THE SWEET LIFE: Rick Sweet enters this week's series against the Charlotte Knights sitting on 2,494 career wins after the second straight win Sunday night against the Space Cowboys. Sweet is now just three wins away from passing Bob Coleman for the second-most wins by a manager in Minor League Baseball history.

WICH COME TRUE: Brett Wichrowski will make his first career start against the Charlotte Knights Tuesday night and first start since June 16 on the road in Memphis. After coming off the injured list last week in Sugar Land, Wichrowski tossed 1.2 IP in relief, allowing two hits and four runs (1 ER) with a pair of strikeouts, two walks, and a hit batter.

COVERING OUR EXTRA BASES: Luis Matos ended the series in Sugar Land with a hit in each of the last two wins for Nashville after going 0-for-11 through his first three games played to start the series. His RBI triple in the third inning was his first three-bagger of the season and first since hitting a triple on August 21, 2025, with the San Francisco Giants against the San Diego Padres. Sunday's triple was just the seventh of his minor league career (492 games) and first since he recorded a triple in back-to-back games with Triple-A Sacramento on May 19-20, 2023, against the Reno Aces. Sunday was the eighth multi-RBI game for Matos in 50 games played with Nashville this season. He is tied with Luke Adams for the third-most multi-RBI games on Nashville's active roster. The pair trail Jefferson Quero (14) and Brock Wilken (13).

ON THE DL: Major League rehabber DL Hall made the second appearance of his rehab assignment with Nashville against Sugar Land and tossed two hitless, scoreless innings to earn the win on the mound. It was his first win since May 26, 2025, with Milwaukee against the Boston Red Sox. In three total rehab appearances between Nashville and High-A Wisconsin this season, the left-hander has allowed just two hits and a run over 4.2 IP with six strikeouts and three walks. Hall also earned a win during a two-game rehab assignment with Nashville last season on May 21 vs. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre.

CIRCLE THE WAGON: Cameron Wagoner has yet to surrender a run through his first three Triple-A appearances with the Sounds after tossing two scoreless innings in Sunday's win over Sugar Land. The right-hander has allowed just two hits through his first 4.1 IP and has four strikeouts to one walk. He has allowed just six runs total across 22 appearances (31.0 IP) between Nashville and Double-A Biloxi this season.

SUGAR RUSH: Brewers no. 16-rated prospect Luke Adams ended his week in Sugar Land hitting .421 (8-for-19) with two doubles, a RBI, four walks, and six runs scored in six games played after going 1-for-4 in Sunday's finale. Adams had a OBP of .542 for the six-game series and carried a 1.068 OPS.

END ON HIGH NOTE: Nashville improved to 12-6 in series finales this year with Sunday's win over the Space Cowboys. The Sounds have been excellent in the bookends of series with a 22-14 record combined to start and end series this year.

YOU COMPLETE ME: Left-hander Colton Gordon tossed a second complete game (6.0 IP, 8 H, 4 R, 3 ER, HR, 2 K, BB) over his last four starts and are the first two complete games of his minor league career. His second to last start with Sugar Land before being dealt to Milwaukee was a 5.0 IP complete game win on July 4 at Oklahoma City in a rain-shortened contest. The quality start was the 16th of his minor league career and fourth of the season after he worked three 6.0 IP scoreless quality starts for Sugar Land over a seven-start stretch between May 27-July 10. The 6.0 IP on Saturday night matches his season-high, and he got through his start on just 80 pitches. It is the first complete game for a Nashville pitcher since fellow lefty Robert Gasser worked 7.0 IP in game two of a DH against Jacksonville on June 7, 2023.
