Shorebirds Rally for 90th Win

The Delmarva Shorebirds broke out the big bats late as they clubbed their way to their 90th with a 9-5 regular season-closing victory over the Kannapolis Intimidators on Monday afternoon at Arthur W. perdue Stadium.

With the win, the Shorebirds (42-27, 90-48) join extremely elite company. They become the first South Atlantic League team since the 2006 Augusta GreenJackets and just the 14th team in modern SAL history (sinc 1980) to reach the 90-win plateau.

With the game knotted at 4-4 in the bottom of the seventh the Shorebirds busted out in a big way. Shayne Fontana legged out an infield single to begin the frame and then Toby Welk then drew a walk to put two aboard. Doran Turchin followed by working a free pass to load the bases. Alexis Torres came up next and provided the punch as he socked a two-run single to left restoring the lead for the Shorebirds at 6-4.

Adam Hall followed by Beating out an infield single to second, and Turchin never stopped running from second, scoring to extend the lead to 7-4. Johnny Rizer continued the onslaught as he ripped an RBI single to right, sending Hall to third, with the score now 8-4 an errant throw back to the mound from catcher Gunnar Troutwine during the next plate appearance allowed Hall to scamper home from third to cap the five-run frame with Delmarva ahead 9-4?

Alex Destino socked a solo homer in the ninth for Kannapolis to make it 9-5, but it was far too little and too late for the Intimidators (36-34, 64-74, who played the final game under that identity before their impending name change over the offseason.

Matt Hammonds (5-2) picked up the win for the ShorebIrdS, firing to innings out of the bullpen and allowing three runs on three hits and a walk with three strikeouts.

Eight of the nine Shorebirds in the starting lineup collected at least one base hit. Hall capped off his marvelous campaign with his 45th multi-hit game, going 2-for-4 with a triple, RBI, run scored, a walk.

Adam Stauffer started for Delmarva and went three scoreless innings, allowing just to hits and two walks while striking out three in a no-decision.

Delmarva finishes the secon half tied with Hickory for the Northern Division title. The Crawdads claimed a tiebreaker in head-to-head matchups and will officially be listed as second half champions.

Can you Edit?

Editing is a very important aspect of writing an article for a newspaper or a magazine. The best articles are edited numerous times before they are finally formatted into the paper. Can you spot 10 mistakes in the sample article?
