TATE TIME: Left-hander Tate Kuehner will make his third start of the year and fifth of his Triple-A career when he takes the mound against Gwinnett Saturday night.

BROCKET MAN: Brewers no. 22-rated prospect Brock Wilken ended an 0-for-28 slump that dated back to March 31 vs. Charlotte with his first Triple-A home run in Friday's loss to Gwinnett. It was his 41st career professional home run since being selected by Milwaukee with the 18th overall pick in the 2023 MLB Draft. Since making his professional debut, Wilken's 41 home runs rank second in the Brewers farm system behind former Sound Wes Clarke (53). Wilken ended a 25-game stretch between home runs with his two-run shot against Gwinnett - the longest home run drought of his professional career so far (6/18/25 - 4/9/26). His power has come in spurts before with eight back-to-back games with a home run, and two different stretches with a home run in three straight games. He torched the ball to the tune of 15 home runs in a 42-game span between May 1 - June 30 of last season in which he ranked tied for second in all MiLB in HR during the span.

ALWAYS ON BASE: Greg Jones continued his hot start to the season on Friday night as he got on base for his 11th consecutive game to begin the season. Jones ended the night 3-for-4 marking his first three hit game since he did it against Nashville on April 20, 2025, as a member of the Charlotte Knights. His 11-game on base streak is tied for the ninth-longest in the International League to begin the year and is four-games longer than the next closest Sound (Luke Adams, 7 G). Jones' 11-game streak is the longest by a Nashville player since Daz Cameron has his 15-game streak come to an end on September 12 of last year. Jones' .353 AVG ranks 10th among qualified IL players so far this year and he ranks eighth with his .488 OBP.

SOUND(S) OF HITS: Friday night was the first time this season in which all nine Nashville starters recorded a hit in the same game. Jacob Hurtubise was the last to get a hit and did so with his first hit as a Nashville Sound in the top of the ninth inning. It was the first time all nine starters had a hit in the same game since September 18 last year in Louisville and the seventh time it's happened since the start of the 2025 season.

IN THE FIELD: Nashville recorded a season-high six errors in Friday's loss. It was the most errors in a game by a Triple-A team this season and tied for the most errors in a game by any team in the minors so far in 2026. It tied the most errors the Sounds have had in a game since at least 2005. The last 6-error game came on May 7, 2014 against the Colorado Springs Sky Sox. Nashville ranks T-2nd in Triple-A with 17 errors on the season through 12 games. Triple-A Worcester, who comes to Nashville next week leads the circuit with 18 errors on the year.

EVERYBODY LOVES RAMÓN: Ramón Rodríguez made it back-to-back multi-hit games after his 2-for-4 night at the plate on Friday night and his second straight game with a double. In the lineup for just six games so far this season, Rodríguez is hitting .400 (8-for-20) with two doubles and a pair of RBI. Friday night was his third overall multi-hit game on the year and is tied for second on the club along with Eddys Leonard. The pair trail Greg Jones and Luis Lara who each have 4 multi-hit games on the season.

GOING HOME: With another run scored last night for Nashville, Luis Lara is tied for the International League lead with 13 runs scored this season. The Brewers no. 12-rated prospect is tied with former Sound Vinny Capra (WOR) for the league lead. The pair are tied with Bryce Eldridge (SAC) for the second-most runs in the minors in 2026 behind James Tibbs III (OKC) and his 16 runs.

YARD WORK: Eddys Leonard clubbed his first and second home runs of the season Thursday night in Gwinnett. Leonard spent all of 2025 with Gwinnett and led their team with 20 HR and 61 RBI a season ago. His first homer of the night gave Nashville a 1-0 lead in the top of the second and then he put Nashville back in front with another solo shot in the eighth to make it 4-3. Thursday night marked his ninth career multi-HR game and fourth overall in Triple-A.
