

INDIANAPOLIS NEGRO LEAGUES

INDIANAPOLIS ABCs COLORING PAGE

The Indianapolis ABCs (American Brewing Company) were a Negro League team that played both as an independent club and as a charter member of the first Negro National League (NNL). Oscar Charleston, Biz Mackey and Ben Taylor – all members of the National Baseball Hall of Fame – played for the ABCs in their respective careers.

Riley Children's Health
Indiana University Health