JUMBO SHRIMP WELCOME LETTER

Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp Baseball Club Triple-A Affiliate of the Miami Marlins

Dear Crustacean Nation,

I hope you are as excited as both me and the rest of the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp staff for the 2023 season of Jumbo Shrimp Triple-A baseball presented by FIS. Throughout the winter, I have been looking forward to the signature moments and memories we create for families and fans of all ages every summer at 121 Financial Ballpark. We are so grateful you chose to attend today's game, and I wish to express my gratitude and thanks to you, the city of Jacksonville, Northeast Florida and Southeast Georgia, because without you, all these extraordinary moments, attendance records, awards and recognition across the country never would have happened. I can't wait for the incredible memories we will make together again this year.

Like always, it is our pledge to offer our fans the same great Affordable Family Fun that has marked Jumbo Shrimp baseball over the years. We have continued to expand our promotional schedule, with 25 postgame fireworks dates, 15 giveaways, six free Military Appreciation Nights, five Forever Vets Animal Hospital Canines and Crustaceans Dog Days (plus one Cat Day) and a number of other fun and memorable theme nights that provide entertainment to fans of all ages and backgrounds. We have also continued our tribute to the military on "Red Shirt Fridays," plus seats every game for our service men and women starting at just $7. Thirsty Thursdays are back, and again, kids will get to run the bases following each Sunday home game on Baptist Health Sunday Family FUNdays.

We are always striving to enhance our guest experience and safety at the ballpark. This year, we introduced new digital ticketing and food & beverage cashless systems to easily and securely buy, access and forward tickets and reduce wait times and improve each of our guests' experiences at 121 Financial Ballpark. Additionally, through privately funded ballpark improvements, we have created the Coors Light Tiki Terrace and Home Run Porch in left field and the Bold City Balcony on the Haskell Suite Level, added drink rails and swivel seats in the 121 Financial Crustacean Corner, remodeled all of the ballpark's suites and also extended the Wheelhouse Lounge on the Haskell Suite Level. Through it all, our base ticket prices – beginning with $5 tickets – remain the same, as does our commitment to our values: Affordable. Family. Fun.

On the field, we look forward to again watching Triple-A baseball in Jacksonville. The 2022 season saw 49 different players with major league experience suit up for the Jumbo Shrimp, including 40 who played both in the big leagues and with Jacksonville at some point last year. This season, we also expect to see several talented prospects on their way to the Miami Marlins play in Jacksonville and are pleased to welcome an excellent coaching staff in manager Daren Brown, pitching coach Jeremy Powell, hitting coach Greg Colbrunn, defensive coach Jose Ceballos, athletic trainer Sandy Krum, strength and conditioning coach Tim Rodmaker and video manager Victor Di Diego.

Thank you for attending today's game and for your support of the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp. Please don't hesitate to let me or any of our staff members know how your experience at 121 Financial Ballpark is going. Sit back, relax and enjoy Jumbo Shrimp baseball!

Warm wishes,

LEBLANC'S INTERNATIONAL MOVE FUELS HIS DREAM

BY: ETHAN SALZBERG

Perspective and approach are qualities in life that can lead to success no matter what phase you are in. Those traits could bring the out-of-reach dreams you may never think would be achievable a little closer. For a native of Canada, Charles Leblanc, his perspective and approach led him to not only a different country but also getting drafted and debuting in The Show.

Defying the odds could be a way to describe the Jumbo Shrimp infielder's journey but the Laval, QC, Canada prospect had his eye set on the diamond. Thanks to some family influence, he eschewed the country's native sport hockey from the jump.

"(With) my dad, growing up, I was pretty much born with an Expos hat on my head," said Leblanc. "He was just a baseball guy, baseball found me."

Born in the summer of 1996, Charles was a young eight-year-old on that September 29th, 2004 day when he watched the Montreal Expos play their final game in Olympic Stadium. After suffering a 9-1 loss in front of 31,000 fans to the then-Florida Marlins, little would Leblanc know that 17 years later, he would be a part of that organization that gave his team its final farewell.

