Patrick, Elvis Peguero, Carlos Rodriguez, Joe Ross, Shane Smith, Garrett Stallings, Darrell Thompson, Abner Uribe, Mitch White, Devin Williams (rehab), Tyler Woessner, Craig Yoho, and Rob Zastryzny.

AWARD SEASON: Several Nashville Sounds have received awards for their season performance. Baseball America named their All-Star teams, highlighted by Sounds Craig Yoho, who earned First Team All-Minor League Baseball honors as the lone reliever, while Jacob Misiorowski was named the Brewers Minor League Player of the Year. Yoho also earned honors as a Midwest League All-Star, while Blake Holub was named a Southern League All-Star.

SOUNDS PLAYER AWARDS: The Nashville Sounds player awards were announced on Sunday, September 15 in a pregame ceremony. Brewer Hicklen and Isaac Collins were named Co-Most Valuable Players, Chad Patrick was awarded the Pitcher of the Year award, Kevin Herget was honored as the Community Player of the Year and the fans voted Vinny Capra as the Fan Favorite.

THREE CROWNS: At the conclusion of the regular season, Chad Patrick became the third pitcher in International League history (since 1912) to win the Triple Crown - leading the league in wins, ERA and strikeouts. The right-hander from Indiana finished the season 14-1 with a 2.90 ERA and 145 strikeouts in 26 appearances (24 starts). The previous two Triple Crown pitchers in IL history were Al Cicotte (16-7, 1.79 ERA, 158 K) in 1960 with Toronto and Dennis Martínez (14-8, 2.50 ERA, 140 K) in 1976 with Rochester. Patrick is also the third Triple Crown winner in Nashville Sounds history, joining Stefan Werly in 1982 (Southern League) and Chris Hammond in 1990 (American Association). He led the league in WHIP (1.09), win percentage (.933) and finished second in opponent batting average (.215) and sixth in innings pitched (136.1).

SPEEDY HICKLEN: Outfielder Brewer Hicklen finished with 44 stolen bases to lead the league. He is the third Sounds player to lead the league in stolen bases after Rich Thompson led the Pacific Coast League with 41 in 2004 and Lenny Harris led the American Association with 45 in 1988). Hicklen became the first Sound to have 40+ stolen bases in a season since Alcides Escobar (42) in 2009. The last time a player had 44+ stolen bases for Nashville was Harris in 1988 - Hicklen's total was the second-most in a season since the Sounds moved to Triple-A in 1985. On August 27, Hicklen became the first Sound to have 20 home runs and 40 stolen bases in a season. He finished as the only player in the minors with a 20/40 season and is one of four including MLB players this season (Shohei Ohtani, Elly De La Cruz and José Ramírez).

2024 SEASON NOTES

HOT COLLINS: Isaac Collins had a breakout season with the Sounds in 2024. He finished tied for the league lead with seven triples (with St. Paul's DaShawn Keirse Jr.) and ranked fifth in on-base percentage (.386), tied for seventh in walks (71) and 10th in OPS (.861). After the great season, Collins got the call to the big leagues on September 8 and made his debut vs. Colorado at American Family Field against the team that drafted him.

GOING OUT WITH A BANG: The Sounds homered at least once in each of their final six games at Norfolk to close out the season. It was their longest team home run streak of the year. Six players combined to hit at least one homer, while Tyler Black, Wes Clarke, Francisco Mejia and Chris Roller hit multiple off of Tides pitching.

THE SWEET LIFE: Manager Rick Sweet concluded his fourth consecutive season as the Sounds manager (5th overall) and his 34th season as a manager in MiLB. Sweet is the winningest manager in Nashville Sounds history with 398. This is his 11th season as manager of the Brewers' Triple-A affiliate and boasts a 761-651 record (Nashville in 2014, Colorado Springs from 2015-18, San Antonio in 2019 and Nashville 2021-). Overall, Sweet has a career managerial record of 2,353-2,171 - that's the fifth most wins in MiLB history and

HISTORY

NASHVILLE BASEBALL HISTORY

The 2023 season marks the 45th in Nashville Sounds team history, and the second as a member of the International League. It also marks the third consecutive year as the Triple-A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers, and 14th overall with Milwaukee after the two organizations spent 10 years together from 2005-14.

