Baseballtown Hall of Fame

CLASS OF 2018

RYAN HOWARD

Ryan Howard was inducted to the Reading Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018. Howard was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 5th round of 2001 MLB Amateur Draft out of Missouri State University.

Howard played for the Reading Fightin Phils in 2004 and made quite the impact over his 102 games with the team. During his run in Baseballtown, Howard hit .297 and ended with a total of 37 home runs, 102 RBI, 18 doubles and scored 73 runs. His home runs earned him the since-broken record for the most amount of home runs in a single season and held the record until 2012.

His impressive stats were not Howard's only legacy he left behind. During his time with the Fightin Phils he was named MVP, Post Season All-Star, and won both the MiLB Joe Bauman Home Run Award along with Rookie of the Year.

In September of 2004 Howard made his debut with the Philadelphia Phillies and would go on to play with them until 2016 as well as win the World Series with the Philadelphia Phillies in 2008. Throughout his time in the majors, Howard made a name for himself. He was named Rookie of the Year in 2005, a three-time National League All Star, National League MVP in 2006 and won the National League Slugger Award also in 2006.

Howard earned a spot as a top leader in multiple categories during his time in the majors including two-time National League Home Runs Leader (2006 & 2008), three-time National League RBI Leader (2006, 2008 & 2009) and the National League Total Bases Leader (2006). Lastly, Howard was one of the quickest players to reach both his 100th and 200th home runs. Howard ended his career hitting .258 with 382 home runs, 1194 RBI, and scored 848 runs.

TRENT FARQUHAR

#15 | 2B

Trent Farquhar is the second baseman for the Reading Fightin Phils. Farquhar was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies as a free agent in 2023 and previously played collegiate baseball for Michigan State University.

Farquhar started for Reading in all three games of the opening series when they took on the Portland Sea Dogs as well as for the exhibition game against the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. Farquhar has also started in the first away series for the Fightin Phils as they traveled to New Jersey and took on the Somerset Patriots prior to this week.

During Farquhar's professional season he split his time between Clearwater (A) and the Phillies' Florida Complex League. For the total of the 2023 season, Farquhar appeared in 16 games, scoring 14 runs, earning 8 hits that included four doubles and totaled five RBI.

For the 2024 season, Farquhar began with Clearwater and then returned to the complex league for a rehab assignment for a short time before being assigned to Jersey Shore BlueClaws. Towards the end of the 2024 season, Farquhar received his promotion to the Fightin Phils where he appeared in five games total for Reading before the season came to an end. Over those five games, Farquhar was able to gain eight hits, including one double, for the Fightin Phils.

Farquhar is off to a good start with Reading for the 2025 season as he has already made an appearance at bat 30 times, with six hits, 2 RBI and has six runs for the team. He put the Fightin Phils ahead in their first game on the road with his RBI single which got the team's first win of the season.

Farquhar spoke with the Oakland Press about how it felt when he first signed with the Philadelphia Phillies. "I was just filled with tears and relief that my dream had come true and was overwhelmed by happiness and shock. Quite honestly, I didn't know what just happened in the moment and has taken me a second to grasp what really went on in that moment."

AL PEDRIQUE

MANAGER

Al Pedrique returns to Reading after leading the R-Phils the last two seasons. Pedrique, 64, finished 59-78 with Reading in 2024, but his team boasted many accomplishments on the field. He oversaw a roster that had 71 players pass through Reading, with 17 receiving a call up to Triple-A Lehigh Valley during the season. Additionally, three players that played with Reading last season also made their major league debuts last season, which were Max Lazar, Seth Johnson and Sam Aldegheri (with Angels). Oliver Dunn (Milwaukee) and Tyler Phillips both played under Pedrique in 2023 and made their big league debuts during the 2024 season.

Through two seasons in Reading, Pedrique holds 118 wins, which ranks 15th all-time in R-Phils managerial history (26 total managers). Through two seasons with Reading, eight players who played under Pedrique went on to play in the big leagues following their time in Reading (Drew Ellis, Johan Rojas, Orion Kerkerling, Dunn, Phillips, Lazar, Johnson and Aldegheri). Pedrique will be the ninth manager in Reading history to manager at least three seasons and 2025 will mark the first time in Pedrique's managerial career he was with a singular team for three seasons or more.

"Getting back to Reading is always nice," Pedrique said. "My wife and I fell in love with the town and the stadium. The front office is awesome to work with. The fan support was outstanding and we are very happy and pleased to be back in Reading."

