

2022 Reading All-Stars Challenge

Presented by  MICHELIN

Dear Families,

Your child's ability to read is a critical predictor of educational and lifelong success. This Spring, the Greenville Drive and Michelin N.A. proudly present the 14th Annual Reading All-Stars Challenge. The Reading All-Stars Program is a reading incentive program for any Kindergarten – 8th grade student aimed at promoting reading and academic success across the Upstate.

HOW TO QUALIFY:

Entering your child in the Reading All-Stars reading challenge is EASY! To complete the program, Elementary Students must read 5 reading-level appropriate books in the 5-week time period. Complete the reading log provided by your teacher, and return it no later than March 4, 2022.

THE READING DATES:
Monday, January 31 – Friday, March 4

CELEBRATION GAME:

Each student who succeeds in reading the designated number of books will be honored at a Reading All-Star Celebration Game at Fluor Field.

Anderson, Laurens, Pickens & Spartanburg County Schools
Sunday, April 24 @ 3 PM

Greenville County Schools
Tuesday, May 3 @ 7 PM

Students completing the Reading All-Star reading challenge will receive a complimentary ticket voucher valid for his/her admission to the Celebration game at Fluor Field.

Thanks to our partners at Michelin N.A. each student attending the Celebration Game will receive:

- Reading All-Star merchandise
- A new book for their personal library
- Opportunity to participate in a special pre-game parade around the baseball field with Reedy Rip'it

Completed Reading Logs should be turned in to your teacher no later than March 4