Baseball's roots in Nashville go back to the 19th Century. In fact, baseball has been played in Middle Tennessee since at least 1860, when the Republican Banner newspaper published a July 25th report on the game's popularity the previous fall. During the Civil War, Union soldiers temporarily based here helped spread the game in the local community. Home field was a place known as the Sulphur Springs Bottom, a half-mile north of today's state capitol.

When the original Southern League was organized in 1885, Nashville was a charter city and games were played at Nashville's Athletic Park, as the Sulphur Springs Bottom location came to be known. The city fielded several entries in the league over the next ten years -- the Americans (1885-86), the Blues (1887), the Tigers (1893-94), and the Seraphs (1895) -- but was unable to claim a pennant.

When the Southern Association was formed in 1901, Athletic Park -- which was later given the name Sulphur Dell by famed sportswriter Grantland Rice -- became the permanent home to the Nashville Volunteers (or Vols, for short), who played there for the next 61 years. Under the guidance of manager Newt Fisher, the Nashville club won the SA's first two pennants. The team, which was not known as the Vols until a "name the team" contest conducted prior to the 1908 season, continued to build a solid, loyal fan base.

Over the years, Nashville would stake claim to several more pennants, 18 SA batting championships, and the all-time SA home run mark (Bob Lennon blasted 64 longballs in 1954).

The hitters weren't the only players experiencing success, however. Vols hurlers notched 16 SA strikeout titles -- more than any other team -- and Nashville produced several 20-game winners. But year after year, the league's ERA title eluded Nashville pitchers, mainly due to the extremely short 262-foot porch in right field that resulted in countless home runs for left-handed sluggers and caused pitchers to refer to the ballpark as "Sulphur Hell."

Negro League baseball was also part of the Nashville sports landscape in the early 20th century. Nashville's Thomas T. Wilson formed the semi-pro Nashville Standard Giants in 1920 and the team quickly built regional reputation throughout the South. In 1931, Wilson's team gained entry into the Negro National League and was later renamed the Nashville Elite Giants.

Wilson Park, an 8,000-seat stadium, was constructed in early 1929 in the Trimble Bottom section of Nashville, near the old Meharry Medical College and Waldon College, right in the middle of Nashville's largest Negro community. His marketing strategy, however, appealed to fans of all race and the facility was used throughout the following decade by numerous community groups and promoters, both black and white.

Unfortunately, the Negro National League disbanded the following year but Wilson kept his team alive by joining the Southern Negro League in the 1932 season. The NNL was reincarnated in 1933 and the Elite Giants rejoined the league for two additional seasons in 1933-34. Due to a declining economy, Wilson moved the club to Columbus following the 1934 campaign, ending Nashville's involvement in the Negro League scene.

In addition to the professional teams based in Nashville, Sulphur Dell also played host to countless Major League clubs and several Hall of Famers over the years. It was common for teams to stop and play games in Nashville on their route from Florida spring training to their northern homes. In addition, barnstorming teams became popular visitors to the Dell.

Among the famous names to play on this site over the years include Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Hank Aaron (who made his professional debut at Sulphur Dell), Ted Williams, Minnie Minoso, Monte Irvin, Cool Papa Bell, Bob Feller, Rube Waddell, Warren Spahn, Satchel Paige, Roy Campanella, Jackie Robinson, Eddie Mathews, Josh Gibson, and Honus Wagner.

Following the 1961 season, the Southern Association disbanded and Sulphur Dell sat empty for a year. But in 1963, the South Atlantic League came to town and Nashville had its first Double-A team.

Unfortunately, the Double-A Vols had a disappointing inaugural season and the franchise folded. In 1969, Sulphur Dell was razed and a parking lot was built on the site.

After a fifteen-year hiatus, professional baseball returned to Music City in 1978 as the Southern League expansion franchise team, the Nashville Sounds. Owner and general manager Larry Schmittou, who had been involved in the Nashville baseball scene for several years as the head coach of the Vanderbilt collegiate squad, was instrumental in the re-emergence of pro baseball in Nashville.

Schmittou employed the city's entertainment scene into the nickname and country & western stars such as Larry Gatlin, Jerry Reed, Conway Twitty, and Richard Sterban (bass singer of the Oak Ridge Boys) became Sounds stockholders.

The club played their home games at a new facility, Herschel Greer Stadium, located south of downtown at the foot of St. Cloud Hill in Fort Negley Park. Fans responded to the return of baseball to the city by flocking to the ballpark. Nashville led the Southern League in attendance in each of their seven seasons as a member of the circuit.

