HEND HIM THE BALL: Brewers' no. 12-rated prospect Logan Henderson will take the ball for the Sounds on Friday night. The right-hander was dominant in his last start, winning his third straight start with Nashville - fourth overall including his Major League Debut on April 20th. Henderson retired 17 of the first 18 Durham batters he faced last Saturday night at First Horizon Park and ended the game with his second straight quality start on the mound. Over his last 12.0 IP combined, he has allowed two runs - both coming via solo home runs - and has allowed four hits and has 14 strikeouts. In his last three starts with Nashville, Henderson has worked 16.0 IP of one run ball where he has limited opponents to four hits (.078 BAA) and has 21 total strikeouts.

GONE FISHIN: Through the first four games of the current series, the Sounds and Stripers are even at two games a piece with the Stripers holding the season series lead at 5-4. The Sounds own a 54-38 against the Stripers, and are 25-25 at Coolray Field since 2021. This is the first time Nashville has played an IL foe for the second time this season and have 24 total games against the Braves Triple-A farm club to determine the season series winner.

HOW IT'S DUNN: Oliver Dunn ended the day 4-for-6 with a pair of doubles, a walk, and a run scored between the two games. He was the only Nashville player who played in both games to record a multi-hit game in both. Dunn entered the day with five hits in his first 10 games with Nashville and had two combined extra base hits before lacing a pair of doubles in the twin bill.

RAY OF SUNSHINE: Raynel Delgado drove in a pair of runs and had a multi-hit effort for the Sounds in the first game. Delgado entered the game one for his last 21 at-bats and did not have a multi-hit game in his last eight games since April 19 on the road in Charlotte. He followed up his multi-hit game with a knock in the second game to finish the doubleheader 3-for-5 with a triple, double, two RBI, and a run scored.

MONKEY BUSINESS: A pair of Sounds ended lengthy hitting droughts on Thursday night. Jorge Alfaro collected a hit in the first game to see his hitless streak stop at four games. His RBI single in the top of the first inning ended a 0-for-16 slump for Alfaro. Jared Oliva had to wait a little longer with his 0-for-4 first game making it 7 games and a 0-for-24 slide since hitting a home run in his final at-bat of game one of the doubleheader on April 24th vs. Durham. He ended the hitless streak with a double in his first at-bat of game two and finished 2-for-3.

DEIVI ARMSTRONG: Deivi Garcia won his second straight start and improved to 3-1 overall with a 3.47 ERA after spinning 5.0 IP with two earned on five hits in game one against Gwinnett. His three wins have him tied with Logan Henderson for the most on the team and T-3rd in the International League. He had three wins in 40 games with Triple-A Charlotte in 2024 and also posted three wins in 28 games with Triple-A Scranton-Wilkes-Barre in 2023. His five innings matched his single-game high so far this year, something he has now done three times.

SEI BALL, HIT BALL: Anthony Seigler accounted for three of the five Nashville hits on Wednesday night, ending the game 3-for-3 with a home run, RBI, walk, and two runs scored. It was his first three-hit game of the season and his first since August 25 of last year with Double-A Somerset in the Yankees organization. After Wednesday's performance, he now has 10 career three-hit games in what was his 399th career minor league game since being selected by the Yankees with the 23rd overall pick in the 2018 MLB First-Year Player Draft. All three of his season home runs have come in his last seven games played with a home run in two of his last three games.

STALLINGS OUT: Garrett Stallings made his first appearance since April 18th on the road in Charlotte when he took over on the mound for Elvin Rodriguez in the fourth inning on Wednesday. The right-hander worked two scoreless innings to make it five straight games this year without allowing an earned run. The two hits by the Stripers were the first two hits he had allowed so far this season through six innings of work. Stallings has worked an inning-plus in four of the five appearances this year with his two innings being a season-high for Stallings. His five games without allowing an earned run is tied for the longest active streak by a Sounds reliever along with LHP Tyler Jay.
