FROM THE CROWS NEST

King Eddie.... Despite the Marauders dropping their third straight game to the Cardinals on Thursday night, Bradenton continued to see great at-bats from their left fielder Eddie King Jr. The former Louisville Cardinal has been arguably the most consistent player for the Marauders to begin the 2026 season. On Thursday, King Jr. singled during his first at-bat and worked a couple of walks the rest of the way. The base hit by King Jr. increased his hitting streak to five games, which is the longest streak by a Bradenton hitter this year. Overall, King Jr. leads the team in on-base percentage (.400) and ranks No. 3 in hits (5).

Murfy's Law.... On Wednesday, the Bradenton Marauders dropped their second straight game at home to the Palm Beach Cardinals. It was already the team's second extra inning game of the season, but ended in a 4-3 loss over 10 innings for the Marauders. Despite the loss, one stand out performance on the offensive side came from Murf Gray. The Fresno State prodigy tallied three hits with an RBI, which was the second three-hit game of the season for a Bradenton hitter. The Pirates No. 18 prospect just began his professional career, but he has looked comfortable with a .348 AVG, HR, and five RBI over the first five games of the year. Gray leads the team in RBI and ranks No. 2 in average on-base percentage (.400)

Here Comes the Offense.... The Bradenton Marauders played their first home game of 2026 on Tuesday and the offense was on display. Estuar Suero recorded the first three-hit game of the season for the Marauders, which included a two-RBI single with the bases loaded in the bottom of the fifth. Bradenton scratched across five runs in the bottom of the fifth inning to take a 6-0 lead at the time. Dylan Palmer also showed out from the No. 2 spot in the lineup, working three walks and stealing one of the two bases collected by the Marauders. On the pitching side, Jeter Martinez had one of the strongest outings of the year from a Bradenton pitcher, tossing 4.0 scoreless frames in the longest start by a Marauders pitcher so far

My Arrakis, My Dunedin.... The Marauders began the 2026 season with a strong start by taking two out of three games over the weekend against the Dunedin Blue Jays. Bradenton won opening night 6-4 and survived in extras on Saturday to beat Dunedin 4-2. The Marauders are one of five teams in the Florida State League to begin the season with an over .500 record through the first three games. On night one, Seth Hernandez punched out eight batters over 3.0 frames. This included a collection of 18 whiffs on 24 swings, which is the second time a pitcher recorded that many since the FSL started tracking in 2021. Murf Gray dazzled offensively, going 3-for-10 with four RBI and a homer. Gray also earned the game-winning hit on Saturday with a two-RBI double in the top of the ninth.