As a Cincinnati Reds affiliate in the Double-A Southern League, the Sounds finished ninth during their inaugural campaign in 1978 but easily led the league in attendance, drawing 380,000 fans (more than double the second-place attendance). The club returned with a resurgence the following season, leading the nation in minor league attendance and capturing the Southern League crown behind manager George Scherger. The Sounds beat cross-state rival Memphis for the Western Division title, then defeated Columbus for the SL championship. Pitcher Scott Brown captured the one honor that had eluded Nashville pitchers for years, winning the ERA title with a 2.40 mark.

In 1980, the Sounds switched affiliations, becoming a part of the famed New York Yankees organization, and remained at the top of their game. Skippers Stump Merrill and Johnny Oates and players such as Steve Balboni, Don Mattingly, Buck Showalter, Otis Nixon, Willie McGee, Pat Tabler, Dan Pasqua, and Jamie Werly helped lead Nashville to first or second place finishes in their division from 1980-84. In 1982, Brian Dayett brought Music City its second Southern League championship with a dramatic 12th-inning homer. Two years later, Jim DeShaies hurled the club's first no-hitter.

In 1984, Schmittou purchased the Evansville Triplets of the American Association and in 1985 moved the franchise to Nashville. Nashville's Southern League franchise was moved to Huntsville (as the Sounds became a Triple-A franchise for the first time), but the Southern League would later make a unique reappearance at Greer.

The Sounds' initial Triple-A affiliation was with the Detroit Tigers from 1985-86. Although Nashville failed to win any titles during this two-year period, there were several individual accomplishments worth mentioning. Scotti Madison and Bruce Fields posted back-to-back American Association batting titles, and Bryan Kelly tossed the club's second no-hitter.

Sounds alumni were well-represented at the major-league level in 1985. Don Mattingly of the Yankees (1981 Sounds) picked up the American League's Most Valuable Player Award, while the National League MVP honor went to Willie McGee of the Cardinals, a Sounds player in 1980-81.

In 1987, the Sounds rejoined the Cincinnati farm system, this time as the Reds' Triple-A affiliate. Over the first three seasons (1987-89), Nashville fans enjoyed the opportunity to watch players who eventually made up two-thirds of Cincinnati's 1990 World Series championship roster. The Sounds also experienced success in 1990, winning an Eastern Division championship in a one-game playoff with Buffalo after both clubs finished the regular season in a tie. The extra-inning affair was one of the most exciting games in club history and was decided by Chris Jones' two-run homer in the top of the 18th inning.

Greer Stadium was the site of a rare baseball occurrence in 1988, when Nashville and Indianapolis exchanged no-hitters on back-to-back nights in early August. Jack Armstrong fired a no-no one night after Indianapolis' Randy Johnson registered a no-hitter against the Sounds, although Nashville was able to post a 1-0 victory in the contest due to a handful of Indians errors.

Over the early '90s, Nashville became a solid member of the American Association and set its all-time attendance mark when 605,122 fans came out to Greer Stadium in 1990. The Sounds switched affiliations again in 1993, this time becoming the top farm club of the Chicago White Sox. In their first year with the Sox, the Sounds won an Eastern Division crown and continued to enjoy excellent attendance, drawing over 400,000 fans for the fifth consecutive year.

The 1993 season also brought two additions to the Greer Stadium landscape: the signature, guitar-shaped scoreboard and a second professional team.

Following the '92 campaign, Charlotte moved up to the Triple-A level and when a proposed transfer of the Double-A franchise to New Orleans was blocked shortly before the season began, the Southern League suddenly had a homeless club. Sounds owner Larry Schmittou offered the use of Greer Stadium for the 1993 season. The Nashville Xpress -- a Twins affiliate -- would schedule home games during Sounds road trips, offering pro ball on a daily basis to local fans.

The Double-A Xpress won the first half in the West, but fell to eventual SL champion Birmingham in the playoff opener, while the Sounds went on to the American Association Championship Series before falling to Iowa in extra innings in Game 7. The Xpress were back for one more season in 1994 before relocating to Wilmington, N.C. for the 1995 season. The '94 Southern League campaign brought perhaps the most famous visitor to Greer Stadium -- Birmingham outfielder Michael Jordan, who was the talk of minor league baseball during his one-year retirement from the Chicago Bulls, made several appearances in Nashville.

