THINGS TO KNOW

JUMP TO INDEX

Cancellations/Inclement Weather Policy

The suite guest is responsible for food and beverage orders if the game is cancelled after the gates are open. If the game is cancelled before the gates open, the suite guest is not responsible for the hospitality order. If for some reason it becomes necessary to cancel your order, please contact Lauren Martin.

Suite Equipment

(Chafing dishes, bottle openers, etc.) provided are the property of the Greenville Drive. Any damage or loss of equipment by a guest will be charged to the guest. Your suite will be stocked with all your service needs. Plates, napkins, cutlery, cups, bottle openers, and the like will be stored in the cabinets in your suite. Any additional needs can be requested from your attendant.

Personalized Service

Greenville Drive Luxury Suites are staffed with attendants to ensure your satisfaction. It is their responsibility to service your needs, see that your orders are delivered correctly, and take any additional orders. On all suite transactions, an 18% service charge is assessed. This is not a gratuity. If you receive exceptional service from a member of your suite staff, you are welcome to leave gratuity.

Food Allergies & Special Requests

The Greenville Drive wants all guests to enjoy their time at the ballpark to the best of our ability. Our premium kitchen works with all food allergy restrictions passionately to provide your group the best service we can. Please notify Lauren Martin, Director of Hospitality, with any concerns and/or restrictions and we will take the appropriate procedures to accommodate.

Be A Team Player...Drink Responsibly!

The Greenville Drive reserves the right to discontinue the sales of alcoholic beverages without restrictions. Alcoholic beverages purchased at Fluor Field are for on premise consumption only. State law prohibits any alcoholic from entering or exiting the stadium. Anyone under the age of 21 is, by law, not permitted to consume or purchase alcoholic beverages. The Greenville Drive is dedicated to providing a quality experience that promotes enjoyment and safety for all.

Do Not Drink & Drive!
