HIT THE ROAD JACK: After splitting 12 games in a two-week home stand, the FredNats head down the home stretch for the final road trip of the 2024 regular season. The team will now play 12 consecutive road games, starting with six at Segra Park in Columbia, S.C. for the first and only meeting of the season between the Freddie's and Fireflies, Carolina League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. Both teams are currently locked in a playoff race in their respective divisions in the 2nd half, with Fredericksburg leading the North division by 2.0 games heading into play today, and Columbia trailing Charleston by 3.0 games in the South. Tonight in the series opener, Travis Sykora makes the first of two scheduled starts this week against the Fireflies, looking to continue his recent dominance noted below.

ABOUT LAST WEEK: Fredericksburg split a second consecutive home series, coming from behind to win the Sunday game 11-9 over the Salem Red Sox to earn the split. Fredericksburg won the first two games of the series before dropping the next three, but erased a three-run deficit on Sunday to win a wild back and forth game by a score of 11-9. The Freddie's split both series of the home stand against Carolina and Salem and maintained a division lead heading into this two week road trip.

INSTANT IMPACT: Washington's top two 2024 draft picks - Seaver King and Caleb Lomavita - both just finished up their first full week of professional baseball with Fredericksburg last week. King had five hits in five games, including a triple, and drove in four runs on the week. Lomavita went 4-for-15 with an RBI in four games, and also stole a base and threw out three base runners from behind the plate. King was selected 10th overall out of Wake Forest, and Lomavita was taken 39th overall out of Cal.

EVEN MORE NEW FACES: After the arrival of Washington's top two 2024 draft picks to the FredNats last week, starting today, more members of the draft class are now FredNats. Washington's third-rounder Kevin Bazzell (C) out of Texas Tech is active today, along with seventh rounder Robert Cranz (RHP) from Oklahoma State and 11th rounder Merritt Beeker (LHP) from Ball State. Bazzell was named first team All-Big 12 in 2023 for the Red Raiders and second team in 2024. Cranz began his collegiate career at Wichita State before transferring to Oklahoma State in '24. Beeker began his collegiate career at East Carolina before transferring to Ball State (IN) where he was named the Mid-American Conference's Pitcher of the Year in 2024.

HE'S SOMETHING ELSE: Travis Sykora has proven to be one of the most dominant pitchers in the Carolina League since arriving in Fredericksburg on May 1. In seven starts since July 1, Sykora has allowed a total of six earned runs for an ERA of 1.65 in that time frame. He's got 54 strikeouts and 10 walks in those seven starts, and the FredNats have won six out of the seven games. The opponents are hitting .110 against him in that time frame, and .162 for the entire season. In MLB Pipeline's re-ranking of prospects, Sykora shot up the list to Washington's third overall prospect, and entered the Top 100 prospects in baseball as well. Sykora is also the first and only pitcher in the Carolina League this season to be named Pitcher of the Week in back-to-back weeks after he faced the minimum batters in 11 hitless innings across his previous two starts prior to last week.

NO-HITTER!: Last Friday, Travis Sykora, Angel Roman and Merrick Baldo combined to throw the first nine inning no-hitter in Fredericksburg Nationals history. It was the 32nd total no-hitter this year in Minor League Baseball, but only 20 of those have come in full-season ball. Of the 32 total no-no's this year in MiLB, only 16 of them have come in nine innings. It was the second no-hitter this year in the league.

THE SKIP IS BACK: The FredNats' leader from the last two seasons returns to the Managerial role for 2024. Jake Lowery is back for another year in the 'Burg. Lowery, 34, was selected by Cleveland in the fourth round of the 2011 Draft out of James Madison University, where he was given the Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top collegiate catcher. The Midlothian, Virginia native played in the Nationals organization from 2016 to 2019, including parts of two seasons with the Potomac Nationals. Lowery reached the Triple-A level in 2018 and transitioned to a managerial role in 2021 after nine seasons in the minor leagues. Lowery is the 28th manager in franchise history dating back to 1978. Lowery is 204-170 in his two-plus years as Manager in Fredericksburg, including the 2022 Carolina League playoffs.

THE STAFF: The majority of the 2023 coaching staff returns for 2024, with the lone exception being Hitting Coach Mike Habas. Pitching Coach Justin Lord, Development Coach Carmelo Jaime, Performance Analyst Josh Freligh, Strength & Conditioning Nathan Sier and Athletic Trainer Jake Meyer are all back from last year's staff. Lord, 44, will begin his fourth season coaching in the Washington organization. The Florida State alum pitched six seasons professionally before transitioning to coaching, spending time in the Baltimore organization prior to joining the Nationals. He was the Pitching Coach for the High-A Wilmington Blue Rocks in 2021 and the Double-A Harrisburg Senators in 2022 before coming to FXBG in 2023 and spending the last two seasons here.

Habas, 33, begins his first season in the Washington organization after spending the last four seasons coaching in the Milwaukee Brewers organization. He was the hitting coach for the ACL Brewers the last two seasons, and was an Assistant Coach for the independent Gary SouthShore RailCats and Head Coach at Prairie State Junior College prior to his time with Milwaukee. Jaime, 38, was Detroit's 24th round selection in the 2008 Draft out of Miami Dade College. The Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic native reached Double-A in his three-year minor league career, and has served as the first base coach and infield coach with the FredNats the past three seasons. Meyer is in his seventh year with the Nationals overall and second with the FredNats, he spent his first five years at the facility in West Palm Beach, FL. Sier is in his second year with FXBG after previous stops with ZSP Sports and Macomb Community College (MI). Freligh is also in his second year with the Nationals after previous stops with the Boston Red Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers.

TONIGHT'S START: Travis Sykora is making his 17th professional start this evening for Fredericksburg against the Columbia Fireflies. He was taken in the third round by Washington in the 2023, who gave him double-slot money to sign him away from a commitment to pitch at the University of Texas. That, along with some command issues that popped up during his senior year at Round Rock HS, caused him to fall from a first-round projection into the third.

QUICK CLIMBER: Sykora was promoted to the FredNats during the late April series against the Delmarva Shorebirds, but did not pitch. He also did not pitch last year after being drafted, but Washington felt he was ready to jump to full-season ball and will bypass the Florida Complex League entirely. Sykora's calling card is a big fastball that reached 101 MPH on the prep circuit, and will sit in the mid to upper 90's. He pairs the heater with a splitter and a tight slider, both in the mid 80's.

A BIG MENTOR: Sykora has been open about how much he looks up to fellow Texan Nolan Ryan. Travis sees similarities in their two deliveries, between a high leg kick and "elbows and knees flying everywhere," Sykora said in a MLB.com interview. He was able to meet Ryan this offseason.

ANOTHER LEVEL: Travis went supernova over a three-start stretch recently, covering 15 innings with just one unearned run, 28 K's and two walks.

LAST TIME OUT: Sykora proved he was still human in his last start. After not allowing a hit or run in his previous two starts, Salem managed to log four hits and two earned runs against Travis.
