FROM THE CROWS NEST

Happy Opening Day.... The Bradenton Marauders begin their 17th season as a franchise and in the Florida State League. Bradenton looks to win their third title in franchise history, with the previous two coming in 2016 and 2021. In 2025, the team finished with a 60-69 overall record to place fifth out of six teams in the West Division. The Marauders completed both halves of the 2025 season under .500, finishing 30-36 in the first and 30-33 in the second. It was an improvement for Bradenton in the second, going from a fifth place finish in the first half to third place in the second. Bradenton has not gone over .500 since the 2023 season. Before tallying a 54-77 record in 2024, the Marauders finished 76-54 in '23 and 67-62 in '22. The '21 championship season was a 71-48 record. Overall, the Marauders scored 586 runs and allowed 612 in 2025.

The Young Bucs.... Bradenton enters the 2026 season with seven of the Pirates top 30 prospects, according to MLB.com. This includes five pitchers and two position players. RHP Seth Hernandez is the lone Marauders prospect that is listed inside of MLB.com's top 100 prospects in baseball (27). Hernandez was Pittsburgh's first round pick of 2025 and went No. 6 overall in the draft. Levi Sterling (16), Zander Mueth (26), Reinold Navarro (27), and Jeter Martinez (28) round out the prospect pitching group. Mueth and Sterling made appearances in the Pirates 2026 Spring Breakout game at LECOM Park against the Detroit Tigers. The two position players include third baseman Murf Gray (20) and catcher Edgleen Perez (23).

Welcome Back Gera.... The Marauders welcome a new manager for 2026, but not a new face. Gera Alvarez takes back the helm after managing Bradenton in 2017 and 2018. Alvarez combined for a total of 126 wins over those two seasons with the Marauders. Over the last four seasons, Alvarez has been the Latin American Field Coordinator for the Pirates organization. Alvarez brings with him a new crew compared to the 2026 season. The Marauders welcome new pitching coach, Matt Ford, and new hitting coach, Jonathan Prieto. Ryan Powers will work with Prieto this year as a second hitting coach. Jose Mendez takes the job as bench coach for the Marauders. Mendez managed the FCL Pirates in 2025.

On the Bump.... The Bradenton Marauders play their first doubleheader of the 2026 season on Saturday. Left-hander Reinold Navarro gets the ball for game one and right-hander Levi Sterling for game two. Both pitchers are listed as top 30 prospects for the Pittsburgh Pirates on MLB.com with Navarro at No. 27 and Sterling No. 16. Both pitchers saw time with Bradenton in 2025, as Navarro made six appearances and four starts while Sterling pitched a scoreless 2.1 frames with four strikeouts. Left-hander Patrick Corbin and right-hander Nolan Perry make stats against Navarro and Sterling.
