FIVE AWAY: Tuesday night's series opening win over the RailRiders places Sounds' manager Rick Sweet five wins shy from passing Buddy Bailey for the third-most managerial wins in Minor League history. Sweet owns a career record of 2,413-2,212 for his career and is the Sounds all-time winningest manager.

I'M THE MANN: Bruce Zimmermann was outstanding once again on Tuesday, tossing his third quality start of July with six scoreless innings against the red-hot RailRiders. It's the sixth time in his career with 3+ quality starts in a month with the last coming when he did it in June, 2019, while playing for Double-A Bowie in the Orioles system. Tuesday night was his 46th career quality start. He posted 12 quality starts each of his first two seasons as a pro. A big reason for the left-hander's success is his shutdown first innings. He has not allowed a run in the first inning since the last time he faced the RailRiders back on May 22. The Nashville pitching staff is one of the best in first inning ERA, holding a 3.74 ERA over 101.0 frames to rank No. 3 in the International League. Over his last 12.0 innings dating back to last week's start against Charlotte, Zimmermann has notched 11.0 scoreless frames.

FAR FAR AWAY: Jorge Alfaro rocketed a go-ahead solo home run in the top of the fifth on Tuesday for his 14th longball of the season, and first home run since his solo blast against the Memphis Redbirds on July 6. Through 13 games in July, Alfaro is hitting .340 (16-for-47) with seven multi-hit performances. After going homerless in June, Alfaro has three homers in July. His 14 home runs are the fifth-most he has had in a single season over his career. The Sounds have been very successful in games that Alfaro has homered in, sporting a 10-3 record after the catcher's solo shot against the RailRiders.

ROAD WARRIOR: Oliver Dunn is hitting .219 overall this season in his 74 games played with Nashville, but on the road, he's created a slash line of .245/.345/.515. The road success continued for Dunn on Tuesday night, going 1-for-2 with a walk. The 27-year-old's last road series was against the Durham Bulls, where he went 6-for-18 (.333) with three RBI and three walks. Over his last 12 road games, Dunn has recorded at least a hit in nine and reached base in 10. With the base hit he collected against the RailRiders on Tuesday, he extended his road on-base streak to seven games and road hitting streak to four.

DAZZLING: Daz Cameron currently holds the longest on-base streak on the Sounds roster, and he extended it to 13 games with a 2-for-4 performance on Tuesday against the RailRiders. July has been kind to the 28-year-old outfielder who is batting .377 with five homers and 13 RBI over 15 games. Cameron has been even better on the road for Nashville this year, notching a .447 batting average with four homers in nine games away from First Horizon Park. He also increased his road hitting streak to four games after leading off Tuesday night's game with a base hit. Tuesday night against the RailRiders was his eighth multi-hit game of July, and his 14th multi-hit game in 25 games with Nashville this year.

DOUBLE DELGADO: Raynel Delgado's lone hit of the game Tuesday against Scranton/Wilkes-Barre was his 15th double of the season. He tied Bobby Dalbec for the most doubles by a Nashville player this season. Delgado continues to swing a hot bat in July with his 26th hit of the month and seventh double. He's hitting .347 over 20 games in July. His 26 hits are tied for the sixth-most in the International League for the month and he leads the Sounds in both hits and doubles, and is T-3rd in XBH (8), and total bases (36). He ranks second on the team in AVG, only trailing Daz Cameron (.377) and third on the team in OPS (.868) behind Cameron (1.201) and Jared Oliva (.909).

BOB AND LEAVE: Bobby Dalbec carried the Nashville Sounds to a series victory with a walk-off homer against the Charlotte Knights on Sunday. It was the first walk-off home run for the Sounds since Christian Arroyo's bottom of the ninth heroics in a 2-1 win over Jacksonville on August 22, 2024. The two-run blast in the bottom of the 10th was Dalbec's 12th of the season with Nashville and the 200th of his professional career. Dalbec's last walk-off hit was back in 2023 for the Worcester Red Sox when he drove in the winning run against the Lehigh Valley IronPigs on May 20. Facing his former team, Dalbec feasted at the plate, going 8-for-24 (.333) with four home runs and seven RBI as he played in all six games of the series vs. Charlotte.

SO EXTRA: Nashville earned multiple walk-off wins in extra innings in the same series for the first time since June 30 & July 2, 2021 against Louisville. Nashville is up to three walk-off wins this year and improved to 4-5 in extras this season. Bobby Dalbec's walk-off home run was the second homer of the game for Nashville, who improve to 25-6 with 2+ in a game this season.