"The last memory (about the Expos) I have is being at the game because I was at the last game," Leblanc said. "I was just asking, hey, if they win are we going to stay... you know just being a kid."

Since developing his passion for the game at such a young age, the youngster stayed with the sport and eventually had to make some sacrifices to achieve his dream. A native French speaker, when he moved away from his family to the United States, he had to overcome those barriers off the bat.

"It was just different, I first left home when I was 16 to go to Ohio to play travel ball," said Leblanc. "It was my first time being away from home in the first place, and on top of that, I was with 20-plus guys that only spoke English and I didn't speak a lick of it."

Being a teenager in a new school can be hard, let alone moving to a new country and having to learn a new language. However, Charles did what it would take to live up to the Leblanc name.

"I got thrown around the fire and I made a couple of good friends that summer," Leblanc said. "I went to an English school to learn how to do the whole English school thing and it was tough. You don't want to get laughed at if you mess up, the grades weren't great, so you know the whole school side of things was a struggle.”

Leblanc attended Georges-Vanier High School but did not play baseball there. He was drafted in the 33rd round by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 2013 MLB Draft. Leblanc was one of just 16 players from Canada drafted in 2013 and was the youngest player to be chosen. He opted to not go pro and won a bronze medal with the Canadian National Team at the 18U Pan American Championship in Summer 2014.

Overcoming that adversity was something that made Charles stronger in the long run and led him to the University of Pittsburgh to play Division I college baseball. In a legendary career, he wound up becoming the first-ever Panther to earn First Team All-ACC honors.

“Eventually I got to college and settled in,” said Leblanc. “I had a great time in college, made my best friends there to this day. It was a lot of lows, but at the end of the day, a lot of highs.”

His aspiration to learn English and execute what needed to be done ultimately led to being drafted in the fourth round of the 2016 MLB Draft by the Texas Rangers.

After rising to the Triple-A level in the Rangers’ organization Leblanc was selected in the Minor League Phase of the Rule 5 draft by Miami. He got off to a scintillating start to the 2022 campaign with Jacksonville before making his major league debut on July 30, 2022 for the Marlins. He finished off the year in Miami batting .263/.320/.404/.724.

It was a successful first season with the Marlins, one in which he conquered several challenges.

Leblanc was the first Pittsburgh Panthers (top) player in program history to earn ACC First Team All-Conference honors. Leblanc has also represented Team Canada (below) on the national stage.

SWISHER
A FAMILY-OWNED COMPANY. EST. 1861

Jacksonville has been our homebase since 1924.

Swisher is an American, family-owned business that has proudly called Jacksonville home for almost 100 years. We're a part of this great community, proudly supporting those who make Jacksonville the best place to live, work and raise a family. We stand behind our hometown baseball team, the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp. Here's to a great season!

Proud sponsor of our Home Team
The Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp

Leblanc had a career year with the Jumbo Shrimp in 2022 which led to a call up with the Miami Marlins.

"I think just new faces and new environment," said Leblanc. "Everything kind of helped me grow as the player I want to be. I feel like it doesn't matter where you play, eventually, you kind of get marked as one kind of player. So going into a new organization, (where I) didn't know anybody and all that stuff, I was like, that tag is off my back now. (I can) just go there (and) play the best I can and make my mark with the Marlins."

After revamping his swing and getting adjusted, Leblanc was able to find his groove and player identity no matter where he played in the field.

"My idea of a ballplayer is to be a ballplayer," Leblanc said. "If skip needs you at second one night, well you gotta be able to play second. If our shortstop just went down and nobody else can play short, can you fill in? Yeah, I can, so just being a ballplayer, being able to play multiple positions, not being a liability out there is huge.

"What keeps you in the lineup at the end of the day is how well you can play both sides of the ball. So that's kind of what my focus is on, just trying to be the best ballplayer I can."

