LAST NIGHT: The Rocket City Trash Pandas clinched the series over the Tennessee Smokies with a 4-2 win Sunday evening at Smokies Stadium. The teams pounded out a combined 23 hits (13 for Rocket City), but each left 10 men on base. The Smokies scored the first run in the first on an RBI double from Chase Strumpf before the Trash Pandas came back with two in the second on RBI singles from Kevin Maitan and Jordyn Adams to take the lead. Rocket City added an unearned run in the fifth as Bryce Teodosio swiped third and saw the throw from Tennessee catcher Cam Belago sail into leftfield for an error, allowing Teodosio to score. The final run for the visitors came in the seventh on a Zach Humphreys RBI single. Tennessee final run occurred in the bottom-half on a RBI single from Jake Slaughter, and they loaded the bases with two out before reliever Kolton Ingram got Bryce Ball to pop to short to end the inning. From there, Ingram tossed a scoreless eighth, and closer Eric Torres retired the Smokies in the ninth for the win. Rocket City got two hits apiece from Humphreys, Adams, Maitan, Jose Gomez with the first three driving in runs. Humphreys also scored for the Trash Pandas while Gomez stole a base. Starter Adam Seminaris of the Trash Pandas got the win by allowing a run on six hits over 5.1 innings. Torres struck out one in a scoreless ninth for his ninth save of the season.

JOSE CAN YOU SEE: Quietly playing well for the Trash Pandas is utility infielder Jose Gomez. A longtime member of the Rockies organization, Gomez joined the Angels this past offseason to provide depth in the farm system. With an injury to Jeremiah Jackson keeping him on the bench for eight weeks, Gomez seized the opportunity, hitting .273 for the season with three homers and 20 RBI. He batted .320 for the month of May. In his last 38 games, he has gone 41-145 (.283) over that stretch. He had a big day in a doubleheader sweep over Chattanooga on 6/4 when he drove in five runs, including the two go-ahead runs in game two.

BY LIVAN'S EARLY STRIDES: Over his last 34 games, infielder Livan Soto is 72-232 (.310). He entered play on 4/20 with a .167 average, but now is batting .291 in light of his play. He is also tied for third in the League in hits with 78. He finally belted his first AA homerun after 193 plate appearances as a Trash Panda, ripping a three-run blast against Tennessee on 5/27. Soto joined the Angels before the 2018 season from the Braves as part of MLB's punishment to Atlanta for their illegal signings of international free agents. Known mostly for his glove, Soto is a career .237 hitter who is currently in his fifth professional season.

O'ER THE LAND OF THE K: A huge key to Rocket City's success has been the work of its bullpen. Specifically, co-closers Kolton Ingram and Eric Torres as well as setup man Luke Murphy have been especially tough. Ingram has posted a 0.95 ERA with five saves and 27 Ks in his last 19 innings of work with only three walks. Torres, meanwhile, has five saves and a 2-1 record in his last 14.1 innings with three hits allowed and 20 punchouts. Murphy leads the team with six wins and has not allowed a run in nine of his last 12 appearances. In fact, in 21 appearances this season he has not allowed a run in 16 of them.

AND THE HOME OF THE SAVE: The work of Ingram and Torres have provided the Trash Pandas with a nice two-headed monster at the end of games. Torres' nine saves are tied for tops in the Southern League with Ingram owning six more and sitting in a tie for fifth.

TONIGHT'S STARTING PITCHER: RHP Braden Olthoff will look to continue his good work after strong outing on 6/28 at Tennessee. Though he took the loss, Olthoff allowed two runs on three hits in seven-plus innings in a 2-0 defeat where the Trash Pandas were no-hit for the first time in franchise history. The Tulane product was drafted by the Angels in the ninth round of the 2021 Draft. He was 2-1 with a 1.38 ERA in seven starts and 39 innings pitched at Tri-City where he struck out 40 and held batters to a .163 average. Earned Second Team All-American Athletic Conference honors in 2021 with the Green Wave where he struck out 91 in 78.2 innings.

