SHOWING OUR TOBIAS: Tobias Myers will make his fourth start with Nashville and first after being optioned to Nashville on May 18th. He started his season on rehab with the Sounds before making six appearances (5 GS) with Milwaukee.

ROSARIO CALLS GAME: Eddie Rosario delivered the first walk-off win of the season for Nashville and their first since September 15, 2024, when Brewer Hicklen produced a RBI single in extra-innings to beat the Memphis Redbirds. The Sounds had seven walk-off wins last season including two before this date last year, and both in extra innings. The win for Nashville gave them their second win in extra innings, making the club 2-5. Only one of the previous six extra innings games before Thursday night had made it past the 10th, with the Sounds playing their only 11-inning game on April 4th on the road in Gwinnett.

BACK LIKE HE NEVER LEFT: Back in the lineup for the first time since last Friday night, Anthony Seigler wasted no-time getting back into the swing of things. He singled in his first trip to the plate to extend his hitting streak to 13 games and 19 straight on-base. His 13-game hitting streak is the second-longest active hitting streak in the International League behind Charlotte's Kyle Teel (18 G). Since starting his hitting streak on May 2, Seigler leads Triple-A in AVG, hitting .432 over his last 13 games and also leads the circuit with his .528 OPB. He ranks second in SLG (.773) and OPS (1.301) and his seven stolen bases are tied for the third-most in Triple-A over the span alongside Nashville's Raynel Delgado.

KHALE - GOOD FOR THE BOX SCORE: Nick Kahle posted a season-high three RBI and his first multi-hit game of the year after going 2-for-3 with a walk and run scored. It was his first multi-hit game since having a pair of hits on August 4, 2024, with Double-A Biloxi against Rocket City. After being held hitless through his first five games with Nashville this season, Kahle has a hit in four of his last five games. His last three-RBI game came on May 4, 2024, with Nashville at First Horizon Park against the Norfolk Tides. He now has 11 career three-RBI games and Thursday night was his second in Triple-A.

TWO KNOCK BOB: Bobby Dalbec was one of two Nashville players to have a multi-hit, multi-RBI game for the Sounds on Thursday night, joining Nick Kahle. Dalbec's 2-for-6 night is his second in nine games played with Nashville after signing with the Brewers on May 10th. He had six multi-hit games with Triple-A Charlotte earlier in the season, including four straight multi-hit performances against the Sounds from April 16-19 with Nashville visited the Knights earlier this season.

DID WE CATCH A FIVER IN THERE: The five-run bottom of the seventh innings was the sixth 5+ run inning the Sounds have put together on offense and their first since scoring five runs in the top of the third inning in game one of the doubleheader last Wednesday in Memphis. The Sounds scored a season-high six runs in the 1st inning on April 20th of the series finale against the Charlotte Knights. The five-run comeback win was the largest of the season for Nashville, who had previously not overcome more than a two-run deficit in any of their 18 losses so far in 2025. It is the largest comeback win for the Sounds since also overcoming five runs on June 7, 2024, vs. Louisville.

MR. 300: Jacob Misiorowski picked up his 300th career strikeout to start off his night in game two against the RailRiders. He finished with four total to get to 303 through his first 65 games as a professional and owns a 12.3 K/9 for his career. Since making his debut Misiorowski's 303 strikeouts rank third in the Brewers farm system behind Carlos Rodriguez (465) and Alexander Cornielle (370) but ranks 10th in the Brewers farm system in IP over the same span (222.2). Rodriguez (411.0 IP) and Cornielle (349.2) are 1-2 in IP for the Brewers since Misiorowski made his debut. Misiorowski leads all Triple-A in strikeouts with 63 on the season and owns the best ERA among qualified arms at 1.55 despite seeing it rise after his one earned run allowed on Wednesday.

ANOTHA ONE: Craig Yoho (12 G) and Tyler Jay (11 G) each extended their current stretch without allowing an earned run in game two of the doubleheader on Wednesday night. Yoho is one behind Durham's Joey Gerber for the longest active streak in the IL while Jay is tied with Charlotte's Dan Altavilla for the third-longest streak going. Yoho continues his domination over Triple-A hitters, having not allowed an earned run in 20 straight games with Nashville dating back to August 29, 2024. Jay collected his seventh hold of the year to lead all Triple-A pitchers.