The purposeful, intentional, and reserved ballplayer uses his goal at hand to help shape the man he wants to be. The 27-year-old looks to get back down south to South Florida. He continues to make that little Expos fan's dreams come true.

My idea of a ballplayer is to be a ballplayer. If skip needs you at second one night, well you gotta be able to play second. If our shortstop just went down and nobody else can play short, can you fill in? Yeah, I can, so just being a ballplayer, being able to play multiple positions, not being a liability out there is huge.

JACKSONVILLE JUMBO SHRIMP

121 FINANCIAL

Bragan Field at 121 Financial Ballpark, which opened in 2003, is one of the premier Minor League ballparks in North America.

The ballpark was the first completed project of the Better Jacksonville Plan. Featuring an old-fashioned design, brick facade and a grass seating berm, 121 Financial Ballpark reminds fans of the days of yesteryear and preserves all of the wonderful tradition baseball has to offer. The vivid sight lines capture the action up-close while providing fans with comfortable seating and easy access to concessions and restrooms.

121 Financial Ballpark features 12 luxury skyboxes, four skydecks, HD videoboards in left field and along the outfield walls, and a one-of-a-kind Tiki Terrace at the left field corner.

The ballpark has hosted three Major League Baseball exhibitions (2006, 2010, 2015), four ACC Baseball Tournaments (2006-09) and two Southern League All-Star games (2003, 2013). The 2013 Southern League All-Star game boasted a league-record 9,373 fans in attendance.

In 2016, owner Ken Babby invested $1.8 million into the ballpark to add a new groups area directly behind the home bullpen, a Tiki Terrace near the left-field foul pole, renovations to all 12 private suites and expansion of the suite-level, third-floor lounge to give all fans a climate-controlled space to overlook the playing field.

Since 2007, 121 Financial Ballpark has hosted a game in the annual college baseball series between in-state rivals, Florida State and Florida. The annual installment brings capacity crowds to 121 Financial Ballpark for their storied rivalry.

The ballpark features nearly 6,000 stadium-style chairs and can accommodate more than 11,000 fans with berm and bleacher seating. Has 12 luxury skyboxes and four sky decks, each of which having private seating. Ballpark is also completely wheelchair accessible, including the dugouts, camera wells and playing field.

The total estimated cost is $34 million, paid for by Jacksonville residents as part of a tax approved in 2000 to fund the "Better Jacksonville Plan," an initiative to improve the city's infrastructure. The adjacent Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena was also funded through the plan and was completed in November 2003.

BASEBALL BASICS: HOW TO KEEP SCORE

DIFFERENT FANS have different methods of keeping a scorecard, and many use their own notations. But here's a simple method:

If the hitter grounds out to shortstop, for example, write in "6-3," which shows the shortstop threw him out at first base. If the hitter flies out to left field, write a "7."

If the batter gets a hit, write in the hit according to which base he reached. Each corner of the box represents a base, with the lower-right corner being first.

If he singles, put a "-" in the lower right. If he doubles, write a "=" in the upper right, and so on. For a walk, use "BB" in the lower right. As the runner advances, mark the appropriate symbol in the appropriate corner.

If a runner scores, put a circle at the bottom of the box, and inside the circle put the symbol of the play and/or the player that drove him in. For example, if the No. 5 hitter drives in two runs with a single, mark his single in the bottom right of his box and mark a circle with the number "5" in it in the boxes of the runners who score. (Some people like to use uniform numbers here, so you can tell who did what, even after lineup changes.)

