THIS YEAR

About Last Week: The Loons took five of six from the Beloit Snappers (MIA) successfully winning their first series at Dow Diamond this season. It was the second consecutive series the Loons took 5-of-6 (WM the week prior). The Loons committed a league-low 2 errors while finishing with a league-best .990 FLD%. The Loons were also dominant on the mound comprising a team ERA of 1.80, which was only good for 4th best in the league. Jonny DeLuca led the offense going 6-for-21 with five runs scored, a home run and a triple.

In the Rear View: Since a 2-7 start to the season, the Loons have gone 13-5 led by their pitching staff which ranks 2nd in the Midwest League during that time with a 2.78 ERA. Great Lakes has recorded a league-high nine saves in 12 opportunities during this stretch as well.

Baseball is Like a Box of Chocolates: The Loons have lost a series 5-1 that they outscored their opponent in 30-26 and won a series 5-1 in which they were outscored 25-24.

Protected Pitchers: Loons starting pitchers have logged just 86.2 innings this year - the 9th fewest in MiLB. The Dodgers Low-A affiliate in Rancho Cucamonga have the fewest starter innings this year at 71.0. Double-A Tulsa has the 13th fewest with 91.1

League Ranks:
 Jonny DeLuca - T3rd HR (7), T5th TB (50)
 Eddys Leonard - T4th 2B (7)
 Jorbit Vivas - T6th BB (17)

Gone Streakin':
 Ryan January: T0-game OBS (.571 OBP, 9H, 10BB)

Long Time, No See: The Loons' Opening Day roster featured 31 players - 30 active, one on the injured list. Of those, 21 played at least one game with the Loons last season. Here are some other notes and notables for the initial squad:

- Seven players are 2021 Dodgers draftees
- 12 originate from outside the United States (6 Dominican Republic, 3 Venezuela, Colombia, Curacao, South Korea)
- Five players have spent time with an organization other than the Dodgers
- Five appear on the MLB.com and Baseball America list of top 30 Dodgers prospects (see below)

Chubb on Top: Austin Chubb returns to the dugout as the Loons' manager for a second season. Chubb is the first and only Great Lakes manager who was also a player, and is now just the third to manage more than one season in Midland.

LAST YEAR

Andy Pages: OF Andy Pages was named High-A Central Player of the Year and Prospect of the Year while completing the greatest single season in Loons franchise history.

Single-Season Franchise Ranks:
 1st - HRs (31), OPS (.933), HBP (19), wRC (106)
 2nd - Runs (96), RBI (88), OBP (.394), SLG (.539)

Going, Going, Gone! The Loons finished first in the HAC, third in MiLB (excluding Triple-A), and ninth overall with 187 home runs. Despite a shortened 2021 season, the Loons broke the franchise record for home runs in a single season previously held by the 2010 team with 127 (0.91/gm). Last years team averaged 1.55 HR per game. Andy Pages (31) and Ryan Ward (27) were the 1st set of Loons teammates to both hit 20+ HRs in the same season. Brandon Lewis also hit 20 HRs.

Protected Pitchers: Loons starting pitchers logged just 347.0 innings (~2.2/start). That was the fewest amount of innings from a starting rotation in all of Minor League Baseball. (next: Clearwater: 389.1).

Pour It On: On September 7th, the Loons scored 18 runs for just the third time in franchise history and the first time since the 2009 season.

No-Hitter: Clayton Beeter (2.0 IP), Bobby Miller (5.0), Jacob Cantleberry (1.0), and Cameron Gibbens (1.0) combined for the Loons' first no-hitter in franchise history in a 14-0 win over Lake County on July 23rd.

Feeling Grand: The Loons hit 6 grand slams. The previous season-high was 4 from the 2010 and 2019 teams. Leonel Valera connected on his 2nd and 3rd career Loons grand slams.

Back, Back, Back: On August 29, Eddys Leonard became the third player in franchise history to hit 3 home runs in the same game joining 2017 Loon Cody Thomas and 2019 Loon Niko Hulsizer.

Vargas Breaks Decade-Long Record: Miguel Vargas re-wrote the Loons' record book with the longest hitting streak in franchise history and professional baseball last year by registering a hit in 26 straight games from May 12-June 10. During that time, Vargas hit a HAC-best .372 (next closest: .333). He had 42 hits (26 1Bs, 9 2Bs, 1 3B, 6 HRs) and an OPS of 1.038 during the streak. Vargas was promoted to Double-A Tulsa June 16th.

