Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

ABOUT THE HOPS...

The Hillsboro Hops are the Advanced-A affiliate of the Arizona Diamondbacks. They play their home games at Ron Tonkin Field in Hillsboro, OR, 20 minutes west of Portland. The franchise began in 2013 and traces its history back to the Yakima Bears, who played their games at Yakima County Stadium. Following a failed proposal to move to Vancouver, Washington, the team received an offer to move to Hillsboro, Oregon, in June 2012, with plans to start play in 2013. The city and team reached a deal, with city council approval on June 5, and approval by the league and the franchise on June 8. The city signed the agreement with the team on June 26, with approval by Major League Baseball coming in August. Groundbreaking for a new 4,500-seat stadium took place on September 21, and the team's name, Hillsboro Hops, was announced on October 16. The Hops replaced the Triple-A Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League, who relocated to Tucson at the end of the 2010 season. The Portland area went without minor league baseball in 2011 and 2012.

C'S RELEASE PRELIMINARY 2022 SCHEDULE

VANCOUVER, BC – The Vancouver Canadians have released the preliminary 2022 schedule. It features 66 home games at Nat Bailey Stadium as part of a 132-game season slate, headlined by Opening Day on April 19 and Canada Day on July 1. Major League Baseball has once again determined a format that features a “six on, one off” schedule with Mondays serving as the league-wide off day and two teams going head-to-head for six consecutive games Tuesday through Sunday. Promotions and first pitch times will be released in the coming weeks.

Canadians Baseball returns to Nat Bailey Stadium on Tuesday, April 19 for Opening Day. When the C’s take the field after returning from a two-week road trip to start the year, it will be the first time they have played in front of home fans since August 30, 2019, a span of 963 days. Vancouver welcomes the Eugene Emeralds (Giants) for that first series.

Each month from May through July has parts of three home series. Everett (Mariners), Tri City (Angels) and Spokane (Rockies) visit in May, Spokane (twice) and Eugene arrive in June while Spokane, Hillsboro (Diamondbacks) and Everett make a stop in Vancouver in July.

The C’s start August with a six-game set against the Dust Devils before hitting the road for two consecutive weeks then coming home to take on the Hops August 23-28. They’ll make a final visit to Spokane before returning to Ontario Street to wrap up the season against Eugene September 6-11.

All told, the Canadians will host Eugene three times and the other four teams in the league twice. When they are away, Vancouver will head to Hillsboro thrice, visit Avista Stadium in Spokane three times – though through a quirk in the schedule will only play 12 road games against the Indians due to a pair of three-game series to start year and after the MLB All-Star Break – and make two stops with the other three teams in the circuit.

PHIL CLARKE NAMED BACK-TO-BACK HIGH-A WEST PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Minor League Baseball announced Monday that Vancouver Canadians catcher Phil Clarke has been named the High-A West Player of the Week for September 7-12 after earning the distinction last week as well. He becomes the first player in the league to win the award in consecutive weeks this season.

Clarke built off his huge series a week ago with another eye-popping stat line this week. After rapping out 13 hits in five games against Everett, the former Vanderbilt Commodore used six hits – including two doubles and a pair of homers – to drive in 12 runs, scored four times and worked two walks.

The highlight of his week was an eight RBI game on September 9 against Spokane. That night, he started his line with a bases-clearing double to score three in the bottom of the first, clubbed a three-run bomb in the fifth and doubled home another two in the sixth to lead the Canadians to a 14-5 rout.

A native of Franklin, TN, Clarke carried an eight-game hitting streak – a personal high – into the series and has a hit in nine of his last 11 games played. His September numbers are video game-like; in 10 games, he's slashing .366/.429/.780/1.209 with five doubles, four home runs, nine runs scored, 17 RBI, three walks and 32 total bases across 41 at-bats.

Clarke has only improved amidst a remarkable rise in the second half. After injuring his thumb on July 2, he was out of action through July 14 when he entered play with a .195 batting average. After going hitless in his return to play and his average at .191, he started his meteoric ascent with three hits on July 15 and has since raised his mark to .250 as of September 12.

Clarke is a career .252 hitter in 120 games played over two professional seasons. He was a College World Series champion in 2019 with the Vandy Boys before Toronto took him in the ninth round of the draft that year