On the Triple-A front, the Sounds experienced great success during their five-year affiliation with the White Sox, winning a pair of Eastern Division crowns and appearing in the 1994 American Association championship (lost to Indianapolis). Fans were provided the opportunity to watch future major-league stars such as Magglio Ordonez, Ray Durham, and James Baldwin, while many of the players who would go on to make up the 2000 AL Central champion White Sox fine-tuned their skills at Greer Stadium.

The American Association disbanded in 1997 and the Sounds joined the Pacific Coast League as a member of the Pittsburgh Pirates organization -- their fifth major league organization. Along with a new big-league affiliate came a new logo, color scheme, and uniform. The Sounds spent seven seasons as a Bucs affiliate, making the playoffs once over that span.

Outfielder Chad Hermansen blasted 92 home runs in his five seasons as a Sound (1998-2002) to become the franchise's all-time leader in that category. Left-handed slugger Ivan Cruz (1999-00) became a crowd favorite with his jaw-dropping home runs. Catcher Craig Wilson burst onto the scene in 2000, falling one short of the club record with 33 homers. The PCL All-Star tied a Sounds record in June of that year by swatting three longballs in one game. And catcher Humberto Cota led the Sounds with 71 RBI in 2001 to earn the Pittsburgh Pirates' Minor League Player of the Year award.

Journeyman right-hander John Wasdin added his name to the record book in dramatic fashion during his first start of the 2003 season. The 30-year-old tossed the Sounds' first perfect game and only the second nine-inning perfect in the 100-year history of the Pacific Coast League. Wasdin's gem against Albuquerque propelled Nashville to a 14-1 start, which they rode to an Eastern Division title (their first in 10 years) and a berth in the PCL Championship Series (where they were swept by Sacramento, 3-0).

Following the 2004 season, the Sounds changed affiliates once again, welcoming the Milwaukee Brewers to town as the sixth different major-league franchise to set up shop in Music City.

In the club's first season as a Brewers affiliate in 2005, the Sounds captured the Pacific Coast League championship -- the club's first-ever Triple-A title and the city of Nashville's first professional championship in 23 years, dating back to the Sounds' Southern League title in 1982.

Greer Stadium began showing its age in the 2000s and Sounds ownership initiated discussions with government officials about the possibility of a new ballpark for the city. Nashville Mayor Karl Dean announced in November 2013 that an agreement had been made for a new home for the Sounds.

In 2015, the Sounds moved into a brand new, state-of-the-art facility at the old Sulphur Dell site. The $47 million dollar First Tennessee Park opened on April 17, 2015 when the Sounds topped the Colorado Springs Sky Sox, 3-2, in 10 innings. Along with the new ballpark, the Sounds enjoyed their first season with a new affiliate - the Oakland Athletics. The Sounds finished in third place in the American Southern Division with a 66-78 record and missed the playoffs for the eighth consecutive season.

The second year with the new affiliate brought a season full of success. The Sounds finished with a record of 83-59 record in the regular season, the best in the Pacific Coast League. The 83 wins were tied for fifth-most in franchise history, and were the most a Nashville team has had since the 2007 team won 89 games. They returned to the playoffs for the first time since that 2007 season and won the franchise's fifth division title since joining the PCL in 1998.

The season ended in heartbreak, however, as Nashville met the Oklahoma City Dodgers in the American Conference Finals where the season came to a dramatic end in game five. After winning game one at Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark, the Sounds dropped game two the next night. They came back to win game three at home to take a 2-1 series lead, but the Dodgers won game four, 7-1, to set up a deciding game. In a game that featured five lead changes, the Sounds blew a 9-7 lead in the eighth inning and lost game five, 10-9.

In 2017, the Sounds finished 68-71, good for second place in the American Southern Division. Despite the sub-.500 record on the field, fans flocked to First Tennessee Park in record numbers. 22 sellouts were recorded during the season, and the Sounds averaged a PCL-best 8,861 fans per game at home. Prior to the start of the 2018 season, Trevor Hoffman became the first Nashville Sounds player to be inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

2018 would be Nashville's final season as the Triple-A affiliate of the Oakland Athletics. Manager Fran Riordan led the club to a 72-68 record despite constant roster turnover. On August 3, 2018, the Sounds notched franchise win number 3,000 with a 6-2 win over Fresno. On August 28, 2018, Nashville won its 1,500th game as a member of the Pacific Coast League. The 2018 season was highlighted by Nick Martini's incredible franchise-record, 66-game on-base streak. In four years as the A's Triple-A affiliate, the Sounds finished with a 289-276 record.

