BELOIT BULLETPOINTS

COMING DOWN THE HOME STRETCH: The Beloit Snappers start their final series of the season in Eastlake, Ohio against the Lake County Captains. This is the Snappers first and only cross-division series. Beloit is coming off a 4-2 series win at home against the South Bend Cubs. The Snappers had a chance to win five of six games, but lost on Sunday 7-6 after giving up four runs in the top of the ninth when leading by three.

TONIGHT'S STARTER: Lefty Josh Simpson is slated to get his fifth professional start in tonight's game against the Captains. Simpson has pitched in 34 games across two minor league seasons, making 30 appearances out of the bullpen. The converted bullpen arm has pitched 38 1/3 innings this year with Beloit across 17 games with three starts. He has an 0-1 record and a 5.63 ERA. In those 38 1/3 innings, he's given up 34, walked 16, and struck out 49. Simpson's last start was tied for longest pro outing, going four innings against the South Bend Cubs with five hits, two walks, and four strikeouts. He allowed three runs, all earned.

VS Captains: The Beloit Snappers are playing the Lake County Captains for the first time since 2019. The Snappers went 0-2 in 2019 as the Class-A affiliate of the Oakland A's. They were beat 9-1 in game one and 1-0 in game two. The final game of the series was cancelled due to weather.

1-2-3 PUNCH: Beloit lead-off hitter Connor Scott has a hit in eight of his last ten games. Scott was hit by a pitch on his right wrist on Tuesday's game versus South Bend, but returned to the lineup on Sunday. Victor Victor Mesa has the Snappers' best batting average at .328. Snappers' typical third-hitter Troy Johnston is top ten in the High-A Central in batting average, on-base percentage, slugging percentage, on-base plus slugging, and RBIs.

MIAMI PROSPECTS: Top 30 Miami Marlins Prospects on Beloit: Eury Perez (6), Dax Fulton (9), and Connor Scott (23).

LISTEN LIVE: Jon Rawson, the play-by-play voice of the Beloit Snappers, will call 120 games on IronCountry.fm and the Big Radio App. The first and last game of every series can also be heard on Iron Country Radio (101.9 FM/1490 AM).

2021 Snappers Coaching Staff

Mike Jacobs - Manager

Jacobs enters his fourth season as a Minor League manager following a seven-year career in the Major Leagues as a first baseman. He managed the Batavia Muckdogs, then the Marlins Class-A Short Season affiliate in 2017 and 2018, and the Clinton LumberKings in the Midwest League in 2019. Under his tutelage, the LumberKings reached the Midwest League finals in 2019. He was set to manage the Jupiter Hammerheads, then the Marlins High-A affiliate in 2020 prior to the cancelation of the season.

As a player, Jacobs made his Major League debut with the New York Mets during the 2005 season, becoming the first recorded player in Major League history to hit four home runs in his first four career games. Following the season, he was traded to the Florida Marlins as the centerpiece of a trade package for All-Star slugger Carlos Delgado. Over the next three seasons with the Marlins, Jacobs hit 69 home runs and drove in 224 runs, including hitting 32 home runs during the 2008 season. He finished his MLB career following stops with Kansas City and Arizona and an additional season with the Mets with 100 career home runs and a .253/.313/.473 slash line.

Bruce Walton - Pitching Coach

Bruce Walton pitched four seasons at the Major League level from 1991 to 1994, appearing with Oakland, Montreal, and Colorado. In total, Walton played 11 seasons as a professional, including 10 in the Major and Minor Leagues and one with the then-independent St. Paul Saints.

Walton began his coaching career in 2002 as the bullpen coach for the Toronto Blue Jays, a position he held through 2009 before becoming the team's pitching coach from 2010-2012. Walton served as the Triple-A Iowa Cubs pitching coach in 2014 and joined the Miami Marlins organization in 2018, serving as pitching coach for the Jupiter Hammerheads in 2018 and the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp in 2019.

Matt Snyder - Hitting Coach

Matt Snyder will begin his professional coaching career in 2021 as the hitting coach for the Snappers. A 10th round selection in 2012 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees, Snyder played professionally from 2012-2019, reaching Triple-A as a first baseman. Snyder played in the Yankees organization for six seasons and finished his playing career with the New Orleans Baby Cakes, then the Marlins Triple-A affiliate in 2019. A three-time All-Star in the Minor Leagues, Snyder hit .278 and reached base at an impressive .360 clip across 245 games in his playing career.

Chris Briones - Defensive Coach

Chris Briones will serve as the defensive coach for the Snappers in 2021 after working as a catching coordinator with the Texas Rangers organization from 2012-2018. Prior to his coaching career, Briones played professionally from 1995-2003 including four seasons in the Minor Leagues in the Rangers and Padres farm systems and five seasons in independent baseball.