PROSPECT RANKINGS: The Trash Pandas' current roster features seven of the Angels' Top 30 prospects (according to MLB.com): Left-handed pitcher Ky Bush (No. 4), outfielder Jordyn Adams (No. 6), infielder Jeremiah Jackson (No. 7), right-handed pitcher Coleman Crow (No. 20), right-handed pitcher Mason Erla (No. 22), right-handed pitcher Luke Murphy (No. 26), and right-handed pitcher Brett Kerry (No. 28).

WHAT IS A TRASH PANDA?

The name was chosen in a name-the-team contest and is a reference to the area's association with the space industry and the determination and ingenuity of raccoons, aka trash pandas.

Trash Pandas, slang for raccoon, was included in the original 10 nominations following several Brandiose-led focus groups in Madison and Huntsville. The ballot descriptor read: Our community is known for engineering, and no creature in our galaxy is as smart, creative, determined and ingenious a problem solver - dedicated to the challenge at hand - as our local raccoons!

In July 2018, after the results from several focus groups in Madison and Huntsville, 10 names were selected, based on their uniqueness and how each name relates to the characteristics of the area: (Alphabetically) Army Ants, Comet Jockeys, GloWorms, Lunartics, Moon Possums, Puffy Head Bird Legs, Space Chimps, Space Sloths, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas. The focus groups were led by San Diego-based Brandiose, the Minor League Baseball industry's premiere branding partner.

Over the next few weeks, two rounds of online voting took place. The first round narrowed the list to Comet Jockeys, Moon Possums, Space Chimps, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas.

Trash Pandas won the final round with 44.75 percent of the vote to ThunderSharks 19.25 percent. Moon Possums was third (12.57 percent); Space Chimps fourth (12.05 percent); and Comet Jockeys fifth (11.38 percent).

By the way, Trash Pandas dominated both rounds.

More than 28,500 nominations and votes were recorded. According to Brandiose, this represented - by far - the largest community participation in a Name the Team contest in the history of Minor League Baseball.

The team name was announced in a local microbrewery in September 2018 with nearly 1,500 fans on hand. Trash Pandas was nominated by Matthew Higley of Lacey's Spring, Ala. He received two box seats for the first five seasons and will throw out the ceremonial first pitch at a Trash Pandas home game.

The regional identifier was also chosen by the community. Out of 13,559 votes cast, 67.4 percent chose Rocket City over North Alabama (18.09 percent) and Madison (14.51 percent).

NEW MiLB RULES FOR 2022

Press Release From Major League Baseball - March 14, 2022

Major League Baseball announced a variety of experimental playing rules that have been approved by the Competition Committee and the Playing Rules Committee for use during the 2022 Minor League season. Consistent with the preferences of fans, these rules are designed to improve the pace of play, create more action on the field, and reduce player injuries.

Many experimental rules were first tested on a limited basis in 2021. The use of the most promising rules has been expanded to additional levels of play, providing more players and fans with exposure to the rules and allowing the Competition Committee to better evaluate the impact of each on game play. Below is a summary of the experimental rules that will be tested during the 2022 Minor League season:

PITCH TIMER: On-field timers will be used at all full-season affiliates to enforce regulations designed to create a crisp pace of play, with batters required to be ready to hit and pitchers required to deliver the pitch within allotted periods of time. With runners on base, pitchers will have additional allotted time for each pitch but will risk automatic baserunner advancement if a third pick-off attempt or step-off within the same plate appearance is made without recording an out. These rules were used in tandem in the Low-A West and in the Arizona Fall League in 2021 and led to a significant improvement in pace of play and a reduction in average game time of more than 20 minutes.

LARGER BASES: The size of first, second and third base will be increased from 15 inches square to 18 inches square at all full-season affiliates to reduce player injuries. Bigger bases were used in 2021 at the Triple-A level and in the Arizona Fall League, and were associated with a decrease in the severity of base-related injuries. In addition, the reduction in distance between bases led to a modest increase in the rate of successful stolen base attempts.