Following the 2018 season, a major franchise change occurred for the Sounds. On September 20, 2018, in a press conference at First Tennessee Park, the Sounds and Texas Rangers entered into a four-year Player Development Contract, making the Sounds the new Triple-A affiliate of the Texas Rangers. The offseason of change continued when the Sounds revealed their remastered identity. The team changed all logos, marks and uniforms in a November 15 presentation at First Tennessee Park.

The new era of Nashville Sounds baseball began when First Tennessee Park hosted its first Major League Baseball exhibition game on March 24, 2019. The Sounds hosted the Texas Rangers in front of a record-breaking crowd of 11,824 on a Sunday afternoon.

Momentum continued into the 2019 season in which the ballpark hosted 23 sellouts as the Sounds finished third in average attendance in all of Minor League Baseball. On the field, Nashville finished in third place in the Pacific Coast League's American Northern Division with a 66-72 mark. The season was highlighted by several team records set by pitcher Tim Dillard and the power display from prolific duo of Matt Davidson (33) and Patrick Wisdom (31) who combined to hit 64 home runs.

Following the 2019 season, the Sounds were named the 2019 Triple-A winner of Baseball America's coveted Freitas Award. The Freitas Awards have been presented by Baseball America annually since 1989 and recognize franchises for their community involvement, long-term business success and consistent operational excellence.

2020 brought a multitude of events to both Nashville and the Sounds. In the late hours of March 2 and early hours of March 3, a tornado ravaged Nashville and the Germantown neighborhood that is home to the ballpark. The iconic guitar scoreboard was severely damaged and a large portion needed to be rebuilt. The roof to the ballpark also suffered significant damage.

During the rebuild phase of the guitar and roof repair, First Tennessee Park officially changed to First Horizon Park. In the first five years of the park, a total of 2,844,713 fans entered the gates and 98 games were sold out.

The tragic tornado was only a sign of things to come. The Covid-19 pandemic hit Minor League Baseball hard. In early July, the entire minor league season was cancelled.

The long-standing agreement between Major League Baseball and Minor League Baseball ended on September 30, 2020 which meant significant changes were ahead. On December 9, 2020, the Sounds received an invitation from the Milwaukee Brewers as part of MLB's new player development structure. The organization officially accepted the invitation and became the new Triple-A affiliate of the Brewers.

The second installment of the Sounds' affiliation with the Milwaukee Brewers began in 2021. Rick Sweet, who managed the club in 2014, returned as skipper and led the Sounds to a 70-58 record. Still recovering from the pandemic, the Sounds and First Horizon Park were limited to 40% capacity for the first three home games. When the capacity restriction was lifted, fans came out with authority. The Sounds led Minor League Baseball in total attendance (436,868) and per-game attendance (6,721).

On the field, Nashville's 70-58 record was good for fourth place in the newly formed Triple-A East League Southeast Division. From May 18 to June 3, the team matched a franchise record by winning 15 consecutive games.

In their first season in the new International League, the Sounds won the West Division to qualify for the International League Championship Game. With a record of 91-58, Nashville was the only team to cross the 90-win threshold in Minor League Baseball. Just like in '21, the Sounds paced Minor League Baseball in total attendance (555,576). The season also boasted the highest single-game attendance in First Horizon Park history with 12,409 fans on July 16.

After the 2022 season, the Sounds were honored as the Organization of the Year by Minor League Baseball, receiving the award for the first time in the club's 45-year history.

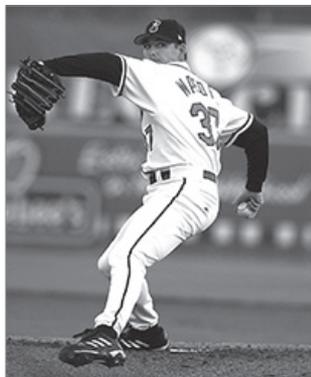

JOHN WASDIN'S PERFECT GAME

April 7, 2003 is a day that will live forever in the baseball history books. It just happened to be a perfect day for John Wasdin.

The 30-year-old Nashville Sounds starter fired the first perfect game in the team's 26-year history in a 4-0, 100-pitch victory over the visiting Albuquerque Isotopes at Greer Stadium.