Loons Coaching Staff

MANAGER

Austin Chubb

The Los Angeles Dodgers announced Austin Chubb will return as manager of the Great Lakes Loons in 2022. Last year, he became the Loons' ninth manager since the team's inaugural 2007 season, and this year becomes just the third to manage more than one season in Midland. In his first season at the helm of the Loons, Chubb led the team to a 63-57 record and amassed the best run differential in the High-A Central Eastern Division. Chubb is the only Loon to play for and now manage the club, with a brief stint as a player in 2015. Chubb, 32, enters his sixth season coaching in the Dodgers' organization. Los Angeles tabbed Chubb to manage the A-affiliate Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 2020, before the season was cancelled. Chubb proved himself as a promising manager when he led the Dodgers' former Rookie-Advanced affiliate Ogden Raptors to a franchise-best 54-22 record in 2019, earning the Pioneer League Manager of the Year. Prior to Ogden, Chubb spent two seasons managing the Dodgers' Dominican Summer League club from 2016-2018. Before joining the Dodgers as a player, Chubb's road to Midland began when he was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 21st round of the 2012 draft after a collegiate career at Florida Southern. In 2012, Chubb served as a catcher for the rookie-level Gulf Coast League Nationals before joining the Auburn Doubledays in the New York-Penn League. Chubb would finish his Nationals journey after a 2014 season for the now-defunct Hagerstown Suns. Los Angeles signed Chubb to a minor league contract before 2015. A 2015 minor-league season saw Chubb appear in three different Dodger-affiliate jerseys, including Great Lakes, Oklahoma City, and Rancho Cucamonga. A native of Lake Mary, Fla., the right-handed catcher spent the most time with the Quakes, helping Rancho Cucamonga secure the 2015 California League Championship. Entering the 2022 season, Chubb has logged over seven years as either a player or coach within the Dodgers organization.

PITCHING COACH

David Anderson

David Anderson continues his rise through the ranks of the Dodgers organization as the pitching coach for the Loons in 2022. Anderson, 27, joined the L.A. system as a development coach in 2020, and was assigned as the pitching coach for the organization's Arizona Complex League team last season. He led his staff to the fourth-lowest ERA in the ACL at 4.06, the third-most strikeouts (617 in 488.0 innings pitched), and the second-best walks and hits per innings pitched. Anderson, a 2015 graduate of Muhlenberg College, got his start in coaching at his alma mater, serving as pitching coach for the NCAA Division III school in Allentown, Pa., for two years immediately after his graduation. After that, he became a volunteer assistant for Cornell in 2017 before landing at Atlanta's Emory University, serving as the school's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. While in the college ranks, Anderson also got head coaching experience in summer collegiate ball as manager of the Watertown (N.Y.) Rapids of the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League in 2018, leading the team to a 26-21 record in its inaugural season. He then went on to manage the now-defunct Fayetteville (N.C.) SwampDogs of the Coastal Plain League in 2019. Anderson, a native of Syracuse, N.Y., tossed four seasons at Muhlenberg. As a junior in 2014, he posted a 3.14 ERA over 63.0 innings, all as a starter. He walked just seven batters that season while striking out 28. He served as team captain as a senior, and led the team that year in innings pitched and strikeouts. After college, Anderson tested the waters in independent baseball. He appeared 16 times for the Newburgh Newts of the North Country Baseball League, with a stellar 2.38 ERA and seven saves. He then threw to a 2.67 ERA with the Bridgeport Bluefish of the Atlantic League, an MLB Partner League.

HITTING COACH

Dylan Nasiatka

Dylan Nasiatka moves up to his third team in as many years in the Dodgers' organization, serving as the Loons' hitting coach in 2022. Nasiatka, 32, spent last year as the hitting coach of the Low-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes, where he led the team to a league-high 6.75 runs per game. His hitters also paced the league in doubles, home runs, total bases, slugging percentage and OPS. The Bakersfield, Calif., native joined the Dodgers system prior to the 2020 season, for which he was assigned to be the hitting coach for the Ogden Raptors. Nasiatka earned a bachelor's degree from Cal State Bakersfield in kinesiology & exercise science in 2014, and achieved his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania the next year. Before joining the Dodgers' organization, Nasiatka worked as an assistant coach at Bakersfield College, a two-year school in his hometown, for seven seasons. Nasiatka played collegiate ball for three different schools, starting at Bakersfield College before moving to Hofstra and eventually South Carolina-Beaufort. He was a versatile player, with reps at catcher and on the infield. Nasiatka set a Bakersfield College record with a .473 batting average as a redshirt sophomore in 2010, belting 17 doubles, two home runs, and driving in 33 runs in 41 games. He was named a Junior College All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association that season. In his lone season at Hofstra, he continued to rake, hitting .303 with 19 RBIs in 45 games, mostly as a designated hitter. He found more success at USCB, hitting .335 with 18 extra-base hits and 29 RBIs over 53 games.

