GAME OF THE DAY: This matchup is the "Game of the Day" in Minor League Baseball and available to watch for free on not only the Bally Live app, but also on the MLB app, MLB.com/Pipeline, Padres.com, Dodgers.com, and MiLB.com.

ROSTER MOVES: Today the Padres promoted their No. 1 prospect, Jackson Merrill, to Double-A San Antonio, along with RHP Adam Mazur (No. 6), RHP Jairo Iriarte (No. 11), RHP Ryan Bergert (No. 24), and INF Marcos Castañon (FanGraphs No. 27).

LAST SERIES: Fort Wayne took 5 of 6 from West Michigan before the break, capped off by an exciting come-from-behind 11-inning win, 8-7, on Sunday.

FIRST PLACE: At 11-4, the TinCaps lead the Midwest League East Division second-half standings. They're 2 games ahead of Great Lakes (LAD), but since the Loons won the first half, they've already clinched a playoff spot. The next closest team is Dayton (CIN), which trails Fort Wayne by 3 games.

HOT CAPS: The TinCaps had a 6-game winning streak end Saturday... It was the team's first 6-game winning streak since June 2018... The 'Caps have won 10 of their last 13... and are 6-0-2 in their last 8 series... Since falling to 10-22, the TinCaps are 33-16 since May 14... The last time the TinCaps were 7 games above .500 in a half was July 2018, when the team also began the second half 11-4.

BETTER THAN THEIR RECORD: Based off their +47 run differential for the year, the TinCaps project to have a 45-36 record (2 games better than their actual mark).

POWER PERSPECTIVE: The TinCaps are 2nd in the MWL in home runs with 77. They're on pace to hit 125 homers in this 132-game season... The franchise record is 127, set in 2017... If the season was still 140 games long, this year's team would be on track for 133 homers... Meanwhile, TinCaps pitchers have allowed the fewest homers (40) out of 30 High-A teams.

STARTING PITCHING: TinCaps starters have the 2nd lowest ERA in the Midwest League (3.24). Fort Wayne relievers have a 4.67 ERA, 3rd highest.

FORT WAYNE FAITHFUL: The TinCaps have averaged 4,871 fans per game so far this year across 40 openings, including 7 sellouts (season high of 8,516 on the 4th of July, the 17th largest crowd in Parkview Field's history). Fort Wayne's average attendance ranks 4th out of 60 High-A and Single-A clubs, and is greater than 20 Double-A teams and 5 in Triple-A.

JACKSON MERRILL: MLB.com's highest-ranked prospect in the MWL (No. 11 on Top 100 list)... played in the Futures Game on Saturday... Since May 5, leading the league in average (.313). For the year, 2nd in R (50), 5th in H (78), 6th in TB (124), and 9th in AVG (.280)... 6th lowest K% (12%).

JAKOB MARSEE: Only player in the MWL to appear in all 81 games so far this year... Ranks 1st in runs (65), 2nd in walks (60; 17% BB%) and OBP (.393) and 3rd in SB (28)... 2nd best BB/K (0.98) and 4th lowest SwStr% (6%)... 10th in wRC+ (129).

NATHAN MARTORELLA: In the MWL, ranks 1st in RBIs (59), 2nd in HR (13), G (80) and R (50), 4th in TB (133), 5th in BB (48; 14% BB%) and OPS (.827), 6th in H (76) and wRC+ (135), 7th in SLG (.460) and 9th in BB/K (0.7) and XBH (29)... On pace to hit 21 homers in this 132-game season. Fort Wayne's franchise record for home runs in a season is 21, set by Fernando Tatis Jr. in 2017. Tatis played in 117 games as a TinCap before a promotion to Double-A San Antonio... The schedule was 140-games long through 2019... Martorella's current .827 OPS would rank 7th highest in franchise history for a season, and the best yet at the High-A level. The record is .956, set by Jaff Decker (2009), followed by Jason Hagerty (10, .917), Fernando Tatis Jr. (17, .910), Rymer Liriano (11, .882) and Will Venable (06, .865).

MARCOS CASTAÑON: Midwest League Player of the Week... In the MWL, ranks 1st in SLG (.491) and TB (142), 2nd in HR (13), RBIs (58), H (83) and XBH (33), 3rd in OPS (.843), 4th in 2B (20), 5th in AVG (.287) and 7th in G (77)... 5th in wRC+ (136).

More News, Notes & Season Storylines

NEW GUYS: Albert Fabian was leading the Single-A Cal League with 58 RBIs and 31 XBH... 2nd in 2B (18), 4th in HR (12) and 6th in SLG (.504)... Graham Pauley ranked 2nd in OBP (.422) and 3B (5), 3rd in H (71) and R (50), 6th in BB (40), 8th in TB (107), 9th in OPS (.887) and 10th in AVG (.309).

