NEWS AND NOTES

KNIGHT IN SHINING ARMOR: The Sounds took care of business over Charlotte during their 18 matchups during the 2025 season. Nashville won the season series 13-5, including a 8-4 record at First Horizon Park. The Sounds also own the head-to-head matchup all-time with a 54-30 record against the Knights and are 34-15 in the all-time series at First Horizon Park.

BALL TILL WE STALL: Right-hander Garrett Stallings is slated to make his second appearance (first start) of the 2026 season against the Knights. Stallings' season debut came in Sunday's series finale on the road in Norfolk where he allowed a run and a hit over 1.1 IP with a pair of strikeouts. In 10 career appearances against Charlotte, Stallings owns a 2-1 record with a save and a 3.46 ERA over 39.0 IP. He's racked up 37 strikeouts to just six walks when facing the Knights. The 2025 Nashville Sounds Pitcher of the Year made pitched in 30 games (15 GS) last season and went 5-3 with a 3.99 ERA.

5.2L POWER STROKE: Luis Lara continues to swing a big bat for Nashville. The 21-year-old Brewers no. 12-ranked prospect slugged his second home run of the season on Wednesday night. The 402-ft solo shot in the bottom of the second inning ties his total from the 2025 season in which he played 136 games for Double-A Biloxi. Lara produced a single-season career-high with four home runs in 110 games for High-A Wisconsin in 2024 and is now halfway to that mark through his first five Triple-A games. Lara went 129 games between his two home runs with the Shuckers a season ago. After his 3-for-4 night at the plate, Lara is hitting .400 through his first 20 at-bats of the season. He had eight 3+ hit games for Biloxi in 2025 and has 24 such games in his professional career.

DON'T STREZ: Peter Strzelecki tossed a clean sheet over his 1.2 IP in relief of Carlos Rodriguez. Strzelecki entered the game with the bases loaded and one out in the top of the fourth inning and induced a pair of groundouts to limit the damage. The right-hander posted seven scoreless appearances in his limited 18 games between Triple-A Indianapolis and Durham last year. Entering his appearance on Wednesday night, Strzelecki had allowed a .395 BAA with the bases loaded (17-for-43) and 37 RBI.

FITZ-MAGIC: After pitching two scoreless innings, LHP Brian Fitzpatrick has not allowed a run through his first two appearances of the season (3.0 IP). Fitzpatrick worked seven scoreless games during his 13-game stint with the Sounds to end the 2025 season. Six of the 14 earned runs he has allowed during his Triple-A tenure came in his Nashville debut on August 9 in 0.2 IP against the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp. Since then, Fitzpatrick has not allowed more than two runs in any of his 14 appearances.

PUT IT ALL ON BLACK: Tyler Black extended his hitting streak to four games with a single in the bottom of the eighth inning Wednesday night. His four-game streak is currently the best on the club in the early part of the season. Black hit safely in seven consecutive games to set his season-long during the 2025 season from August 21-30 and he had four different hitting streaks of 4+ games last season.

OH, WHAT A RELIEF: Right-hander Logan Henderson made just the second relief appearance of his professional career on Tuesday. The Brewers no. 7-rated prospect tossed 3.0 IP of relief as the second man out of the Nashville bullpen and allowed just one hit with a walk and tallied five strikeouts en route to his first win of the season. Henderson ended the 2025 season tied for the Nashville team lead with 10 wins despite making his final Sounds appearance on July 25. In his only other professional relief appearance, Henderson worked 4.0 IP where he allowed four hits and a run (HR) with five strikeouts.

BROCK AND ROLLIN: Brewers no. 22-rated prospect Brock Wilken picked up his first Triple-A hit with a RBI single in the bottom of the third inning Tuesday night. The former Wake Forest product went 0-for-8 in his first two games played on the road in Norfolk with five strikeouts and a walk. Wilken was tied for second in the Brewers farm system with 18 homers and also set his single-season career-high with 17 doubles in 79 games played for Double-A Biloxi in 2025. Wilken finished Tuesday night 1-for-2 with a pair of walks, his first Triple-A RBI, and a run scored.
