RAZZLE DAZZLE: Daz Cameron swatted his team-leading 17th home run of the season to set his single-season career-high. Cameron bested the 16 home runs that he hit during the 2023 season while playing for Norfolk. In 2023 he hit his 16 home runs in 110 games played and reached 17 in just 51 games played for Nashville in 2025. Cameron got into a power run after returning to Nashville on July 10th on the road in Durham. Over his last 39 games since July 11, Cameron has hit 11 home runs with 31 RBI and 19 total XBH. Cameron began his Sounds tenure with a multi-HR game on April 11 vs. Memphis and hit six home runs through his first 11 games played with the Sounds after a early-season trade from the Orioles to the Brewers. After his three-hit night, Cameron has reached base safely in each of his last 11 games dating back to August 21 and has three home runs and nine RBI during the span.

FIVE OH: With two more stolen bases on Saturday night, Jared Oliva reached 50 stolen bases on the season. His 50 steals are tops in the International League and second most in Triple-A this season behind Esteury Ruiz (57). With 13 games remaining in the 2025 season, Oliva is 4 steals shy of getting to third all-time for steals in a single season in Nashville Sounds history. He's got 11 steals over his last 13 games played for Nashville, and if he were to match his production over the final 13 games, Oliva would match Otis Nixon for the second-most steals in a season. Nixon owns the two best stolen bases seasons in Nashville history, stealing a team-best 72 bases in 1981 and then 61 bases in 1982.

STAYING AT THE QUALITY INN: Right-hander Garrett Stallings pitched his second straight quality start and fifth overall of the season with 6.0 IP and two runs allowed in Nashville's 7-6 win over Norfolk on Saturday night. His five quality starts are tied for the most on the Nashville pitching staff along with Bruce Zimmermann and it was the 24th overall by Nashville starters this year. The Sounds are now 20-9 when their starter works 6+ IP.

EASTON AS 1,2,3: Easton McGee was great out of the bullpen once again for the Sounds on Friday night, striking out four over 2.2 scoreless innings. McGee lowered his Nashville ERA to 3.27 in his 29th appearance with the club this season. He currently has the longest streak on the team of innings and games without allowing an earned run. The right-hander sits at 15.1 consecutive scoreless frames and eight consecutive games without giving up an earned run. Over this span, McGee has allowed five hits, a run, five walks, and has 16 strikeouts. This includes two games with his highest strikeout totals of the season with a four punch out game on Friday against the Tides and a season-high five strikeout appearance on August 8 against the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp.

SEVEN BRICK ROAD: Freddy Zamora extended his on-base streak to seven games with a base hit and a walk on Friday against Norfolk. This streak for Zamora began with a 1-for-4 game on August 27 against the Charlotte Knights. Over this stretch of play, Zamora is 5-for-22 (.227) with five runs and seven walks. Zamora has reached base with a walk in seven of his last nine games. Nashville's shortstop has hit the ball better on the road this season, combining to go 2-for-8 this week while batting .270 overall during 40 away games. At First Horizon Park, Zamora is hitting .224 over 47 games. This year, he is up to a .347 on-base percentage to go along with 46 walks.

BALL MART: Ernesto Martinez Jr. saw his run of multi-hit games come to an end at five, but did manage to go 1-for-3 with a double and the lone Nashville run scored Thursday afternoon. He owns a six-game hitting streak, the longest on the team currently and has an extra-base hit in three straight games dating back to the series finale against Charlotte on Sunday.

SEE YA LATER: Despite allowing six hits over 3.2 innings, Chad Patrick managed to strike out seven of the 17 Tides batters he faced on Thursday. Since returning to Nashville from Milwaukee, Patrick has totaled 12 strikeouts over 9.2 innings of work and has collected 20 strikeouts over his last three starts with the Sounds, the most in a three-game span in Triple-A this year for Patrick. It is tied for the second most notable in a three-game stint overall this season, as the right-hander was able to earn 22 strikeouts over three starts with the Brewers from June 17-29. During that stretch he picked up a season-high nine strikeouts in an outing against the Pittsburgh Pirates on June 23.