The rare achievement was only the second nine-inning perfect game in the 100-year history of the Pacific Coast League. Wasdin struck out Isotopes pinch hitter Rob Stratton on four pitches to close the game before he was mobbed by his teammates just in front of the mound following his first start of the season.

Wasdin matched a Nashville individual-game record with 15 strikeouts in the contest, including the final two batters he faced, to etch his name in the record books. 72 of his 100 pitches were thrown for strikes.

Nashville manager Trent Jewett addressed the entire Sounds team about the night's significance in the Greer Stadium clubhouse immediately following the game.

"A lot of you have been in baseball a long time, but what you just witnessed, you'll never see anything more magical or more difficult," Jewett said. "Absolutely unbelievable."

Third baseman Mike Gulan provided the biggest defensive plays behind Wasdin, snaring a sharply-hit Matt Treanor line drive back-handed just inside the third-base line to record the first out of the ninth inning and making an outstanding barehand play on a Jesus Medrano bunt in the top of the fourth to nail the Isotope by a step.

Wasdin's perfect game was Nashville's first no-hit effort since Jack Armstrong tossed one against Indianapolis on August 7, 1988, and was the fourth by a Sounds hurler and eighth overall in a game involving the Sounds. Oklahoma City's Rick Helling fired a perfect game against the Sounds in 1996.

MANNY PARRA'S PERFECT GAME

Sounds left-hander Manny Parra made history on June 25, 2007 at The Dell Diamond in Round Rock, Texas, throwing a perfect game in Nashville's 3-0 victory over the Express in his second career Triple-A start.

The 24-year-old hurler was mobbed near the mound by teammates shortly after 9:43 p.m. as first baseman Brad Nelson gazed a game-ending popup off the bat of pinch hitter Jesse Garcia as Parra etched his name into the record books.

"I don't think I even watched it come down," Parra said. "I was thinking, 'Is this really happening?' It was unbelievable. It's something I never thought I'd do. I've never even seen a no-hitter in person."

Parra's teammates mobbed the Sacramento native at the mound as the remaining opposing fans at The Dell Diamond gave him a standing ovation.

"It's the greatest feeling I've ever had," Parra said.

Parra, who earned his first career Triple-A victory with the historic effort, set a new career high with 11 strikeouts in the contest. He had previously fanned 10 batters on five occasions.

The southpaw, who threw 107 pitches including 77 strikes, did not face a three-ball count against any batter until the bottom of the seventh inning and worked through three-ball counts only three times all evening.

The rare achievement was only the third nine-inning perfect game in the 104-year history of the Pacific Coast League – and the second by a member of the Nashville Sounds.

Tacoma's John Halama threw the first PCL perfect game on July 8, 2001 before the Sounds' John Wasdin duplicated the feat on April 7, 2003 at Greer Stadium.

It was the sixth no-hit effort by a Sounds hurler (second perfect game) and 11th overall no-hitter in a game involving the Sounds in the club's 30-year history.

24-INNING GAME

The Nashville Sounds were on the short end of a 5-4 loss to the New Orleans Zephyrs as the teams participated in a Pacific Coast League record-tying 24-inning marathon on May 5th & 6th, 2006 at Greer Stadium.

The 24-inning contest, which finished with a game time of eight hours and seven minutes, was the longest in both teams' histories and matched the existing PCL mark originally set on June 8, 1909 in a game between San Francisco and Oakland then equaled on September 10, 1911 in a game between Sacramento and Portland.

Zephyrs catcher Wiki Gonzalez provided the game-winner when he drove in pitcher-turned-rightfielder Chris Schroder with a one-out RBI single up the middle off Mike Meyers that glanced off the glove of Sounds second baseman Jermaine Clark. Schroder had drawn a one-out walk and moved to second on a Josh Labandeira single.

The game-deciding run was the first scored by either team in 15 innings as both teams remained scoreless from the 10th through the 23rd frames. The Sounds and Z's completed the final six innings of the contest on Saturday, May 6th after playing to a 4-4 tie through 18 innings the previous night before the game was halted due to a curfew rule.

The Sounds got on the board only two pitches into the game with a leadoff homer courtesy of Dave Krynzal. The Sounds' one run would not be enough as the teams would exchange the lead four times throughout the game. The first exchange would occur in the top of the third inning. The Zephyrs scored two unearned runs off two singles and an error by Sounds shortstop Chris Barnwell.

