Today's Game

The Fightin Phils are back home from a two-week road trip and continue a six-game series against the Akron RubberDucks, Double-A affiliate of the Cleveland Guardians. It is the fourth-of-six matchups between the teams this season, with all six at FirstEnergy Stadium. Akron won the 2024 season-series 8-4 and leads the 2025 series 2-1 over Reading.

Game 109 Recap

The Fightin Phils fell 9-8 to Akron on Thursday night in another back-and-forth affair. Reading struck first in the bottom of the second inning when Paul McIntosh launched a home run to make it 2-0. Akron responded with a run each in the third and fourth to tie the game up at two. Jonah Advincula singled in the third, stole second and third, then scored on a single from Kyle Dernerde. Jacob Cozart singled home Alfonsin Rosario then in the fourth to even up the score. Reading re-took the lead in the fifth when Aidan Miller doubled home Cade Fergus, but Akron responded with a home run from Joe Lampe in the sixth to tie it at three. In the bottom of the sixth, Paul McIntosh launched his second home run of the night to put Reading back in front, but Akron plated four runs to take a 7-4 lead in the seventh. Estibenzon Jimenez went 6.2 innings and allowed six runs (five earned), with four strikeouts; falling one-third of an inning from matching a career high. Reading did respond with two runs in the bottom of the seventh thanks to a Felix Reyes single and McIntosh's third hit and fourth RBI of the night. In the bottom of the eighth, Reading re-took the lead when Erick Brito hit his first home run with Reading this season to left field to make it 8-7. But, John McMillon and Andrew Baker combined to allow two runs in the top of the ninth to surrender the lead and the offense could not match in the bottom of the inning for Reading's second-straight loss. It was the first game Reading lost at home when leading after eight innings (previously 17-0).

Mashing McIntosh

Paul McIntosh collected his second two-homer game of the season on Wednesday night against Akron. McIntosh also hit two home runs on June 7 at Harrisburg, and it is the fourth two home run game of his career, and third in the last calendar year. After starting the month of August going 2-36 (.055) over nine games, McIntosh matched a season-high with three hits and set a new season-high with four RBI in Wednesday's game.

It's Miller Time

After going 0-for-5 on Wednesday night, Phillies No. 2 prospect Aidan Miller's 14-game on-base streak came to an end. Over the streak (7/26-8/12), Miller slashed .327/.441/.509 (.950 OPS); with 17 runs, seven doubles, one home run, six RBI and a perfect nine-for-nine in stolen bases. Included in that stretch was an Eastern League Player of the Week honor this past Monday after hitting .385 last week at New Hampshire. Miller enters play today with an Eastern League best, and Phillies organizational best, 46 stolen bases on the season. He is the first Fightin Phil to swipe 40+ bags in a season since Quintin Berry in 2009. If Miller is to reach 50 over the next 27 games, he would be the first Reading player to steal 50-or-more in a season since Jose Leiva swiped 50 in 1987.

Go Griff Go

Griff McGarry turned in a Double-A high 12 strikeouts on Wednesday night, falling just one short of his career-high of 13. It was the second-straight game McGarry had double-digit strikeouts, as he posted 11 on Aug. 7 at New Hampshire; meaning he has 23 over his last two starts (11.0 IP). The last time a Fightin Phils pitcher struck out 10+ batters in consecutive starts was Moises Chace on Aug. 24 and 31, of last season. McGarry's 12 strikeouts were the most in a single game by a R-Phil since Moises Chace sent down 13 Somerset Patriots on Aug. 31, 2024.

Ricketts Rolling

Caleb Ricketts matched a career-best with four base hits on Tuesday night. It was the fourth time in Ricketts' career he had four hits in a game, with the last coming on June 8 of this season, when he was rehabbing with Clearwater (A). He then homered for the second-straight night on Wednesday. Ricketts has been red-hot in August; over nine games, Ricketts is slashing .390/.405/.634 (1.039 OPS), with eight runs, four doubles, two home runs and eight RBI.

Swiper Yes Swiping

Since July 29, the Fightin Phils lead the Eastern League with 41 stolen bases, 14 ahead of second place over that stretch. On the season, Reading now ranks fourth in the league with 142 stolen bags, which comes after stealing 152 all of last season.

This Day in Baseballtown History

August 15, 2012: At Reading, the Phillies fall to Trenton, 6-5, but Darin Ruf homers for the 5th consecutive game and the 11th time in August, giving him 29 long balls for the season.

Ducks on the Pond

Akron has a 64-46 overall record and 21-21 mark in the second half, which is fourth in the Southwest Division. The RubberDucks took five-of-six games against Chesapeake at home last week, winning the first five and dropping the finale. After this week, Akron returns home and welcomes New Hampshire. Akron's roster features five of the Guardians Top 30 prospects: Angel Genao (3), Khal Stephen (7), Ralphy Velazquez (10), Alfonsin Rosario (13) and Jacob Cozart (18).

Akron Arm

Righty Yorman Gomez makes the start tonight for Akron. Over four appearances (three starts) against Akron, Gomez is 3-0, with a 0.93 ERA (2 ER, 19.1 IP). Last Saturday against Chesapeake, he allowed one run on two hits over six innings, with 10 strikeouts against Chesapeake. He began this season with Lake County (A+), going 8-0, with a 2.84 ERA over 17 games and six starts. Gomez split last season between Lynchburg (A) and Lake County, going 8-6, with a 3.98 ERA over 25 appearances. The 22-year old signed with Cleveland as an International Free Agent in 2019 out of Venezuela.