Prior to beginning his managerial career, Pedrique played professionally from 1978-1994 after signing with the New York Mets at 17-years old in 1978. His playing career included stops within the Mets, Pirates, Tigers, Athletics, Royals and Marlins organization. He made his Major League debut in 1987 with the Mets and spent parts of three seasons with New York, the Pittsburgh Pirates and Detroit Tigers in the Major Leagues. Pedrique spent a total of 17 seasons in the Minor Leagues before retiring from playing in 1994.

"Our goal is to win more games and bring a Championship to Reading," Pedrique added. "We're very excited to be back. We love everything about Reading. I know it's going to be a good year and I'm looking forward to being back soon."

BRYSON STOTT

Bryson Stott is showing just how much of an asset he is to the Philadelphia Phillies so far this season. Stott has come up big numerous times for the team, including his RBI single in the first game against the Los Angeles Dodgers which pushed the Phillies to victory and his single that started off the runs in their second game against the Braves.

Stott was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 1st Round as the 14th overall pick in 2019. Stott made his debut with the Fightin Phils in June of 2021. Stott went on to appear in 80 games for Reading where he hit .301, had 94 hits which included 22 doubles, 2 triples, 36 RBI and 10 home runs, as well as scoring 49 runs for the team.

Bryson Stott has made a start in every game for the Philadelphia Phillies since the start of the 2025 season. Stott is currently hitting .250 with 12 hits, including six RBI, and one home run, along with scoring in five runs. Good luck to former our R-Phils player this season in the big leagues!

At the Pennsylvania Cyber Charter School (simply known as PA Cyber), we are proud to offer students in grades K-12 an alternative to traditional education. Families look beyond their local school district for a wide range of reasons, and sometimes it's necessary to try a new school experience. After 24 years of perfecting online education and with a legacy of 21,000 graduates, PA Cyber has demonstrated that cyber school is not just a temporary solution but a long-term answer for many students.

As a public school, PA Cyber is open for enrollment to any school-age child residing in Pennsylvania and does not charge tuition. The statewide school has nine regional offices serving as hubs for enrollment, orientation, and year-round enrichment activities. With hundreds of field trips, two proms, and two graduation ceremonies, students can have a traditional school experience with the flexibility of a cyber school.

PA Cyber's state-certified teachers use a variety of strategies and curriculum choices to create an education program that is deeply personal. Students discover their strengths and interests by exploring diverse curriculum options, clubs, and workshops. PA Cyber meets the curriculum requirements of the Pennsylvania Department of Education and is accredited by the prestigious Middle States Association.

GRIFF MCGARRY

#48 | PITCHER

Griff McGarry made his 2025 debut as starting pitcher for the Reading Fightin Phils during the last game of the season opening series and it was one to remember. This marked McGarry's first start since August of 2023 after spending time with the Lehigh Valley IronPigs (AAA) solely as a reliever while preparing to return to Reading as a starter.

McGarry went on to total eight strikeouts over a perfect four innings in his game against the Portland Sea Dogs. This became the most strikeouts for McGarry since July of 2023 against the Altoona Curves. This past week, following the series, McGarry was named Eastern League Pitcher of the Week for his performance.

McGarry was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the fifth round of the 2021 draft out of Virginia. From there, he split his time during his first professional season with Clearwater (A) and the Jersey Shore BlueClaws (A+). In 2022 he was promoted to Reading where he posted a 2.20 ERA which ultimately led him to Lehigh by the end of the season. He finished out the year making eight appearances for the IronPigs as a relief pitcher.

In 2023, McGarry had to start out on the injured list and once finished, was assigned back here to Reading where he caught attention with his 3.13 ERA. Like the 2022 season, his achievements on the mound earned him another promotion to Lehigh towards the end of the 2023 season. McGarry spent the 2024 season with the IronPigs where he made 29 relief appearances with them. At the beginning of the 2025 season, McGarry was invited to join spring training where he had the chance to pitch during the Spring Breakout Game. Following spring training, McGarry was assigned to Reading and got back into the starting rotation by the end of the opening series.

The honor of Pitcher of the Week marks the first award this season for the Fightin Phils and the first time McGarry was named as one. While McGarry had some bumps in the road, his start to the season went as well as anyone could hope.

McGarry spoke with WEEU's Bob McCool during the Fightin Phils' annual media day where he spoke about how he hopes the season will go.

"I just want to get off on the right foot. Get off to a good start," said McGarry. "Things are a little different now coming back here with these amazing facilities so really excited to pitch here in front of the Reading Fightin Phils fans. Just really good to be back with a great group of guys."