Barnwell bounced right back with a leadoff double in the bottom of the fourth and later scored from third on a squeeze bunt by pitcher Dennis Sarfate.

Nashville added another run in the seventh on a Brent Abernathy RBI single to extend the lead to 3-1.

The visitors came back with one run in the eighth when Tyrell Godwin was hit by an Allan Simpson pitch with the bases loaded to force home Brendan Harris.

With the Zephyrs down to their final strike in the top of the ninth, Henry Mateo scored from second on a two-out, two-strike single into left field by Harris off Simpson to tie the game up at four runs apiece.

Neither team would strike again until the top of the 24th inning

William Henry “Skeeter” Barnes III ranks as one of the all-time fan favorites at Greer Stadium and currently stands as the Nashville Sounds career leader in hits (517), doubles (94), at-bats (1,898), and games played (514).

He played two stints with the Sounds, in 1979 (AA-Reds) and again from 1988-90 (AAA-Reds) and ranks among the top three in every major offensive category on the Nashville career leaderboard.

Barnes enjoyed success during both stints as a member of the Sounds. He was a member of Nashville’s first Southern League championship-winning squad in 1979, pacing the club with 145 games played in his second year as a pro.

He excelled at the plate in his second go-around in Music City, pacing the Triple-A American Association with 39 doubles in 1989 to earn a spot on the league’s postseason All-Star team and led the circuit with 156 hits in 1990, a year in which he also ranked among the league leaders with 83 runs scored and 34 stolen bases in helping guide the Sounds to a berth in the American Association championship series (Nashville lost to Omaha, 3-2).

The 16-year veteran spent time in the Cincinnati, Montreal, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, and Detroit organizations during his pro career after being selected by the Reds in the first round (16th overall selection) of the June 1978 draft.

Barnes spent parts of nine major league seasons with the Reds, Expos, Cardinals, and Tigers and accumulated a .259 average over 353 ML games. It was Skeeter’s versatility as a utility player that earned him a spot in the big leagues. Barnes played seven different positions at the major-league level, a feat that most cannot list on their resume.

Additional highlights of Barnes’ major- and minor-league career include:

- Hit a career-high .368 for the rookie-level Billings Mustangs during his first pro season in 1978 ... and lost the Pioneer League batting race by nearly 100 points to teammate Eddie Milner, whose .462 mark still stands as an unsurpassed standard in any minor league season of 200 or more at-bats.
- Selected as team MVP and Eastern League All-Star in 1982 after a full year with Waterbury (AA-Reds).
- Initiated a triple play for Detroit on July 3, 1992, catching an attempted squeeze bunt by Seattle’s Omar Vizquel, tagging Dave Valle and throwing to first baseman Cecil Fielder to force out Harold Reynolds in the fifth inning.

Skeeter Barnes’ #00 was retired by the Nashville Sounds in the early 1990s.

RETIRED NUMBERS

TIM DILLARD 2007-2014, 2019

17

Timothy Charles Dillard will go down as one of the all-time greats in Nashville Sounds history. The former right-hander is the career leader in wins (48), innings pitched (710.0), games (242) and strikeouts (437).

He played in parts of nine seasons from 2007-14 (Milwaukee Brewers) and 2019 (Texas Rangers) and ranks among franchise leaders in nearly every major pitching category.

Dillard made his Triple-A debut with the Sounds in 2007, being rated as Milwaukee's 15th-best prospect by Baseball America entering the season. His first win in Triple-A came on May 14 at Salt Lake, pitching all nine innings in a 4-3 triumph. He helped lead Nashville to an appearance in the Pacific Coast League American Conference Finals vs. New Orleans.

In 2008, Dillard switched into a bullpen role for the first time in his professional career. He made 23 scoreless appearances for the Sounds and posted a 1.99 ERA (63.1 IP/14 ER) in 37 outings. Dillard also made his Major League debut in 2008, tossing a scoreless frame for the Brewers on May 23 at Washington.

Dillard's first breakout year with Nashville came in 2009 when he led the team with 11 wins (1st in PCL) and 147.2 innings pitched. He was tabbed as the PCL Pitcher of the Week from July 20-26 (8.0 IP, 1 H, 0 ER) after retiring 22-consecutive Memphis batters on July 22.

