July 12: Flying Squirrels 5, RubberDucks 3: Cooper Ingle had two doubles including a two-run double in the second, but Richmond scored three in the fifth before going on to win 5-3.

Today's starting pitcher: Tommy Mace is making his 17th start of the season on Sunday. He is coming off a loss on Tuesday against Richmond allowing three runs over 4.2 innings while striking out three. He is 3-1 with a 3.48 ERA in four starts against Richmond this season and 4-2 with a 2.57 ERA in nine games against Richmond in his career. Mace is tied with Trenton Denholm and Erie's Garrett Burhenn for the Eastern League lead in wins this season. The right-hander is 10th in the EL in ERA, sixth in starts, eighth in innings pitched (79.1) and fifth in average against (.208).

My dear Watson: Kahlil Watson has been on fire at the plate as of late. The RubberDucks outfielder is batting .333/.364/.571 with two doubles and a homer in his last five games. He is currently on a season-long 12 game on base streak that has seen him hit .265/.333/.531 with five doubles, a triple, a home run and seven RBI. He has scored seven runs during those 12 games.

Burgos' big season: Jorge Burgos launched his 13th homer of the season on Friday night. The RubberDucks first baseman leads the RubberDucks with 13 homers (fourth most in the Eastern League) and 64 RBI (most in the EL and Guardians organization). He is just two RBI away from tying his previous career high of 66 RBI with Lynchburg back in 2022. Burgos is batting .359 (33-92) with seven doubles, one triple, eight home runs and 58 RBI with runners in scoring position this season. 12 of those 33 hits, three of those seven doubles, four of those eight homers and 21 of those 58 RBI have come with RISP and two outs.

Finding his stride: After going hitless in his first six Double-A games, Jonah Advincula has been returning to form. The outfielder has a hit in five of his last seven games including two multi-hit games.

Good eye: The RubberDucks have walked 374 times this season, which is most in the Eastern League and third most in Double-A. Cooper Ingle (51) leads the RubberDucks and is second in the Eastern League while Dayan Frias (43) is second on the RubberDucks and eighth in the EL in free passes. The RubberDucks worked eight or more walks in game 10 times this year including 10 walks against the Baysox on May 17 and Richmond on July 11. 14 Akron batters have worked double digit walks so far this season, and eight (Frias, Ingle, Jorge Burgos, Kahlil Watson, Jake Fox, Joe Lampe, Guy Lipscomb and Alex Mooney) have drawn 20+ walks.

We Are the RubberDucks

On October 29, 2013, team owner Ken Babby and general manager Jim Pfander stood before a capacity audience at the Akron Civic Theater and announced that the team would be known henceforth as the Akron RubberDucks. In addition to being symbolic of the fun, family-friendly brand of entertainment offered by minor league baseball, the name also honors Akron's long history as the "Rubber Capital of the World." Brandiose Marketing of San Diego, California designed the team logo, colors, and various marks and insignias. Please note that for print coverage, RubberDucks is spelled as one word with a capital "D." In broadcast coverage, referring to the team as "the 'Ducks" is an acceptable variation of the team's nickname.