At the end of each inning, total the hits and runs for that inning only. At the end of the game you'll be able to add the innings total to get the game score

① — 1st Inning

1. SINGLED, ADVANCED ON NEXT BATTER'S WALK, TOOK 3RD ON FIELDER'S CHOICE, SCORED ON NO. 4 BATTER'S DOUBLE
2. WALKED, LATER FORCED OUT, SHORTSTOP TO SECOND BASE
3. REACHED ON FIELDER'S CHOICE, ADVANCED TO 3RD ON NEXT BATTER'S DOUBLE, SCORED ON NO. 5 BATTER'S SINGLE

Clay Wilson (far right) is an accomplished volleyball coach in her time away from the Jumbo Shrimp.

JUMBO SHRIMP FRONT OFFICE ADMIN CLAY WILSON ALSO A STAR ON THE VOLLEYBALL COURT

Front office staff member named to AVCA Thirty Under 30 Club

By: Lainey Rendelman

When guests come to the Jumbo Shrimp front office, they are greeted by Clay Wilson at the front desk. They know she possesses a big smile, kindness and a desire to help. But what they do not know is that she is an elite volleyball coach.

Recently, Wilson was named to the AVCA Thirty Under 30 Club for her work at Starlings Coastal Georgia Volleyball Club. Clay is the director of the club and serves as both an assistant and head coach.

The 30 under 30 honor awards honor up-and-coming volleyball coaching talent at all levels of the sport.

It was early in Wilson's volleyball career as a middle hitter that she knew coaching was the path for her.

"My entire high school career was spent displaced (homeless) or in limbo with little stability," said Wilson. "My senior year around 17-18 years old, I was getting ready to play college volleyball (and) I wrote down a vision of what I wanted to do with my life. Very clearly, I wanted to own and operate a volleyball club that catered to underserved areas and people.

The reality is I wanted to cater to kids like myself, who needed a place besides home to call home. I have experienced firsthand how volleyball can change your life for the better and I want to provide that opportunity to others."

Clay has already begun achieving those goals, which she set out for herself all those years ago.

"I am currently a club director," Wilson said. "And in this capacity my biggest goal is to continue to work towards building a multi-use facility that supports my athletes both on the court and off."

Wilson previously in her career has worked at the collegiate level at both the head and assistant coach level. Wilson was the head coach at Florida Gateway College from 2021-2022 and served as the assistant coach at Coastal Georgia in 2022.

"If the opportunity come back up [to coach collegiately], I would love to get back into the arena," said Wilson. "It's a great challenge, but I am very happy with the development and working with the younger generation of volleyball players."

I have experienced firsthand how volleyball can change your life for the better and I want to provide that opportunity to others .

- Clay Wilson (right)

Wilson has been coaching club volleyball since 2019 and has hosted many developmental clinics for underserved communities. In addition, she has led fundraising efforts, raising over $10,000 to support many athletes in the volleyball club.

“This award means that what I am doing in the world of club volleyball is influential, impactful and I am on the right track,” said Wilson. “Additionally, I’m really grateful to the Jumbo Shrimp leadership team for being so supportive of what I do outside the office. Without their understanding, I would never be able to do the things I love to do outside of work, like coach.”

Clay graduated with a BA in Psychology from Dillard University in 2016 and has begun implementing physical and mental health programs to better support the needs of young developing athletes.

“Everything I do involves psychology,” Wilson said. “Volleyball is a mental sport, so if I am not able to support my athletes and their mind, then I am not going to be able to develop them physically. So that all plays a part in how I structure my practices and my programs. Psychology is the groundwork of our program; we have to take care of the athlete’s mind before we do anything else”

The relationship between coach and athlete is of the utmost importance for Clay. It’s why she was honored in the first place: it’s not about her, it’s about the athletes she teaches in more ways than just on the court.

“Coaching became so much more enjoyable for me when I made it a point to connect personally with my athletes,” said Wilson “Every day is a new day in the gym, it’s always something to improve on and I enjoy the most, the ability to get better at something.”

DAREN BROWN | MANAGER | SECOND SEASON

After eclipsing 1,300 career managerial wins during the 2022 season, Daren Brown returns as Jacksonville's manager for the second consecutive campaign.

