

Italian Federation Man of the Year

Angelo Mantione

Angelo Mantione came to this country from Montedoro, Sicily to achieve The American Dream in 1964. In 1973 he became a U.S. Citizen, always being proud of his heritage and citizenship.

Angelo is married to wife Mary Ann and has 2 sons, Joe and Michael (wife Jenny) and 5 grandchildren (Gabriella, Angelo, Nicholas, Joseph, Andriana).

Angelo is a retiree as a laborer for the Buffalo Laborers Local 210 and retiree of The Catholic Diocese.

Since 1980 to present Angelo has been the owner/operator of Angelo's Italian Pastries. He has sold his cannoli, pastries, cookies at numerous venues throughout the area of which some are Allentown Art Festival, Buffalo Italian Festival, Canal Festival of the Tonawandas, Peach Festival, Erie County Fair.

Angelo has donated his cannoli to many fundraisers and during the pandemic, donated cannoli to the health care workers in hospitals across Erie County.

Angelo has won various awards for his business. Angelo is the owner/operator of Angelo's Grilled Panini and Ella's Funnel Cakes. Angelo is a member of the Erie County Agricultural Society.