DEFENSIVE POSITIONING: In Double-A, High-A and Low-A, the defensive team must have a minimum of four players on the infield, with at least two infielders completely on either side of second base. These restrictions on defensive positioning are intended to allow infielders to better showcase their athleticism, to increase batting average on balls in play, and to restore a more traditional set of aesthetics and outcomes on batted balls.

TRASH TALK

THE OLTHOFF FILE: RHP Braden Olthoff will make his fourth Double-A start (seventh appearance) in his 19th professional outing in the opener of this six-game set vs. Chattanooga. Olthoff is coming off his best start of the season, pitching into the eighth last Tuesday in Tennessee for his first quality start with Rocket City, but he took the loss as the Trash Pandas were no-hit by Tennessee. That came after a stint in the bullpen, when he and Mason Erla combined for consecutive shutouts on 6/9 vs. Mississippi and 6/15 vs. Montgomery before struggling on 6/22 at Birmingham. Olthoff walked six and gave up three runs in a start, losing on 6/1 at Chattanooga. In his Double-A debut, Olthoff struggled, walking three and hitting three, allowing four earned runs on one hit while getting just four outs before Rocket City rallied for a 7-6 win in Game 1 of a doubleheader on 5/27. Olthoff joined Rocket City on 5/23 after a dominant start to the 2022 season with High-A Tri-City. In seven starts for the Dust Devils, Olthoff gave up three or fewer runs each time and did not allow more than four hits in any start. He earned Northwest League Pitcher of the Month honors for April after going 1-0 with a 1.80 ERA in four starts. He scattered 12 hits over 20 innings that month while striking out 26 and holding opponents to a .171 average. In his final High-A start on 5/18 at Vancouver, he allowed three hits and walked one while striking out six over seven scoreless innings to earn his second win of the year. His first win came on 4/26 vs. Eugene, when he also threw seven scoreless innings, this time striking out eight and giving up two hits with no walks. At the time of his promotion to the Trash Pandas on 5/23, he ranked among the Northwest League leaders in innings pitched (1st, 39.0), ERA (2nd, 1.38), strikeouts (T-4th, 40), and wins (T-10th, 2).

VS. TENNESSEE: Olthoff will face the Lookouts for the second time in his career tonight. He made second Double-A start at AT&T Field against the Lookouts on 6/1 and suffered his first Double-A loss, giving up three earned runs and walking a career-high six Lookouts over 5.1 innings in a 6-2 defeat.

MORE NOTES

In his second pro outing, he recorded a season-high eight strikeouts over four innings at the ACL Rangers. Olthoff began the 2021 season as a Redshirt Junior at Tulane University and was selected by the Angels in the ninth round of the draft.

COLLEGE NOTES: Olthoff pitched two seasons for Tulane University (New Orleans, LA) from 2020-21, going 10-3 with a 2.87 ERA over 17 starts, striking out 138 over 106.2 innings with one shutout. In 2021, he earned Second Team All-American Athletic Conference honors after leading the team with six wins. His 91 strikeouts and 78.2 innings pitched ranked second on the team. He was masterful against eventual national champion Mississippi State on 2/26, working eight innings and striking out six to earn the win. In 2020, he was named to the Collegiate Baseball All-America Second Team and was named American Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Week in consecutive weeks and one of the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper National Athletes of the Week. He ranked second in the NCAA in wins with four, third in strikeouts with 47, sixth in WHIP at 0.54.

BEFORE HE RODE THE WAVE: Prior to joining Tulane in 2020, spent two seasons at Palomar College in California, appearing in 30 games with 13 starts. He went 6-1 with five saves and earned a First-Team All-Conference selection as a sophomore, allowing 19 runs on 41 hits with 75 strikeouts and 23 walks in 68 innings for a 2.51 ERA in 16 appearances (eight starts). As a freshman, he appeared in 14 games with five starts, posting a 4.10 ERA with 47 strikeouts and six walks in 37.1 innings.