BENCH COACH

Elian Herrera

Former Great Lake Loon and Los Angeles Dodger Elian Herrera returns to the Great Lakes Loons 2021 field staff in his second season as bench coach. Herrera, a four-year big leaguer, begins his fourth season as a coach within the Dodgers' organization. The second baseman played over 20 games with the Loons in a span of two separate seasons. Herrera was a member of the inaugural 2007 Great Lakes Loons, along with nine other future Major Leaguers. Herrera would return to the Loons for a portion of the start of the 2009 season. From 2012-2018, Herrera played in 324 games at the AAA level, holding a .310 batting average in nearly 1200 plate appearances. Herrera made his major league debut on May 15, 2012 at Dodger Stadium, in a game where Kirk Gibson managed the Arizona Diamondbacks vs Don Mattingly's Dodgers. Three other former Loons appeared in the 5-1 loss for the Dodgers: Javy Guerrero (RHP, '09), Dee Strange-Gordon (SS, '09), and Scott Van Slyke (OF, '07) Before joining the Loons staff last season, Herrera was the bench coach for the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 2019, helping lead the team to the playoffs after an 81-57 finish in the regular season, good for first in the South division of the California League.

ASSISTANT PITCHING COACH

Richael De Los Santos

Richard De Los Santos joins the Dodgers' organization for the first time as assistant pitching coach for the Loons in 2022. The 37-year-old had a nine-year minor league career as a right-handed pitcher, mostly in the Tampa Bay system. De Los Santos pitched in 36 games over three seasons for Triple-A Durham, racking up 99 strikeouts in 169 1-3 innings at MiLB's highest level. Over the course of his nine seasons in affiliated baseball, the Dominican Republic native struck out over 400 batters. De Los Santos played a portion of the 2005 season for the Southwest Michigan Devil Rays in Battle Creek, who would be purchased in 2006 by the Michigan Baseball Foundation and become the Loons in 2007.

This Year: On Opening Day roster. The Dodgers created a program designed just for him this offseason to help get his fastball velocity up. Formerly a pitcher that would sit around 92-93 now touches 97.

2021: Only logged 8.1 innings between the AZL and GL. GL: 7G, 7.1 IP, 4 ER, 12 K, 6 BB

Draft: Selected by the Dodgers in the 10th round (312th overall) of the 2021 draft signing for $2,500.

College: Spent four years at St. Mary's College (Gaels) in Moraga, CA. Served as the program's closer as a freshman, sophomore, and senior. Appeared in just three games as a junior before being sidelined due to injury. St. Mary's was also attended by Major Leaguers Corbin Burnes, Tony Gonsolin, and Patrick Wisdom.

High School: Attended Corona HS in Corona, CA. Was an explosive two-way player finishing with a .331 career batting average and a 1.41 career ERA.

This Year: On Opening Day roster.

Stuff: Slider first pitcher. SL, FB primarily to LHH and SL, SNK primarily to RHH. 4sFB is the biggest work in progress right now.

2021: Only logged four innings in his first year in pro ball (2 apps and 2 innings with each the AZL Dodgers and Loons).

College: Was committed to transfer to Florida in the fall of 2021 but committed to the Dodgers after being taken in the 13th round last summer. Started college career at Stetson University and transferred to Florida Southwestern State after just one season in 2019.

High School/Hometown/Personal: Attended Key West HS where he finished with 141 strikeouts in 97 innings eventually leading to being drafted by the Texas Rangers in the 27th round of the 2019 draft. There have been five Key West natives to reach the majors, most notably 17-year big leaguer Bronson Arroyo. Antonio has one older brother and two sisters and his uncle, Mark, was a professional tennis player winning three grand slams in doubles and appearing in five Olympic games for the Bahamas.

This Year: On Opening Day roster. After not recording an out and allowing six earned runs in his season debut, Malisheski has gone 9.1 innings without allowing a hit (1 ER).

2021: Exclusively pitched in Great Lakes finishing with a 5.79 ERA, 41 strikeouts, and 20 walks in 28.0 innings.

Grew Up: A Cleveland Indians fan who enjoyed watching Corey Kluber. His mother works for United Airlines and his father works in food delivery.

High School: Attended Wauconda High School (Bulldogs). Faced former West Michigan catcher Cooper Johnson in a regional game in HS. With scouts at the game watching Johnson, Malisheski started getting some pro interest.

This Year: On Opening Day roster. Had a multi-HR game on 4/12 at Peoria.

Valera Loons Career Franchise Ranks Entering 2022:

GP - 217 (3rd), ABs - 811 (2nd), Runs - 129 (1st), Hits - 189 (2nd), GP(SS) - 176 (1st), Grand Slams - 3 (1st)

Break the Bank: Part of the spending spree the Dodgers went on in the 2015 International signing period that saw them net Yadier Alvarez ($16M), Yusniel Diaz ($15.5M), Omar Estevez ($6M), Starling Heredia ($2.6M), Ronny Brito ($2M) and many more. The class in total cost the Dodgers $166.9M after bonuses, salaries, and overage tax. Valera signed for just $50,000.

Hometown: Barinas is in the NW part of Venezuela. There have only been three major leaguers ever born in Barinas, one of which is former Dodger Jose Peraza.
