- NINTH INNING EXPLOSION: Saturday night had makings of a pitcher's duel at Pelicans Ballpark until the GreenJackets broke out for a huge ninth inning to run away with a series victory. Down 2-1 entering the ninth, Augusta put nine runs on the board with a hit-by-pitch, three bases-loaded walks, an RBI single by Stephen Paolini, with Kevin Kilpatrick supplying the grand finale with a grand slam. Kilpatrick's five RBIs paved the way for the GreenJackets to their fourth win of the week in five tries.
- KESHAWN HITTING MACHINE: Keshawn Ogans has done nothing but hit with the as he now has at least one hit in 14 of his 15 starts with Augusta and now possesses a nine-game hitting streak, one short from tying Brandol Mezquita and Geraldo Quintero for the longest hitting streak this season.
- FANTASTIC FLOYD: Francisco Floyd has collected RBIs in bunches for the GreenJackets with two more yesterday on his eighth inning single. Floyd has 19 RBIs in 29 games with Augusta where he's driven in 2 or more in 6 starts.
- LOVEIN' LIFE ON THE ROAD: The road has treated Augusta well in this month as they own a 14-3 record away from SRP Park in the month of August. The GreenJackets this season are 33-25 on the road.
- DE GRANDPRE'S DEBUT: Cedric De Grandpre gets the call as the starter in Sunday's finale as the 13th Round Pick from Chipola Junior College in Florida will be the third consecutive Braves' Draft pick to debut as the starter.