260 TO THE SHOW: Since Fort Wayne's franchise was established in 1993, there've been 214 alumni who've gone on to appear in the majors, including 55 so far this season. That list is headlined by All-Stars like Fernando Tatis Jr. (2017), Trea Turner (2014), and David Bednar (2016-17).

PACE OF PLAY: The average time for a 9-inning game at Parkview Field has been 2 hours and 37 minutes. The Midwest League average has been 2:32... The average in Fort Wayne last year was 2:34... In 2021, it was 3:14... Thursday's game was just 1 hour and 53 minutes.

MORE THAN BASEBALL: While the TinCaps were on their 12-game road trip, Parkview Field hosted "Bert Kreisler's Fully Loaded Comedy Festival" on June 23 and "Ripple: A Middle Waves Music Festival Hype Event" on June 24... the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Pops was Saturday night.

5,000,000 FANS: With a sellout crowd of 7,440 fans at Parkview Field on June 16, the TinCaps welcomed their 5 millionth fan since the ballpark opened in 2009.

FIRST HALF REVIEW: The TinCaps (32-34) finished 4th in the 6-team Midwest League East Division, which was won by the Dodgers-affiliated Great Lakes Loons (45-20)... Out of the 12 teams in the league, the Caps actually tied for the 3rd best run differential (+20)... Fort Wayne pitchers allowed the fewest home runs (34) out of all 30 High-A teams... The TinCaps began the season with an 0-5 record and were as many as 12 games below .500 through May 13 (10-22)... They ended the half going 22-12.

ROSTER MOVES: Through the first 69 games of the season, the TinCaps used a total of 40 players (16 position players and 24 pitchers). On June 27, the Padres promoted 7 players from the Single-A Lake Elsinore to Fort Wayne, including left-handed starting pitcher Robby Snelling (San Diego's top lefty pitching prospect).

NO-HITTER: On May 16 @ Dayton, Jairo Iriarte (6 innings), Alan Mundo (1.2 IP), and Adam Smith (1.1 IP) combined to no-hit the Dragons in a 6-0 victory. It was just the 3rd no-hitter in Fort Wayne's 30-year franchise history and the first in more than a decade... Center fielder Jakob Marsee, who made a spectacular diving catch as he sprinted in from center field for the first out in the bottom of the 9th inning, also caught the final out. While he had been aware of the no-hitter late in the game, in the moment, it evaded his mind and he tossed the ball to a teenage fan sitting in right-center field. After the game, the teen named Wyatt, offered to return the ball. The TinCaps invited Wyatt and his family and friends out to the game on May 21, as Marsee exchanged the momentous ball for one signed by Iriarte, Mundo, and Smith, plus a signed bat and an autographed copy of their historic lineup card.

HOME RUN HISTORY: The TinCaps set a franchise record by homering in 10 consecutive games from April 29-May 10. Dating back to the franchise's founding in 1993, Fort Wayne had never before homered in more than 8 consecutive games (that happened 3 times, and not since 1998, according to club records)... On June 29 at Lake County, the TinCaps hit 5 home runs – their most in a game since 2005. (The franchise record for homers in a game is 6, which last occurred in 2002.)

SHUTOUT STREAK: TinCaps pitchers threw 27 consecutive scoreless innings during their series against Lansing in May. The TinCaps' record for consecutive scoreless innings is 35 – set in July 2009. Along the way then, Fort Wayne pitched 3 consecutive shutouts. That year's team went on to win the Midwest League title... The TinCaps had last pitched consecutive shutouts July 3-4, 2018, against the Great Lakes Loons. The latter of those games was started by MacKenzie Gore, who's now a starter with the Washington Nationals.

BABY ON BOARD: Congrats to hitting coach Aaron Bray and his wife on the birth of their 3rd child, a girl, on June 13.

CAPS IN THE COMMUNITY: On June 14, TinCaps players and coaches volunteered with The Rescue Mission, a local non-profit organization that provides restorative care to those experiencing a homelessness crisis. One group served lunch at Life House downtown, while others went to Charis House, a shelter for women and children, to help beautify their grounds and playground, and another group went to Treasure House, a thrift store.

HAYDEN'S HOMECOMING: Dayton catcher Hayden Jones grew up in Fort Wayne and graduated from Carroll High School in 2018. Playing under coach Dave Ginder, was a 4-year letterwinner, 3-time all-state selection, and 2-time team captain. The Chargers won a sectional title his senior season, as he was also MVP of Indiana's North/South All-Star Game... Went to Mississippi State for a season and then spent 2 years at Illinois State before signing with the Reds in August 2021... His dad (Ken) was drafted by the Padres in 1995 and that year played in the Midwest League with the Clinton LumberKings... 260 TO A PRO: Jones is 1 of 11 guys from the Fort Wayne area currently playing professional baseball. The list also includes Blue Jays outfielder Kevin Kiermaier (Bishop Luers, 2008) and Tigers infielder Zach McKinstry (North Side, 2014), who last played here in 2018.

