SUPER FOOD: Nick Kahle continued his hot stretch at the plate with his first home run of the season, and his first career home run at First Horizon Park with a two-run blast to left field in the second inning on Saturday night. It was his first home run since hitting one on July 21, 2024, with Double-A Biloxi. His last Triple-A home run came on May 12, 2024, on the road in Durham. He made it consecutive multi-hit and multi-RBI games after finishing the night 2-for-4 with three RBI. He is hitting .500 (4-for-8) on the series with the home run, six RBI, two walks, two runs, and a strikeout. He has a hit in four of his last five games after not having a hit in his first five games of the season. Saturday night's home run was the 20th of his minor league career.

FOUR MORA THEM HITS: Freddy Zamora tied his career-high with his four-hit game on Saturday night and his first career four-hit game in Triple-A. When he got his third hit, it was his first of the year and first since August 15, 2024, when he had his second straight - and only other 3+ hit games in Triple-A while on the road in Durham. He set his career-high with four hits on August 14, 2021, while playing with Low-A Carolina in his first season. Since April 19th, Zamora is hitting .400 (24-for-60) with a home run, five doubles, 10 RBI, 12 runs, and carries a 1.004 OPS over a 19-game stretch.

STILL ON A HEATER: Anthony Seigler is the first Nashville player to have a 15-game hitting streak since Keston Huiru did it from August 11-31, 2023. Seigler owns the longest active hitting streak in the International League after Charlotte's Kyle Teel did not record a hit in their game on Saturday night. Since starting his streak on May 2nd, Seigler is hitting .404 (21-for-52) with three home runs, three doubles, 11 RBIs, 10 walks, and 10 runs scored. He ranks fourth among full-season minor leaguers with his 1.212 OPS, sixth in SLG (.712), and tied for sixth with his .500 OBP during the streak that has seen him reach base in a team-high 21 straight games. His OBP is tops in Triple-A during the span while his OPS and AVG are second-best; third in SLG.

TOP DOWN: For the first time this season all nine of the Nashville starters had a hit in the same game. Adam Hall was the last to record a hit but did so with his third triple of the year - second of the series - in the bottom of the seventh. He is tied with Anthony Seigler for the team-lead in triples. Nashville finished with 15 hits. It was their second-highest hit production of the year and fourth 14+ hit game of the season. The team set the season-high with 16 hits on April 20th in Charlotte.

OPEN STALL: Garrett Stallings worked a season-high 3.1 IP to start the game on the mound for his first start since July of last year. Over his three-plus innings he allowed just two hits and one earned run while striking out three RailRiders. His 3.1 IP was the most since pitching four innings of relief on September 10, 2024, vs. Memphis. Saturday night was his ninth overall appearance for the Sounds this year. He has six hitless appearances and three in which he has allowed exactly two hits. The RailRiders run the top of the fourth inning was just the second earned run he has allowed so far this season; good for a 1.38 ERA. It was the 70th start of his professional career after starting 60 of his first 77 professional games.

PITCH CITY MAGIC: Josh Maciejewski made his Sounds debut and collected the win in his first game after being added to the roster prior to Friday night's game. The left-hander and former Yankees pitcher made his first career appearance against his former organization. He worked 3.0 IP and allowed five hits, two runs (1 ER) and struck out one. He has worked 3.0 IP in consecutive relief appearances and the third time overall in 2025. Since the start of the 2019 season, Maciejewski pitched in 43 games with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre including 19 (12 GS) with the RailRiders in 2024. He made his Major League debut with the Yankees in 2024.

DON'T BE SO CRUEL, ELVIS: Without an earned run charged to Elvis Peguero in the top of the eighth inning on Saturday night, the right-hander has now worked six consecutive games with Nashville without allowing an earned run. It's tied for the second-longest active streak on the pitching staff along with Easton McGee.

BUNCH OF SELL OUTS: First Horizon Park had its first sellout of the 2025 season and 147th overall on Saturday night with an attendance of 10,388. It was the fourth-largest crowd of the International League season so far and sixth overall in Triple-A.