In Brown's first year with Jacksonville in 2022, the Jumbo Shrimp finished with an 80-69 (.537) record, placing third in the International League East Division. After stellar performances throughout the season, the Jumbo Shrimp saw 12 players from their roster make their major league debuts. Brown also juggled a franchise-record 79 players, including Jacksonville highs for both pitchers (39) and starting pitchers (25).

A native of Holdenville, Okla., Brown holds a 1,340-1,325 (.503) record as a minor league manager. The 55-year-old is currently in his third stint as a Triple-A skipper. He piloted Triple-A Tacoma in the Seattle Mariners' organization from 2007-13 and again in 2019, tallying 494 victories, which marks the most wins for any manager in Rainiers franchise history. Brown led Tacoma to consecutive division titles in 2009 and 2010, and during that latter season, helped the Rainiers win the franchise's first outright Pacific Coast League Championship since 1969. Over this time period, Brown also earned a pair of call ups to the Mariners' coaching staff, including a stint as the club's interim manager for the final 50 games of the 2010 season.

After working as Seattle's baserunning coordinator in 2014 and bunting and baserunning coordinator in 2015, Brown steered Double-A Jackson to a 84-55 (.604) record and Southern League Championship in 2016. He skippered Double-A Arkansas during the 2017-18 seasons before returning to Tacoma for the 2019 campaign. In 2021, Brown managed the Kinsport Axmen, a summer collegiate baseball team in the Appalachian League.

The son of former major leaguer Paul Brown, who pitched for parts of four seasons with the Philadelphia Phillies from 1961-63 and 1968, Daren was selected in the 29th round of the 1989 draft out of Southeastern Oklahoma State University. He pitched for five seasons in Toronto's organization from 1989-93, reaching as high as Double-A Knoxville. From 1994-99, Daren served as a player-coach (1994-97) and player-manager (1998-99) for Amarillo of the independent Texas-Louisiana League. He retired as a player following the 1999 season, which saw Brown win the circuit's Manager of the Year and Amarillo take the league championship, and managed the Dillas for one more season.

JUMBO SHRIMP HOSTS SECOND PLAY BALL WEEKEND EVENT

Players, front office staff help grow the game of baseball, inspire play in Jacksonville's communities

By: Ethan Salzberg

For the second consecutive season, the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp hosted a free clinic for Major League Baseball's PLAY BALL initiative, which encourages participation in the sports of baseball and softball amongst all ages, with a special focus on youth. PLAY BALL events took place across 30 MLB teams, 120 MiLB teams and seven different continents.

The clinic, which took place at 121 Financial Ballpark on June 10, was an effort to spread the game of baseball and offer resources for kids who are underserved with a passion for the game.

Jumbo Shrimp players and front office staff provided hands-on skill development during three different sessions in which participants received free instruction on hitting, fielding and base running. At the conclusion of the clinic, the youngsters were gifted a Franklin bat and ball set.

"Not only giving back to the kids that are here but just being able to give back to the game," said infielder C.J. Hinojosa (pictured). "These guys come in and they enjoy the game for what it is. They don't take it too seriously, so they are here to have fun."

"It's great to give back and chances like this where you can come in hours before," right-handed pitcher Jake Walters said. "Just to see the looks on the kids' faces when they get to work with us and just trying to teach them the game the same way a lot of us started."

As Hinojosa and Walters reflected on their time in youth baseball, it inspired memories from the past that sparked previous goals, aspirations and wide-eyed enjoyment of interacting with professional ball players.

"It's a lot of fun for me, I mean I always have done it and I've always loved kids," said Hinojosa. "Now that my kids are at the age where they can come out here, I get to hang out with them, and I also get to give back."

With a constant theme of giving back and reflecting on their time as a youngster, the joy was displayed throughout the clinic.

"It's cool to look back and realize that I was exactly like these kids," said Walters. "To see how the roles are reversed now it is just important to make sure that you're giving back."
