SOMERSET PATRIOTS NOTES

- The Somerset Patriots were defeated 6-4 by the New Hampshire Fisher Cats in their second of six games in Manchester, New Hampshire on Thursday night.
 - The loss drops the Patriots to 2-3 on the season, signaling the first time in the Yankees' Double-A era of the franchise that they have been under the .500 mark.
 - In the game, Somerset stole a season-high four bases, including two by Ben Cowles and a double-steal by Elijah Dunham and Aaron Palensky.
- LHP Brock Selvidge (4.0 IP, 7 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 2 BB, 5 K) started in his Double-A debut and did not factor into a decision in the game.
- C Agustin Ramirez (1-for-4, 2 RBI, R, HR, BB, K) tied the game at 2-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning.
 - The homer marked Ramirez's Eastern League-leading fourth in five games to start the 2024 season.
 - Ramirez also leads the Eastern League with 10 RBIs, having collected RBIs in all five games this season.
 - Behind the plate, Ramirez went a perfect two-for-two throwing out baserunners trying to steal—his first two caught stealing of the season. Ramirez now shows a 40% caught stealing percentage, having thrown out two of five possible baserunners this season.
- CF Elijah Dunham (2-for-4, 2B) picked up his first two hits of the season, batting cleanup and starting the game in center field.
- 3B Ben Cowles (1-for-2, 2 BB, K, 2 SB) hit safely for a fifth straight game to open his 2024 season, reaching base three times.
 - Cowles now leads the Patriots with seven hits this season, batting .389 (7-for-18).
 - He becomes the first Patriot to register multiple stolen bases in a game this season.
- RHP Tanner Myatt (1.1 IP, 1H, 0 R, 0 BB, 2 K) extended his scoreless streak to 3.1 innings over his first two appearances of the season.