Switching to a sidearm delivery in 2010, Dillard set a new Sounds single-season record with 16 hit batters (shattering the previous high of 11). Despite this infamous mark, he allowed just five runs in final 29.0 innings over his last four starts of the campaign.

Dillard continued to bounce between Nashville and Milwaukee in 2011 and 2012. He picked up his first Major League win on June 5, 2011 at Florida after retiring the final five batters of the contest.

Despite beginning the next two seasons in the independent Atlantic League, Dillard found his way back to Greer Stadium in 2013 and 2014. A rarity in professional baseball, Dillard found his home in Middle Tennessee after playing with Nashville in eight consecutive seasons.

As affiliations changed, Dillard stayed in the Brewers system from 2015-18 and pitched for Triple-A Colorado Springs. Following a four season hiatus, Dillard returned to the Sounds in 2019 after signing with the Texas Rangers in the prior offseason. He proceeded to lead the Sounds with nine wins and the PCL with 153.1 innings. The then 36-year-old ended his Nashville Sounds career on a high note, earning the win while striking out nine over 7.0 innings on September 1, 2019 vs. San Antonio.

On the same night as his bobblehead giveaway, Tim Dillard's #17 was retired in an on-field ceremony on July 29, 2022.

Donald Arthur Mattingly played just one season in Nashville but made quite an impression on Music City while manning first base for the New York Yankees' Double-A affiliate in 1981.

Mattingly batted .316 (173-for-547) with seven homers and 98 RBIs in 141 games with the Sounds that season. He led the team in games played, hits, doubles (35) and RBIs; his 35 doubles were also the tops in the Southern League that year.

He also ranked among team leaders in hitting (2nd), at-bats (2nd), runs scored (4th-74), homers (T-4th), and walks (2nd-64). Mattingly only struck out an impressive 55 times in his 547 at-bats that year.

At the end of the year, he was named the Yankees' Minor League Player of the Year as well as to the TOPPS and Southern League All-Star teams.

"Donnie Baseball" established himself as one of the preeminent major-league stars of the 1980s. He hit for average and power, fielded his position at first base with brilliance and displayed a work ethic and charisma reminiscent of Yankee greats of the past.

He became an everyday major league player in 1984 and hit 23 homers en route to capturing the batting title on the last day of the season with a .343 average that edged teammate Dave Winfield's .340. In doing so, he became the first Yankee left-handed hitter to bat over .340 since Lou Gehrig hit .351 in 1937.

Mattingly established himself as a dominant hitter from 1984 through 1989. In each of those seasons, he hit over .300, collected more than 186 hits, and -- except for 1988 -- drove in 100 or more runs. During that period, no major league player had more RBIs than his 684, and only Wade Boggs (1,269) had more hits than Mattingly's 1,219. Mattingly displayed his power in 1985 when, batting third in the Yankee lineup, he amassed career highs of 35 home runs and a league-leading 145 RBIs en route to being named AL MVP (note: Willie McGee, another former Sound and Mattingly's teammate on the 1981 Nashville squad, captured the NL MVP award that year while playing for the St. Louis Cardinals).

In 1986, Mattingly set new Yankees marks for doubles (53) and hits (238) in a season, becoming the first Yankee since Lou Gehrig to log three consecutive 200-hit seasons. During the 1987 season, Mattingly set or tied five remarkable major league records. He hit six grand slams to set a new single-season mark (he had never hit one prior to 1987). He tied Dale Long's 1956 record by homering in eight consecutive games from July 8-18. His 10 homers during that period were a major league record for total homers in an eight-game streak, and his concurrent streak of 10 games with at least one extra-base hit broke Babe Ruth's 1921 AL record. The power streak ended on July 20, the night Mattingly tied the major league record of 22 putouts by a first baseman in a nine-inning game.

From 1985 through 1989, he won five consecutive Gold Glove awards at first base. Along with Chick Gandil (1916-1919) of the legendary Chicago "Black Sox," Mattingly (1984-1987) holds the record of leading AL first basemen in fielding percentage for four consecutive years. Upon his retirement in 1997, his .996 lifetime fielding percentage at first base tied him for the all-time lead. His extraordinary fielding skills allowed him to play second base and third base on a few occasions despite throwing left-handed.

Don Mattingly returned to Greer Stadium on August 12, 1999, when his #18 was retired by the Nashville in an on-field ceremony.
