

INDIANAPOLIS NEGRO LEAGUES CLOWNS JERSEY COLORING PAGE

The Indianapolis Clowns were a professional baseball team in the Negro American League.

The team originated in Miami in the 1930s before eventually relocating to Cincinnati and finally Indianapolis in 1944. The Clowns were the first professional baseball team to sign a female player to a long-term contract, doing so in 1953 when they signed Toni Stone, Mamie "Peanut" Johnson and Connie Morgan.

Riley Children's Health
Indiana University Health