CELEBRATION OF WOMEN IN SPORTS: On June 3, in partnership with Fort Wayne Parks, the TinCaps unveiled 2 new monuments at Memorial Park (about 2 miles east of Parkview Field) to honor the Fort Wayne Daisies of the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League. The monuments feature the names of all 144 team members over the course of the squad's run from 1945-54. The Daisies won 3 regular season titles and reached the championship series 4 times. Former Daisies pitcher Dolly Vanderlip Ozburn was in attendance. She also pitched for the South Bend Blue Sox. Meanwhile, Jeneane DesCombes Lesko (pitcher/outfielder for Grand Rapids) and Mary Moore (second base for Springfield and Battle Creek) were also here. The women were honored on the field pregame. They also signed autographs and took photos with fans on the concourse during the night... Former Daisies bat girl Bobbie Snyder Hill said, "Play ball!" After the game, descendants of several former Daisies were recognized before the fireworks... The TinCaps wore Daisies replica jerseys that were auctioned off, with proceeds supporting projects to honor the Daisies' legacy.

KIDS CLUB CLINIC: Also on June 3, 8 TinCaps players (Colton Bender, Marcos Castañón, Keegan Collett, Justin Farmer, Jared Kollar, Carlos Luis, Jakob Marsee, and Kervin Pichardo) conducted a clinic for 55 members of the team's Kids Club. They held stations for hitting, pitching, fielding, and baserunning. The TinCaps Kids Club is free for children 12 and under.

LOU GEHRIG DAY: On June 2, 1925, Lou Gehrig became the starting first baseman for the Yankees. Exactly 16 years later, he passed away from complications of ALS disease, which then became known as "Lou Gehrig's disease." Today, Baseball raises awareness about this terrible disease and celebrates the fighting spirit that Gehrig continues to instill in ALS patients 82 years after his death. This cause hits close to home for the TinCaps. Kathy Winter, the wife of the team's longtime head groundskeeper, Keith Winter, was diagnosed with ALS in 2021. WANE 15, the local CBS affiliate, shared the Winters' story of faith, hope, and love in a feature last week... Lou Gehrig: The Last Memoir was published by Fort Wayne native and resident Alan Gaff in 2020. The book includes columns Gehrig wrote for The Oakland Tribune in 1927... Gehrig played in Fort Wayne twice in 1927 (a year when he won the AL MVP, leading the Yankees to a World Series title). On May 6 that year, the Yankees played an exhibition against the semi-pro Lincoln Lifers at League Park (present day Headwaters Park – approximately 1.5 miles northeast of Parkview Field). New York won, 5-3, in 10 innings as Babe Ruth broke a tie in the 10th with a two-run homer. Ruth and Gehrig returned in the fall as part of a barnstorming tour pitting the Bustin' Babes vs. the Larrupin' Lous.

PROSPECT PUBLICITY: Jackson Merrill is ranked as ESPN.com's No. 9 overall. Jairo Iriarte, Nathan Martorella, and Jakob Marsee were included on a list of top "risers."

YOUNG ARMS: The TinCaps have the youngest pitching staff in the Midwest League. Fort Wayne's pitchers on average are 22 years old (the average age for a pitcher in the MWL is 23). Starting pitcher Victor Lizarraga, who's 19 and won't turn 20 until Nov. 30, was the youngest player in the league to start the year. Now, Robby Snelling is the youngest on the squad.

CHAMPION MINDSET: The core of this year's team won the Single-A California League title last year with the Lake Elsinore Storm after going 77-55 in the regular season.

DAILY PROMOTIONS: Tuesdays are Family Feast Nights (US Foods) featuring $2 concession items... Wednesdays are Paws & Claws Nights (Law's Country Kennel) as fans can purchase a "paw pass" for pets and save on White Claw... Thirsty Thursdays (Rudy's) offer $2 domestic draft beers and other drink specials... Sundays feature a Postgame Autograph-signing session (Midwest Box Breaks).

2022 IN REVIEW: On the field, Fort Wayne posted a 50-80 record, worst in franchise history... Off the field, Team President Mike Nutter won Minor League Baseball's Executive of the Year Award... The TinCaps also earned the Midwest League's Visiting Clubhouse of the Year honor for hospitality... The team was a finalist for best Hispanic fan-engagement and the club's Fort Wayne Daisies Throwback Night was a finalist for best promotion.
